The Surreptitious Speech V. Y. Mudimbe, 1992-09 Distinguished scholar V Y Mudimbe assembles a lively tribute to Presence Africaine the landmark African studies journal begun in 1947 Paris While it celebrates the project's forty year history The Surreptitious Speech does not naively canonize the journal but rather offers a vibrant discussion and critical reading of its context characteristics and significance

Anticolonial Form Alexandra Reza, 2024-01-24 Anticolonial Form Literary Journals at the End of Empire addresses the relationship between culture and politics in two journals published in Europe by African writers Presence Africaine launched in Paris in 1947 and Mensagem published between 1948 and 1964 in Lisbon Grounded in extensive archival work the book argues for a comparative and transnational approach to postcolonial literary studies for the significance of the literary journal as a key form in the development of African writing in French Portuguese and English and for a historically and geographically contingent understanding of the relationships between literature culture and politics This book takes up the idea of articulation to bring forward the contingent and fugitive connections that networks of literary journals fostered between francophone anglophone and lusophone writers in the conjuncture of decolonization in the 1950s and 1960s It argues that comparison as a praxis and a method was central to the anticolonial charge of those journals on whose pages we see an iterative back and forth between writing from and about different parts of the colonial world a recursive effort to establish how ideas and analyses developed in one part of the colonial world could travel and be adopted and adapted in others Many scholars have argued convincingly that the institutionalized practice of comparison in the academic field of comparative literature is itself imbricated with histories of colonialism Reza's argument takes on a particular significance in the context of that critique as the anticolonial comparison on which she focuses offers a different tradition of relational praxis from which to think about connection and comparison itself

Postcolonial Studies Benita Parry, 2004-07-31 A powerful selection of essays by one of the most important critics in postcolonial studies arguing for practices of reading and criticism fully attentive to historical circumstances and socio material conditions

Fishing by Obstinate Isles Keith Tuma, 1998 This text investigates modern British poetry and the death of that poetry in American critical circles It explores the relations of British and American poetries challenging reductive American views of British poetry

Surrealism and the Book Renee Riese Hubert, Renée Riese Hubert, Renee

Hubert Hubert,1988-01-01 An indispensable tool for the student of Surrealism and book illustration and also for those interested in the complicated intrications between literature and pictorial movements from Romanticism to present day Postmodernism Blurb Making Your Own Days Kenneth Koch,1999-04-08 From the winner of the Bollingen Prize in poetry and author of the classic bestseller Rose Where Did You Get That Red comes a unique highly entertaining book for anyone who wants to be a better reader and writer of poetry National Identities and Socio-Political Changes in Latin America Antonio Gomez-Moriana,Mercedes Duran-Cogan,2013-10-31 This study frames the social dynamics of Latin American in terms of two types of cultural momentum foundational momentum and the momentum of global order in contemporary Latin America Autobiographical Voices Françoise Lionnet,2018-03-15 No detailed description available for Autobiographical Voices Freedom Time Gary Wilder,2015-02-14 Freedom Time reconsiders decolonization from the perspectives of Aimé Césaire Martinique and Léopold Sédar Senghor Senegal who beginning in 1945 promoted self determination without state sovereignty As politicians public intellectuals and poets they struggled to transform imperial France into a democratic federation with former colonies as autonomous members of a transcontinental polity In so doing they revitalized past but unrealized political projects and anticipated impossible futures by acting as if they had already arrived Refusing to reduce colonial emancipation to national independence they regarded decolonization as an opportunity to remake the world reconcile peoples and realize humanity's potential Emphasizing the link between politics and aesthetics Gary Wilder reads Césaire and Senghor as pragmatic utopians situated humanists and concrete cosmopolitans whose postwar insights can illuminate current debates about self management postnational politics and planetary solidarity Freedom Time invites scholars to decolonize intellectual history and globalize critical theory to analyze the temporal dimensions of political life and to question the territorialist assumptions of contemporary historiography The Other America J. Michael Dash,1998 A wide ranging work that explores two centuries of Caribbean literature from a comparative perspective While haunted by the need to establish cultural difference and authenticity Caribbean thought is inherently modernist in its recognition of the interplay between cultures brought about by centuries of contact domination and consent Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka,2010-03-08 When Frantz Fanon's critiques of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism are brought into the ever widening orbit of Africana critical theory something unprecedented in the annals of Africana intellectual history happens five distinct forms of Fanonism emerge Forms of Fanonism Frantz Fanon's Critical Theory and the Dialectics of Decolonization is discursively distinguished from other engagements of Fanon's thought and texts insofar as it is the first study to consciously examine his contributions to Africana Studies and critical theory or rather the Africana tradition of critical theory Forms of Fanonism identifies and intensely analyzes Fanon's contributions to the deconstruction and reconstruction of Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory In highlighting his unique solutions to the problems of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism five distinct forms of Fanonism materialize These five forms of Fanonism allow contemporary critical theorists to innovatively explore the ways in which his thought and texts can be dialectically put to use in relieving the wretched experience of this generation's wretched of the earth. Critics can also apply these forms to deconstruct and reconstruct Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory using their anti-imperialist interests. Throughout Forms of Fanonism, Reiland Rabaka critically dialogues with Fanon incessantly asking his corpus critical questions and seeking from it crucial answers. This book in short solemnly keeps with Fanon's own predilection for connecting critical theory to revolutionary praxis by utilizing his thought and texts as paradigms and points of departure to deepen and develop the Africana tradition of critical theory.
