Stories for Men Charles Grayson, 2011 Can the reading public imagine a less likely but more needed book than Stories for Men a seventy five year old anthology edited by Charles Grayson written in an age when such a title would scarcely raise an eyebrow Imagine a book about men in which the featured theme is not rapists child abusers or men who never weep feel little sorrow or prefer dog fighting to baseball To say the least this is a counter cultural collective portrait necessary in today s politically correct world The original editor Charles Grayson hit the nail on the head in his explicit opening remarks The only claim we make for this book is that it doesn t pretend to offer the best or the finest in the world s foremost short stories by contemporary masters Simply it is just a bundle of yarns by present day American writers each dealing with a different phase of the actions and activities of men designed for good reading The text fulfills its mission The work features little known short stories by such major writers as Erskine Caldwell on racial relations James M Cain on murder James T Farrell on street life Dashiell Hammett on men and divorce Ring W Lardner on baseball Damon Runyon on football William Saroyan on horseracing Thomas Wolfe on travel William Faulkner on foreigners among many others For readers interested in a slice of America this will be a book of inestimable value as well as personal pleasure Stories for Men will prove ideal
