The European Campaign Samuel J. Newland, Clayton K. S. Chun, 2011 Given the significance of World War II and the interest in the European Campaign the authors offer a fresh look at the operations involved in winning the war in Europe The authors begin with an examination of prewar planning for various contingencies then move to the origins of Germany first in American war planning They then focus on the concept favored by both George C Marshall and Dwight D Eisenhower that the United States and its Allies had to conduct a cross channel attack and undertake an offensive aimed at the heartland of Germany Following this background contained in the initial chapters the remainder of the book provides a comprehensive discussion outlining how the European Campaign was carried out The authors conclude that American political leaders and war planners established logical and achievable objectives for the nation's military forces. However, during the campaign's execution, American military leaders were slow to put into practice what would later be called operational level warfare. For comparison, the authors include an appendix covering German efforts at war planning in the tumultuous 1920s and 1930s.

Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1996 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1973 United States Army in World War II, 2008 Universal Design Edward Steinfeld, Jordana Maisel, 2012-04-10 A much needed reference to the latest thinking in universal design. Universal Design: Creating Inclusive Environments offers a comprehensive survey of best practices and innovative solutions in universal design. Written by top thinkers at the Center for Inclusive Design and Environmental Access (IDEA), it demonstrates the difference between universal design and accessibility and identifies its relationship to sustainable design and active living. Hundreds of examples from all areas of design illustrate the practical application of this growing field. Complete in depth coverage includes: The evolution of universal design from its roots in the disability rights movement to present day trends; How universal design can address the needs of an aging population without specialization or adaptation to reduce the need for expensive and hard to find specialized products and services; Design practices for human performance, health and wellness, and social participation; Strategies for urban and landscape design, housing, interior design, product design, and transportation. Destined to become the standard professional reference on the subject, Universal Design: Creating Inclusive Environments is an invaluable resource for architects, interior designers, urban planners, landscape architects, product designers, and anyone with an interest in how we access, use, and enjoy the environment. Market Garden Then and Now Boxed Set Karel Margry, 2002-08-30 Both volumes of Operation Market Garden: Then and Now in a presentation slip case. ULTRA and the Army Air Forces in World War II: An Interview with Associate Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court Lewis F. Powell, Jr. Lewis F. Powell, 1987 The Praetorian STARShip: the untold story of the Combat Talon, 2001 Jerry Thigpen's study on the history of the Combat Talon is the first effort to tell the story of this wonderfully capable machine. This weapons system has performed virtually every imaginable tactical event in the spectrum of conflict and by any measure is the most versatile C-130 derivative ever produced. First modified and sent to Southeast Asia (SEA) in 1966 to replace theater unconventional warfare (UW) assets that were limited in both lift capability and speed, the Talon I quickly adapted to theater UW tasking including infiltration and resupply and psychological warfare operations into North Vietnam. After spending four years in SEA and maturing into a highly respected UW weapons system, the Joint Chief of Staff (JCS) chose the Combat Talon to lead the night low level raid on the North Vietnamese prison camp at Son Tay. Despite the outcome of the operation, the Talon I cemented its reputation as the weapons system of choice for long range clandestine operations. In the period following the Vietnam War, United States Air Force (USAF) special operations gradually lost its political and financial support, which was graphically demonstrated in the failed Desert One mission into Iran. Thanks to congressional supporters like Earl Hutto of Florida and Dan Daniel of Virginia funds for aircraft upgrades and military construction projects materialized to meet the ever increasing threat to our nation Under the leadership of such committed hard driven officers as Brenci Uttaro Ferkes Meller and Thigpen the crew force became the most disciplined in our Air Force It was capable of penetrating hostile airspace at night in a low level mountainous environment covertly to execute any number of unconventional warfare missions ULTRA and the Army Air Forces in World War II Lewis F.
