Agenda Formation:

The Formation of Campaign Agendas Holli A. Semetko, Jay G. Blumler, Michael Gurevitch, David H. Weaver, Steve Barkin, 2013-04-15 This unusual volume seeks to accomplish three related goals to assess the extent and limits of media power in election campaigns to extend the concept of media agenda setting to include the contributions of powerful news sources in the process of election agenda formation to evaluate the impact of national system variables differences in political and media systems on the balance of party and media forces in the formation of campaign agendas In the process it searches for ways of measuring the discretionary power of the media in electoral politics testing this in terms of the relative ability of journalists and politicians to shape election campaign agendas Setting the Agenda Maxwell McCombs, 2013-05-09 Setting the Agenda describes the mass media's significant and sometimes controversial role in determining which topics are at the centre of public attention and action Although Walter Lippman captured the essence of the media's powerful influence early in the last century with his phrase the world outside and the pictures in our heads a detailed empirical elaboration of this agenda setting role of the mass media did not begin until the final quarter of the 20th century In this comprehensive book Maxwell McCombs one of the founding fathers of agenda setting tradition of research synthesizes the hundreds of scientific studies carried out on this central role of the mass media in the shaping of public opinion Across the world the mass media strongly influences what the pictures of public affairs in our heads are about The mass media also influences the very details of those pictures In addition to describing this media influence on what we think about and how we think about it Setting the Agenda also discusses the sources of these media agendas the psychological explanation for their impact on the public agenda and the subsequent consequences for attitudes opinions and behaviour

Agenda Setting in a 2.0 World Thomas J. Johnson, 2013-07-24 This volume explores agenda setting theory in light of changes in the media environment in the 21st century In the decades since the original Chapel Hill study that launched agenda setting research the theory has attracted the interest of scholars worldwide Agenda Setting in a 2.0 World features the work of a new generation of scholars The research provided by these young scholars reflects two broad contemporary trends in agenda setting A centrifugal trend of research in the expanding media landscape and in domains beyond the original focus on public affairs and a centripetal trend further explicating agenda setting's core concepts Handbook of Public Policy Agenda Setting Nikolaos Zahariadis, Kristin Taylor, 2025-09-10 This thoroughly revised and updated second edition explores how and why private matters become public issues and occasionally government priorities drawing on updated contextual studies that speak to more recent scholarship It builds upon the previous edition's comprehensive overview of the perspectives and institutions involved in setting the government's agenda Europeanization and Domestic Policy Change Paolo Graziano, 2013 This book examines the impact of Europeanization on the domestic politics of EU member states focussing on agricultural policy cohesion policy and employment policy with a detailed comparative case study on Italy Though a founding member Italy has often had an uneasy relationship with the EU and found it difficult to be influential in EU politics and to comply effectively with EU policies and institutional pressures The main focus of this book is the analysis of Italy EU relationship from a policy based perspective adopting the conceptual lenses developed by Europeanization research By looking at the evolution of agricultural regional cohesion and employment policy the book shows how the politics of adaptation have brought Italy closer to Europe in the past twenty years and further highlights the impact of the EU Italy relationship on domestic institutions and politics The author explains that even though Italy has increasingly learned to respect EU membership requirements its influence over agenda setting within the EU remains limited Europeanization and Domestic Policy Change will be of interest to students and scholars of European Politics Europeanization comparative politics and Italian politics

Sustaining Large Marine Ecosystems: The Human Dimension Timothy M. Hennessey, Jon G. Sutinen, 2005-05-06 The shift away from the management of individual resources to the broader perspective of ecosystems is no longer confined to academia and think tanks where it first began the ecosystem paradigm also is beginning to take root in government policy and programs This volume provides innovative and timely approaches for improving and sustaining socioeconomic benefits from LMEs The authors describe methodologies and actions for moving forward in halting the downward resource sustainability spiral and advancing toward the recovery of depleted fish stocks restoration of degraded habitats and reduction and control of pollution within the framework of an ecosystem based approach for the governance of LMEs First book to ever publish that focuses on the human dimension of large marine ecosystem management Offers set of guidelines for possible interrelationship management programs Addresses taxing issues and problems pertaining to the world's marine ecosystems Provides a matrix of the interdependence of economic social cultural and governance elements

Theorising Institutional Change: The Impact of the European Integration Process on the Development of Space Activities in Europe Nina-Louisa Remuss, 2018-08-01 The book provides a structural analysis of the European space effort from an institute change perspective It analyzes the EU ESA inter institutional relationship gives an overview of the development of space policy in Europe and advances the debate about the impact of the European integration process on existing institutional actors While European Space collaboration was initially developed outside the competences of the European Union EU with space programmes being carried out almost exclusively under the framework of European Space Agency ESA and national agencies the EU has gained shared competences Art 2 TFEU in space policy following the adoption of the Lisbon Treaty Currently the EU and ESA work together under a Framework Agreement In 2016 the EU Commission has published a Communication entitled European Space Policy ESP Even though ESA's Member States have agreed to keep ESA as an intergovernmental organisation during the ESA Ministerial Council of 2014 the discussion about ESA becoming part of the EU framework continues The EU's ambitions for leadership in European space policy raise question concerning the future of ESA The study of institutions lies at the heart of political sciences Strikingly the theoretic framework qualifying institutional change and making it comparable leaves room for more concrete and testable dimensions of institutional change

Negotiating Trade John S. Odell, 2006-02-16 Negotiations between governments shape the world political economy and in turn the lives of people everywhere Developing countries have become far more influential in talks in the World Trade Organization including infamous stalemates in Seattle in 1999 and Canc n in 2003 as well as bilateral and regional talks like those that created NAFTA Yet social science does not understand well enough the process of negotiation and least of all the roles of developing countries in these situations This 2006 book sheds light on three aspects of this otherwise opaque process the strategies developing countries use coalition formation and how they learn and influence other participants beliefs This book will be valuable for many readers interested in negotiation international political economy trade development global governance or international law Developing country negotiators and those who train them will find practical insights on how to avoid pitfalls and negotiate better

The Mediatization of Culture and Society Stig Hjarvard, 2013-03-12 Mediatization has emerged as a key concept to reconsider old yet fundamental questions about the role and influence of media in culture and society In particular the theory of mediatization has proved fruitful for the analysis of how media spread to become intertwined with and influence other social institutions and cultural phenomena like politics play and religion This book presents a major contribution to the theoretical understanding of the mediatization of culture and society This is supplemented by in depth studies of The mediatization of politics From party press to opinion industry The mediatization of religion From the faith of the church to the enchantment of the media The mediatization of play From bricks to bytes The mediatization of habitus The social character of a new individualism Mediatization represents a new social condition in which the media have emerged as an important institution in society at the same time as they have become integrated into the very fabric of social and cultural life Making use of a broad conception of the media as technologies institutions and aesthetic forms Stig Hjarvard considers how characteristics of both old and new media come to influence human interaction social institutions and cultural imaginations The Persuasion Handbook James Price Dillard, 2002
