1,000 UK Number One Hits Jon Kutner, Spencer Leigh, 2010-05-26 The official UK charts started in November 1952 with Al Martin's Here's In My Heart at the top. Since then there have been over 50 years of changes and we have now reached the 1 000 number one. The Liverpool English Dictionary Tony Crowley, 2017 From Abbadabba to Z Cars this remarkable dictionary records the rich vocabulary that has evolved over the past century and a half as part of the complex stratified multi faceted and changing culture of Liverpool. The roots, routes, meanings and histories of the words of Liverpool are presented in a concise, clear and accessible format. Anfield Iron Tommy Smith, 2009 Footballing legend Tommy Smith played with Liverpool for 18 years from 1960 to 1978. During this time he won almost every honour club football has to offer. Here he gives us the inside story of a whole host of footballing legends including Bill Shankly, Bob Paisley, Ron Yeats and Kevin Keegan. 1966: Sport's FORGOTTEN Year David Ross, 2011 The Original Little Black Songbook Wise Publications, 2014-03-17 The Original Little Black Songbook from the best selling series of chord songbooks is here to teach you how to play 70 of the very best songs of all time from some of the best artists of all time. The Language of Television Albert Hunt, 2013-06-19 The first part of this book assesses how television presents viewers with information contrasting the official reality of news and current affairs programmes with the anarchic view of the world put out by such as Morecambe and Wise and the two Ronnies. It challenges the politics of programme schedules and takes care to consider the language used in programs designed for different purposes. The second inspiring part contains accounts of three of the author's collaborative video projects which aimed to use the medium of video storytelling to access a different way of teaching. The third and most polemical part of the book explores more about education in relation to television and video. Originally published in 1981 it is a book about the way that television through massive and constant reinforcement made its own language the only language and it presents the attempts, instructive, hilarious, occasionally quite touching, made by the author and students to discover other possible languages that television might use. Sixties British Pop, Outside in Gordon Thompson, 2024 Itchycoo Park 1964-1970 the second volume of Sixties British Pop Outside In explores how London songwriters, musicians and production crews navigated the era.

s cultural upheavals by reimagining the pop music envelope Thompson explores how some British artists conjured up sophisticated hybrid forms by recombining elements of jazz folk blues Indian ragas and western classical music while others returned to the raw essentials Encouraging these experiments youth culture s economic power challenged the authority of their parents generation Based on extensive research including vintage and original interviews Thompson presents sixties British pop not as lists of discrete people and events but as an interwoven story The Story of Your Life James Lambie,2010 The intriguing story and turbulent history of a paper Charles Dickens praised for its range of information and profundity of knowledge and which Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother simply endorsed with the remark Of course I read The Sporting Life It was the Queen Mother s love of horseracing that made her such an avid reader of the Life and coverage of that sport forms the core of this book but there is so much more to fascinate the reader including eyewitness accounts of the first fight for the heavyweight championship of the world and Captain Webb s heroic Channel swim of 1875 Highlights in the history of cricket football and rugby are also featured while chapters on coursing and greyhound racing rank alongside surreal reports on ratting contests and songbird singing competitions And for 30 years Tommy Wisdom made his motoring reports unique by competing against the best at Brooklands Le Mans and in many Monte Carlo rallies while Henry Longhurst s golfing column was simply the best The paper s strident campaigns for racing reforms are also chronicled along with its coverage of major news stories from Fred Archer s shocking suicide to its own untimely demise Its travails in the law courts are documented from its first year when it was forced to change its title to its last when it had to pay libel damages to the training team of Lynda and Jack Ramsden and their jockey Kieren Fallon A higher price was paid by its French correspondent who was killed in a duel over an article he had written while the terrible toll the First World War took on the nation s sporting heroes is catalogued by the Life s embedded army correspondent against a background of political bungling that is being repeated today Liverpool: A Memoir of Words Tony Crowley,2023-09-15 Included in the TLS Books of the Year 2023 Written by an author brought up in working class Liverpool in the 1960s and 1970s Liverpool A Memoir of Words is a work of creative non fiction that combines the study of language in Liverpool with social history the history of the English language and personal memoir A beautifully written book based on a lifetime s academic research it explores the relationship between language and memory and demonstrates the ways in which words are enmeshed in history and history in words Starting with Ace and weaving its way alphabetically to Z Cars the work illustrates the deep relationship that has been forged in the past two hundred years or so between a form of language a place and a social identity The account is funny sad full of surprises and always illuminating It tells the real history of Scouse details the multicultural complexity of Liverpool English examines the common use of plazzymorphs and shows how Liverpudlian words exemplify standard processes of change and development Neither a memoir dictionary or history book this work crosses different fields of knowledge in order to weave an engaging and fascinating story It is a book that will educate and delight Liverpudlians students of language and social
