Aircraft Carriers and the Role of Naval Power in the Twenty-first Century Jacquelyn K. Davis, 1993 Naval Power in the Twentieth Century N.A.M. Rodger, 2016-07-27 It is a century since Mahan and his disciples taught the world that a battlefleet was indispensable to a great power Great and not so great powers still keep powerful navies today but we have no generally accepted principles to explain why In this book historians and naval officers from Britain the United States and other countries study the use of naval power over a century and ask what it is for and what it can do It will be essential reading for modern historians policy makers and strategists Needs and Opportunities in the Modern History of the U.S. Navy Michael J. first that China should become a great maritime power and secondly that the PLA become a world class armed force by 2050 He wants this latter objective to be largely completed by 2035 China as a Twenty First Century Naval Power focuses on China's navy and how it is being transformed to satisfy the world class goal Beginning with an exploration of why China is seeking to become such a major maritime power author Michael McDevitt first explores the strategic rationale behind Xi s two objectives China's reliance on foreign trade and overseas interests such as China's Belt and Road strategy In turn this has created concerns within the senior levels of China s military about the vulnerability of its overseas interests and maritime life lines is a major theme McDevitt dubs this China's sea lane anxiety and traces how this has required the PLA Navy to evolve from a near seas focused navy to one that has global reach a blue water navy He details how quickly this transformation has taken place thanks to a patient step by step approach and abundant funding The more than 10 years of anti piracy patrols in the far reaches of the Indian Ocean has acted as a learning curve accelerator to blue water status McDevitt then explores the PLA Navy s role in the South China Sea and the Indian Ocean He provides a detailed assessment of what the PLAN will be expected to do if Beijing chooses to attack Taiwan potentially triggering combat with America's first responders in East Asia especially the U S Seventh Fleet and U S Fifth Air Force He conducts a close exploration of how the PLA Navy fits into China's campaign plan aimed at keeping reinforcing U S forces at arm's length what the Pentagon calls anti access and area denial A2 AD if war has broken out over Taiwan or because of attacks on U S allies and friends that live in the shadow of China McDevitt does not know how Xi defines world class but the evidence from the past 15 years of building a blue water force has already made the PLA Navy the second largest globally capable navy in the world This book concludes with a forecast of what Xi s vision of a world class navy might look like in the next fifteen years when the 2035 deadline is reached Naval Power in the Twenty-first Century Peter J.
