Aging Rights And Quality Of Life Prospects For Older People With Developmental Disabilities:

Core Curriculum for Specializing in Intellectual and Developmental Disability Wendy M. Nehring, 2005 The first interdisciplinary text on health issues concerning persons of all ages with intellectual and developmental disabilities designed for the classroom

Aging, Rights, and Quality of Life Stanley S. Herr, Germain Weber, 1999 The Oxford Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging Daniel B. Kaplan, Barbara Berkman, 2016 This Second Edition of the Handbook addresses the evolving interdisciplinary health care context and the broader social work practice environment as well as advances in the knowledge base which guides social work service delivery in health and aging This includes recent enhancements in the theories of gerontology innovations in clinical interventions and major developments in the social policies that structure and finance health care and senior services In addition the policy reforms of the 2010 Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act set in motion a host of changes in the United States healthcare system with potentially profound implications for the programs and services which provide care to older adults and their families In this volume the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars address a variety of populations that social workers serve and the arenas in which they practice followed by detailed recommendations of best practices for an array of physical and mental health conditions The volume s unprecedented attention to diversity health care trends and implications for practice research policy make the publication a major event in the field of gerontological social work This is a Must Read for all social work social work educators practitioners and students interested in older adults and their families

Quality of Life and Disability Roy Brown, Ivan Brown, 2003-04-15 The authors apply ideas about quality of life to the field of disability to assist front line professionals managers and policy makers in effective service provision They examine the historical context of the concept of quality of life and discuss the application of quality of life in the daily lives of people who have disabilities

Mental Health, Intellectual Disabilities and the Aging Process Philip Davidson, Vee Prasher, Matthew Janicki, 2008-04-15 This book is the third in a series with the International Association for the Scientific Study of Intellectual Disabilities Series Editor Matthew P Janicki These publications are designed to address the issues of health adult development and aging among persons with intellectual disabilities For many years it has been recognized that some adults with intellectual disabilities are at elevated risk for mental and behavioral health problems Often the aging process can complicate the identification diagnosis treatment and prevention of this type of dual diagnosis and present complex challenges to clinicians and carers This book is designed as a practical resource for those involved with the support care and treatment of persons with intellectual disabilities and should prove particularly useful as this community achieves increased longevity The book is divided into three parts Prevalence and Characteristics Diagnosis and Treatment and Service System Issues

Rights, Risk and Restraint-Free Care of Older People Rhidian Hughes, 2010 This book provides health and social care professionals with an authoritative reading resource on the ethics and use of restraint It provides an overview of the different forms of restraint the conditions under which they are used and their implications for the health and wellbeing of older people      Disability Through the Life Course Tamar Heller, Sarah Parker Harris, 2012 The SAGE Reference Series on Disability is a cross disciplinary and issues based series incorporating links from varied fields that make up Disability Studies This volume tackles issues relating to disability through the life course      Ageing, Disability and Spirituality Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2008-02-15 This collection examines theological and ethical issues of ageing disability and spirituality with an emphasis on how ageing affects people who have mental health and developmental disabilities The book presents ways of moving towards more effective relationships between carers and older people with disabilities      Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging Barbara Berkman, 2006-02-09 The Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging is the first reference to combine the fields of health care aging and social work in a single authoritative volume These areas are too often treated as discrete entities while the reality is that all social workers deal with issues in health and aging on a daily basis regardless of practice specialization As the baby boomers age the impact on practice in health and aging will be dramatic and social workers need more specialized knowledge about aging health care and the resources available to best serve older adults and their families The volume s 102 original chapters and 13 overviews written by the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars in the United States and across the world provide social work practitioners and educators with up to date knowledge of evidence based practice guidelines for effectively assessing and treating older adults and their families new models for intervention in both community based practice and institutional care and knowledge of significant policy and research issues in health and aging A truly monumental resource this handbook represents the best research on health and aging available to social workers today      The Oxford Handbook of Positive Psychology and Disability Michael L. Wehmeyer, 2013-09-19 This handbook is the first comprehensive text on positive psychology and disability Emphasizing paradigmatic changes in understanding disability the text covers traditional disciplines in positive psychology and applications of positive psychology to domains like education or work      Housing for the Elderly Philip McCallion, 2013-12-19 Find out how housing options for the elderly are changing and not always for the better To maintain or improve their quality of life many seniors in the United States will move to new locations and into new types of housing Housing for the Elderly addresses the key aspects of the transitions they ll face examines how housing programs can help and looks at the role social workers can play to ensure they remain healthy happy and productive as they age Housing for the Elderly provides the tools to build a comprehensive understanding of how housing is changing to support the growing number of elderly persons in the United States This unique resource examines a full range of housing options including assisted living communities elder friendly communities and homelessness looks at the effects of the Olmstead Decision of 1999 which requires states to place persons with disabilities in community settings rather than in institutions and summarizes current research on Naturally Occurring Retirement Communities NORCs The book also presents a historical perspective of housing issues for the elderly with a special focus on the discrimination of African Americans Topics in Housing for the Elderly include creating elder friendly communities homelessness among the elderly in Toronto housing disparities for older Puerto Ricans in the United States grandparent caregiver housing programs how the Olmstead Decision affects the elderly social workers and health care providers New York State's experience with NORCs relocation concerns of people living in NORCs the integration of services for the elderly into housing settings particularly low income housing moving from a nursing home to an assisted living facility assisted living and Medicaid and much more Housing for the Elderly is an essential resource for social work practitioners administrators researchers and academics who deal with the elderly

Handbook on Quality of Life for Human Service Practitioners Robert L. Schalock, Miguel Ángel Verdugo, 2002 The most comprehensive and current volume on the subject the Handbook contains a unique and practical model of quality of life that human service professionals can use to develop services and evaluate outcomes of programs Two international experts simplify quality of life into 8 factors that can be applied to programs in education physical health mental and behavioral health mental retardation and intellectual disabilities aging and family services The Handbook is based on a review of international literature from 1985 2000 and contains over 50 pages of references
