Airborne Early Warning Mike Hirst, 1983 National Command and Control , 1990 Human Factors in Simulation and Training Peter A. Hancock, Dennis A. Vincenzi, John A. Wise, Mustapha Mouloua, 2008-12-17 Discussing issues and concepts relating to human factors in simulation this book covers theory and application in fields such as space ships submarines naval aviation and commercial aviation The authors develop and expand on concepts in simulator usage particularly specific characteristics and issues of simulation and their effect on the validity and functionality of simulators as a training device The chapters contain in depth discussions of these particular characteristics and issues They also incorporate theories pertaining to the motivational aspects of training simulation of social events and PC based simulation Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals , 1984 A Cognitive Approach to Situation Awareness: Theory and Application Sébastien Tremblay, 2017-03-02 The importance of situation awareness SA in assessing and predicting operator competence in complex environments has become increasingly apparent in recent years It has been widely established that SA is a contributing factor to many commercial and military accidents and incidents Yet determining exactly what constitutes SA is a very difficult task given the complexity of the construct itself and the many different processes involved with its acquisition and maintenance This volume brings together recent developments from researchers and practitioners from around the world who are studying and applying SA from a cognitive perspective The 41 contributors represent many different theoretical perspectives research approaches and domains of application Each chapter has a primary emphasis around one of three main topics theory measurement and application and examines the considerable inter linkage between them To bring further coherence to the book all of the contributors received draft manuscripts of those chapters most relevant to their own Designed to be completely international and interdisciplinary the authors themselves present varied perspectives from academic departments and industrial organisations from around the world and from broad applications with contributions from researchers in the domains of process control sport aviation transportation and command and control The readership includes practitioners academics and researchers within human factors ergonomics and industrial psychology Graduate and Undergraduate students specialising within these areas during their final year Air University Quarterly Review , 1985

History of Strategic and Ballistic Missile Defense: Volume I Barry Leonard, 2010-11 As part of a larger study of the strategic arms competition which developed after World War II between the U S and the U S S R this study of the two countries strategies for air and ballistic missile defense addresses two broad subjects 1 How did each country approach the problem of defense against the threat from the air 2 Why did each country accent particular elements of an air defense strategy at various periods between 1945 and 1972 The first question concerns the means that leaders chose for defense against an increasingly sophisticated offensive threat Includes several appendices of chronologies tables charts maps and notes History of Strategic Air and Ballistic Missile Defense: 1945-1955 , 2009 From the book s Foreword In the early

1970s the U S Army Center of Military History contracted with BDM Corporation for a history of U S efforts to counter Soviet air and missile threats during the Cold War The resulting two volume History of Strategic Air and Ballistic Missile Defense covers the years 1945 1972 when the strategic arms competition between the United States and the Soviet Union was at its height The study was first published for limited distribution in 1975 and recently declassified with minimal redaction These volumes address the passive and active defense strategies technologies and techniques adopted by both U S and Soviet defense planners Much of their actions centered around three common questions How might we be attacked How shall we defend our country What can technology do to solve the basic problems of defending against this new intercontinental threat
