Agricultural Collectivization In Moldavia Basarabia During Stalinsim 1944 195:

The Great Restoration: Post-Communist Transformations from the Viewpoint of Comparative Historical Sociology of Restorations Zenonas Norkus, 2023-09-20 The revolutions of 1989 remains the standard term used to describe the onset of post communist transformations more than thirty years ago Zenonas Norkus proposes a completely new perspective theorising them as the next wave of modern social restorations starting with the post Napoleonic restorations in 1815 A comparison of the 1789 French and 1917 Russian revolutions was seminal for the rise of comparative historical and sociological research on modern revolutions The book extends and supplements the sociology of modern revolutions by the first systematic outline of the sociology of modern social restorations grounded in a comparison of post Napoleonic and post communist restorations Agricultural Collectivization in Moldavia Mihai Gribincea, 1996 Peasants under Siege Gail Kligman, Katherine Verdery, 2011-07-25 In 1949 Romania s fledgling communist regime unleashed a radical and brutal campaign to collectivize agriculture in this largely agrarian country following the Soviet model Peasants under Siege provides the first comprehensive look at the far reaching social engineering process that ensued Gail Kligman and Katherine Verdery examine how collectivization assaulted the very foundations of rural life transforming village communities that were organized around kinship and status hierarchies into segments of large bureaucratic organizations forged by the language of class warfare yet saturated with vindictive personal struggles Collectivization not only overturned property relations the authors argue but was crucial in creating the Party state that emerged its mechanisms of rule and the new persons that were its subjects The book explores how ill prepared cadres themselves unconvinced of collectivization s promises implemented technologies and pedagogies imported from the Soviet Union through actions that contributed to the excessive use of force which Party leaders were often unable to control In addition the authors show how local responses to the Party s initiatives compelled the regime to modify its plans and negotiate outcomes Drawing on archival documents oral histories and ethnographic data Peasants under Siege sheds new light on collectivization in the Soviet era and on the complex tensions underlying and constraining political authority Post-war collectivization of agriculture in the Soviet Union E. M. Jacobs, 1979 Stalinism, Collectivization and the Great Famine Andrea Graziosi, 2009 Transforming Peasants, Property and Power Dorin Dobrinu, Constantin Iordachi, 2009-06-15 The result of a project initiated and coordinated by Gail Kligman and Katherine Verdery research for this volume was conducted by a group of twenty anthropologists historians sociologists and literary critics from Romania United States and Great Britain Employing interdisciplinary methods and using a wealth of previously unexplored archival and oral sources the authors managed to produce the most solid monograph to date on the process of collectivization in Romania Book Jacket Peasants Under Siege Gail Kligman, Katherine Verdery, 2011 Peasants under Siege provides the first comprehensive look at the far reaching social engineering process that ensued The First Steps of Collectivization of Agriculture in Eastern Europe ; 1949-1954 Zygmunt

Kozlowski, Michael Charles Kaser, 1975 Transforming Peasants, Property and Power Constantin Iordachi, Dorin Dobrinicu, 2009-01-01 The subject matter of the volume is part of larger research agenda on the process of land collectivization in the former communist camp focusing on state identity and property The main innovation of the volume is to apply recent interdisciplinary approaches to the study of the collectivization process asking what types of new peasant state relations it formed and how it transformed notions of self persons and things such as land The project conceived of changes in the system of ownership as causing changes in the identity and attitude of people similarly it regarded the study of personal identities as essential for understanding changes in the system of ownership This perspective is rare in the area studies approaches to the topic Unlike other works on the subject the volume treats the entire history of the campaign of collectivization in Romania between 1949 and 1962 It also fully covered Romania's territory with at least two researchers in every historical province Since the process of collectivization varied across space and time the participants to the volume selected a broad sample of research sites differing in religious and ethnic composition economy terrain date of collectivization and other related variables Several of the project participants focused on national level policies and practices i.e. property legislation and debates about the form collectivization should take the others conducted case studies working across a broad span of communities and experiences
