Agriculture Sector Programs Sourcebook:

Agriculture Sector Programs Nwanze Okidegbe, 1998-01-01 This sourcebook provides practical guidance to policymakers and program planners in countries and to development agencies on how to carry out or support an agricultural sector program from initial discussions to developing the program concept to securing broad stakeholder involvement to implementation It explains the reasons why countries may wish to undertake a sector or subsector program and describes the conditions which can help ensure the program's success provides details on how to formulate a sector strategy and bring about institutional reforms focuses on core public sector activities based on a detailed expenditure review and suggests ways of encouraging donors to work together under the leadership of the partner country government Household Welfare, the Labor Market, and Social Programs in Albania Mansoor Rashid, Vajeera Dorabawila, Richard Adams, 2001-01-01

The main focus of this paper is to assess household welfare in Albania describe the labor market and evaluate the equity and efficiency of public expenditures on cash benefits and education This report provides a benchmark against which future welfare developments of the population can be measured It also includes a statistical annex Agriculture Investment Sourcebook

World Bank, 2005-04-08 Investing to promote agricultural growth and poverty reduction is a central pillar of the World Bank's current rural strategy Reaching the Rural Poor 2003 This Sourcebook addresses how to implement the rural strategy by sharing information on investment options and identifying innovative approaches that will aid the design of future lending programs for agriculture It provides generic good practices and many examples that demonstrate investment in agriculture can provide rewarding and sustainable returns to development efforts It is divided into eleven self-contained modules Each module contains three different types of subunits that can also be stand alone documents I Module Overview II Agricultural Investment Notes III Innovative Activity Profiles The stand alone nature of the subunits allows flexibility and adaptability of the material Selected readings and web links are also provided for readers who seek more in depth information

The Sourcebook draws on a wide range of experiences from donor agencies governments institutions and other groups active in agricultural development It is an invaluable reference tool for policy makers professionals academics and students and anyone with an interest in agricultural investments Structural Change in the Farming Sectors in Central and Eastern Europe Csaba Csáki, Zvi Lerman, 2000-01-01 Farm structures in Central and Eastern Europe CEE today cover a whole spectrum of forms which include small subsistence oriented household plots medium sized commercial family farms and large corporations The agricultural sector in CEE definitely has not embraced the family farm as the dominant farming structure thus confounding the original expectations of Western experts On the other hand agriculture did not collapse because of fragmentation and privatization as predicted by conservative doomsayers To address the concerns of the farming sector in CEE with relation to EU accession a workshop was held in Warsaw Poland in June 1999 This volume represents a selection of papers presented at this workshop It examines the reforms and policy changes necessary in the food and agriculture sectors of the ten countries that have started the accession process for eventual membership in the European Union Bulgaria Czech Republic Estonia Hungary Latvia Lithuania Poland Romania Slovakia and Slovenia The papers are organized around the following three topics Evolving farm structures and competitiveness in agriculture Land laws and legal institutions for development of land markets and farm restructuring and Development of farm services for improved competitiveness This volume will be of interest to agricultural policy makers and government officials in the candidate countries EU officials World Bank and FAO staff development scholars and all others interested in the process of agricultural reform in CEE

Agricultural Support Policies in Transition Economies Alberto Valdés,2000-01-01 Studies of Russia Romania Poland Bulgaria and Turkey Turkmenistan Zvi Lerman,Karen McConnell Brooks,2001-01-01 This study on Turkmenistan is the latest addition to a long and growing series of World Bank publications on land reform and farm restructuring in the former socialist countries of Europe and Central Asia The present report combines an analysis of the 1998 farm survey overview of general agricultural policies and sectoral performance Survey results are preceded by a sectoral review and a description of emerging legal framework for land reform and farm restructuring World Bank Group Publications ... Catalog World Bank Group,1999 Trade and Cost Competitiveness in the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, and Slovenia Peter Havlik,2000-01-01 Although the four countries considered in this study are the most developed transition countries in Europe their average wages are only a fraction of West European levels While the labor costs would theoretically give the Central and Eastern European CEEC countries an advantage capital shortages and the lack of skills required for a market economy prevent its use The report was prepared under the auspices of the World Bank by Peter Havlik Deputy Director of the Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies WIIW This report reviews wage and labor productivity developments and examines the evolution of export competitiveness It also summarizes the main findings from the ongoing research by WIIW on the impact of foreign direct investment on restructuring and provides some policy recommendations

Farm Sector Restructuring in Belarus Csaba Csáki,Zvi Lerman,Sergey Sotnikov,2000 Agriculture remains the main source of employment and livelihood for the large rural population of many transition countries especially among the former Soviet republics Accordingly the World Bank continuously monitors the progress of land reform and farm restructuring in the region because of the potential impact of these processes on rural development and poverty alleviation in rural areas The present study on Belarus is the latest addition to a long and growing series of World Bank publications on land reform and farm restructuring in the former socialist countries of Europe and Central Asia The unique features of all these publications is their reliance on first hand empirical information collected through extensive farm surveys of various rural constituencies Analysis of survey findings enables the World Bank to base its policy dialogue with governments in the region on solid empirical facts making the Bank's recommendations more credible and relevant The survey findings in this volume will provide a platform for useful policy discussions with this country's government and supply international donors that are active there with essential information to design their strategic programs

A Diagnostic Framework for Revenue Administration Jit B. S. Gill,2000-01-01 A systematic diagnosis of a revenue administration is a prerequisite to developing a successful strategy for its reform However given the complexity of tax and customs administration this is not a simple task A host of external and internal factors need to be analyzed to uncover the roots of organizational and institutional dysfunction Also the diagnosis needs to be done in a participatory manner to build consensus around the causes for inadequate performance and their remedies This framework enables a step by step analysis of the environment history resources strategy transformation processes outputs and feedback mechanisms of the revenue administration system with a view to identifying systemic deficiencies that lead to inefficiency and ineffectiveness in its operations Besides a detailed set of diagnostic questions for each area of analysis the framework provides illustrations of frequently encountered problems and their possible remedies The framework can be used in a group setting involving different stakeholders to guide brainstorming sessions and draft reform strategies

Financial Markets, Credit Constraints, and Investment in Rural Romania Rodrigo Chaves,2001 This study evaluates the performance of financial markets in rural areas of Romania based on the 1998 rural household rural enterprise and financial intermediary surveys along with other official statistical data for 1997 It presents empirical evidence indicating that constrained access to credit markets negatively influences the investment behavior of households and enterprises The report recommends a detailed government strategy to correct the observed shortcomings of rural financial markets and identifies new challenges that are likely to appear Telecommunications Legislation in Transitional and Developing Economies Tim Schwarz, David Satola, 2000 This paper examines the design of telecommunications legislation in countries with transitional and developing economies TDCs engaged in liberalising and privatising their telecommunications sectors It attempts to synthesise good practice and is intended to be used as a tool for legislative drafting The main purpose of the paper is to highlight some of the issues which policy makers and legislators in TDCs may wish to bear in mind The paper has three components The first section outlines the scope and underlying principles of telecommunications legislation the second section outlines the regulatory imperatives of telecommunications legislation and the third part the annex contains framework telecommunications legislation Dismantling Russia's

Nonpayments System Brian Pinto, Vladimir Drebensov, Aleksandr Morozov, 2000-01-01 One question preoccupies many scholars and practitioners How can economic growth in the Russian Federation be reinvigorated This report contributes to the current debate Nonpayments in Russia evolved into a complex inter linked system over the latter half of the 1990s becoming one of the most critical issues facing policymakers This paper analyzes this system including its origins its evolution the factors that now perpetuate it and its costs and identifies a minimum set of economic reforms needed to dismantle it The paper also proposes answers to key questions about nonpayments including How has its course been influenced by government policy at the federal and subnational levels What are the links with macroeconomic policy What is the role of the energy sector and how has the system affected the way businesses operate What are the implications for economic growth How indeed as part of Russia's transition to a monetized market economy did the nonpayments system come to exert a stranglehold on virtually every aspect of the economy This report will be of interest to policymakers and economists interested in transition economies Communal Infrastructure in Slovenia Mojmir Mrak, 2000 Annotation

Although growth of infrastructure services in Vietnam since the late 1980s greatly facilitated rapid growth in exports and gross domestic product GDP Vietnam's infrastructure still suffers from a number of major inadequacies This report has three main objectives to describe and assess the current status and performance of key infrastructure sectors to describe and assess the policy regulatory and institutional environment for involving the private sector in those sectors and to help policymakers in framing future reform and development strategies and to assist potential private sector investors in assessing investment opportunities The TB and HIV/AIDS Epidemics in the Russian Federation, 2001-01-01 The TB and

HIV AIDS Epidemics in the Russian Federation describes the socioeconomic conditions in the Russian Federation and examines how they are influencing infectious disease epidemics It also discusses the impact of the epidemics on the population including the incidence and prevalence in the general and prison populations Finally this paper presents a description of a mathematical model of improvements in health status possible under various TB control strategies with implications for HIV AIDS as well

Agriculture Sector Programs Sourcebook Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Agriculture Sector Programs Sourcebook books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Agriculture Sector Programs Sourcebook books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Agriculture Sector Programs Sourcebook books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Agriculture Sector Programs Sourcebook versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Agriculture Sector Programs Sourcebook books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Agriculture Sector Programs Sourcebook books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Agriculture Sector Programs Sourcebook books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Agriculture Sector Programs Sourcebook books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals.
