Langer, 2018-09-12 Comedy is how we cope with the absurdity of life The person who cannot step back and see how ludicrous are most of the things we encounter in life is the person who gets mired and engulfed in them Comedy lets us step back and see the whole picture It reminds us of what is really important which certainly includes laughing and laughing often These four comedies each take on several situations but exaggerate them until they become enlarged and laughable To each are added an unusual use of standard theatrical tradition A writer of one play becomes involved with his own characters Another play actually moves backwards in time Another comedy is actually two separate plays that come together while another claims to be a musical but has no singing whatsoever Come along for the fun and laughter and lighten your burdens for a while The Art of Doing Good Joanna Handlin Smith, 2009-03-11 An unprecedented passion for saving lives swept through late Ming society giving rise to charitable institutions that transcended family class and religious boundaries Analyzing lecture transcripts administrative guidelines didactic tales and diaries Joanna Handlin Smith abandons the facile explanation that charity was a response to poverty and social unrest and examines the social and economic changes that stimulated the fervor for doing good With an eye for telling details and a finesse in weaving the voices of her subjects into her narrative Smith brings to life the hard choices that five men faced when deciding whom to help how to organize charitable distributions and how to balance their communities needs against the interests of family and self She thus shifts attention from tired questions about whether the Chinese had a tradition of charity they did to analyzing the nature of charity itself Skillfully organized and engaging The Art of Doing Good moves from discussions about moral leadership and beliefs to scrutiny of the daily operation of soup kitchens and medical dispensaries and from examining local society to generalizing about the just use of resources and the role of social networks in charitable giving Smith s work will transform our thinking about the boundaries between social classes in late imperial China and about charity in general Matchmaking a Single Dad Angela Denise, 2022-08-08 They re all wrong for each other but sometimes two wrongs do make a right Cole The only woman I need in my life is my eight year old daughter Jane As a widowed brewery owner I don t have the time or inclination for anything more serious than a one night stand Running the brewery is a big job and being a parent is a bigger one especially since my in laws keep trying to prove I m an unfit guardian But there s no denying Holly Mayberry drives me crazy with her sassy mouth and attitude I ve known her most of my life but I ve always done a good job of evading her Until now She s teaching Jane s after school computer program and fate keeps throwing us together Holly and I are like oil and water no good for each other I need to stop thinking about her so I agree to beta test a new dating app one that Holly designed although she s the last person I d tell
