From Womb to Tomb Sadiri Joy Tira, 2024-08-01 Fifty years ago the major missiological discussion was UPG Unreached People Group This was followed by Urban Mega Cities 10 40 Window Holistic Business as Missions and Diaspora Missions While all these remain the contour of Global Missions however in the coming years is Generational and Polycentric missiology The UPG are now in our own circle The growing population among the younger people and the aging population cannot be ignored by the Global Church The gospel is for all people Sadiri Joy Tira D Min D Miss Lewis and Clark Road Trips: Exploring the Trail Across America Kira Gale, 2006 Yearbook of International Organizations 2004/2005 Union of International Associations, 2004 ELF and Applied Linguistics Kumiko Murata, 2023-12-22 With help from a global cast of scholars Kumiko Murata explores the remodelling of the discipline of applied linguistics which traditionally regarded Anglophone native speaker English as the standard for English as a lingua franca ELF This edited volume probes the dichotomy between the current focus of applied linguistic research and a drastically changed English use in a globalised world This division is approached from diverse perspectives and with the overarching understanding of ELF as an indispensable area of applied linguistics research The volume includes theoretical backgrounds to English as a lingua franca the nature of ELF interactions language policy and practice from an ELF perspective and the relationship between multilingualism and ELF A resourceful book not only to ELF researchers but also applied linguists in general as well as policy makers administrators practicing teachers and university students from diverse linguistic backgrounds Dragon in the Air: Transformation of China's Aviation Industry and Air Force, 2013-02-15 Dragon in the Air Transformation of China's Aviation Industry and Air Force is a comprehensive and multidimensional study of the air force and the emerging aviation industry in PRC The author has made a bold effort to trace the changing character of Chinese Air Force from the time of nationalists and perspicuously hunted down the history by dividing PLAAF into three distinct periods The first stage from 1949 1979 has been characterized by the early blues of PLAAF under Mao's leadership Deng then had an overbearing influence in the second stage from 1979 1993 also instrumental in initiating the process of transformation from an ancillary of PLA into an independent arm The third stage was however the defining moment which witnessed the start of modernization of PLAAF under the leadership of Jiang Zemin The author has very lucidly tried to explain the strong link between modernisation of PLAAF and the emergence of China's aviation industry and therefore divided the book in two parts While the first part of the book maintains focus on the air force and the process of modernisation the second part dwells with the evolution of the aviation industry and the changes in the organisation structure He has pointedly highlighted China's increasing defence spending and growing military capabilities resulting in China developing new aerial platforms ballistic missiles and modern firepower As a result China is enhancing strategic power projection by building capabilities to carry out air strikes reconnaissance and early warning and air and missile defence to put together a potent military force by the middle of this century Air & Space Power Journal win 03 , Directory of Published Proceedings ,1999 The Keys to the Car James John MacKenzie,World Resources Institute,1994 Introducing automobiles that have zero emissions This New Ocean Loyd S. Houston Johnson,2019-02-21 Taking Flight explores the emergence of commercial aviation between the world wars and in the midst of the Great Depression to show that the industry s dramatic growth resulted from a unique combination of federal policy technological innovations and public interest in air travel Historian M Houston Johnson V traces the evolution of commercial flying from the US Army s trial airmail service in the spring of 1918 to the passage of the pivotal Air Commerce Act of 1938 Johnson emphasizes the role of federal policy particularly as guided by both Herbert Hoover and Franklin Roosevelt to reveal the close working relationship between federal officials and industry leaders as well as an increasing dependence on federal assistance by airline airframe and engine manufacturers Taking Flight highlights the federal government s successful efforts to foster a nascent industry in the midst of an economic crisis without resorting to nationalization a path taken by virtually all European countries during the same era It also underscores an important point of continuity between Hoover s policies and Roosevelt s New Deal a sharp departure from many interpretations of Depression era business history and shows how both governmental and corporate actors were able to harness America s ongoing fascination with flying to further a larger economic agenda and facilitate the creation of the world s largest and most efficient commercial aviation industry This glimpse into the golden age of flight contributes not only to the history of aviation but also to the larger history of the United States during the Great Depression and the period between the world wars Fortitudine ,1997
