Learning Java with Games Chong-wei Xu, 2018-11-16 This innovative approach to teaching Java language and programming uses game design development as the method to applying concepts. Instead of teaching game design using Java projects, projects are designed to teach Java in a problem-solving approach that is both fun and effective. Learning Java with Games introduces the concepts of Java and coding, then uses a project to emphasize those ideas. It does not treat the object-oriented and procedure and loop parts of Java as two separate entities to be covered separately but interweaves the two concepts so the students get a better picture of what Java is. After studying a rich set of projects, the book turns to build up a Three-layer Structure for Games as an architecture template and a guiding line for designing and developing video games. The proposed three-layer architecture not only merges essential Java object-oriented features but also addresses loosely coupled software architecture.

Meet Me on Love Street Farah Heron, 2025-06-10 A teen tries to save her quickly gentrifying neighborhood and make her cynical partner in festival planning believe in love in this opposites attract romance perfect for fans of Lynn Painter and Sandhya Menon. Sana Merali is a certified hopeless romantic. It's inevitable when she literally lives on Love Street, a cute side street full of mom and pop shops and cozy apartments. With her florist mother, her part-time job at a vintage shop, and her adorably curated wardrobe, Sana knows she's what meet-cutes are made of, and it's only a matter of time until her own HEA. When the neighborhood is threatened by new developments, however, her plans for love get pushed to the backburner as she and her neighbors rally to host a festival that will finally put the neighborhood on everyone's radar. Because what better way to get people to fall in love with Love Street? Unfortunately, Miles Desai is also on the planning committee. Miles is contrary, judgmental, and anti-romance. His hard stance on love inspires Sana with another goal for the summer: to matchmake Miles and knock the cynicism right out of him. But as her set-up for Miles starts to actually work, Sana realizes that happily ever afters for herself and for her street aren't that easy to come by.

The Old-Fashioned Fairy Book Mrs. Burton Harrison, 2020-07-31 Reproduction of the original The Old-Fashioned Fairy Book by Mrs. Burton Harrison.

Laszlo Dale Mayer, 2018-10-23 Minx Montgomery's only light in a terrible childhood was her neighbor and best friend Mouse. When he left Texas at the age of seventeen, she never heard from him again, though she's never forgotten him either. She moved in with her uncle, went to college, and became a counselor. Her supervisor at the clinic sexually harassed her. Reporting him backfired. Demoted, she's transferred to another branch in the city to the same district she'd finally managed to escape. Laszlo Jensen, a former SEAL, has spent the last two years recovering from the damage done when his squad's truck drove over an antitank landmine. Six other team mates were also badly hurt; the seventh, Mouse, died in what their team leader, Badger Horley, realized later had to be a trap set to take them out. He and his team mate Geir are trying to learn more about Mouse's history: Was the whole squad targeted with that landmine, or just their youngest, newest member? The truth is more disturbing and senseless than they'd anticipated. Who was Mouse really? Minx may be the only person who knew the boy.

Schweninger,2013-05-01 In Indigenous North American film Native Americans tell their own stories and thereby challenge a range of political and historical contradictions including egregious misrepresentations by Hollywood Although Indians in film have long been studied especially as characters in Hollywood westerns Indian film itself has received relatively little scholarly attention In Imagic Moments Lee Schweninger offers a much needed corrective examining films in which the major inspiration the source material and the acting are essentially Native Schweninger looks at a selection of mostly narrative fiction films from the United States and Canada and places them in historical and generic contexts Exploring films such as Powwow Highway Smoke Signals and Skins he argues that in and of themselves these films constitute and in fact emphatically demonstrate forms of resistance and stories of survival as they talk back to Hollywood Self representation itself can be seen as a valid form of resistance and as an aspect of a cinema of sovereignty in which the Indigenous peoples represented are the same people who engage in the filming and who control the camera Despite their low budgets and often nonprofessional acting Indigenous films succeed in being all the more engaging in their own right and are indicative of the complexity vibrancy and survival of myriad contemporary Native cultures Bohemian Gospel Dana Chamblee
