Basic Concepts Of Poetics:

Basic Concepts of Poetics Emil Staiger, 2010-11-01 Poetics Aristotle, 2006-09 Shakespeare's Lyricized Drama Aleksandŭr Shurbanov, 2010 This book explores Shakespeare's poetic drama as a blend of the dramatic and the lyrical Through a series of minute textual analyses it traces the gradual integration of the two modes from Love's Labour's Lost to Hamlet and the other mature tragedies How this combination is effected in its details is a question that can help us understand better the specificity of Shakespeare's innovative work for the theater and the power of its impact

Chinese Narrative Poetry Dore Jesse Levy, 1988 Chinese Narrative Poetry brings a new perspective to some of China's best loved and most influential poems including Ts'ai Yen's Poem of Affliction Po Chu-yi's Song of Everlasting Sorrow and Wei Chuang's recently discovered Song of the Lady of Ch'in Composed in the shih form during the Late Han Six Dynasties and T'ang periods these poems stand out as masterworks of narrative art Yet paradoxically their narrative qualities have been little recognized or explored in either traditional Chinese or modern Western scholarship The reason for this neglect is that Western literary traditions acknowledge their origins in epic poetry and thus take narrative for granted but the Chinese tradition is fundamentally based on lyric and does not admit of a separate category for narrative poetry Drawing on both classical Chinese critical works and the most recent Western contributions to the theory of narrative Levy shows how narrative elements developed out of the lyrical conventions of shih In doing so she accomplishes a double purpose guiding the modern reader to an understanding of the nature of narrative in Chinese poetry and shedding light on the ways in which Chinese poets adapted the devices of lyric to the needs of a completely different expressive mode Students of Chinese literature will welcome this pathbreaking study but Chinese Narrative Poetry will interest other scholars as well because it addresses questions of crucial importance for literary theory and comparative literature particularly the central issue of the applicability of Western critical concepts to non Western literature and culture The Poetics of Alfarabi and Avicenna

S. Kemal, 2021-09-20 This book is an important and original study of medieval Arabic theories of poetics It examines the commentaries on Aristotle s Poetics by Alfarabi and Avicenna placing them fully in the context of the Arabic development of Aristotle s logical theory In this the author breaks new ground showing how the philosophers justified the logical and moral power of poetics discourse Its concern for philosophical issues in the Classical Arabic tradition distinguishes this book from other studies of literary theory Medieval Oral Literature Karl Reichl, 2011-11-30 Medieval literature is to a large degree shaped by orality not only with regard to performance but also to transmission and composition Although problems of orality have been much discussed by medievalists there is to date no comprehensive handbook on this topic Medieval Oral Literature a volume in the De Gruyter Lexikon series was written by an international team of twenty five scholars and offers a thorough discussion of theoretical approaches as well as detailed presentations of individual traditions and genres In addition to chapters on the oral formulaic theory on the interplay of orality and writing in the Early Middle Ages on performance and performers on oral poetics and on ritual aspects of orality there are chapters on the Older Germanic Romance Middle High German Middle English Celtic Greek Byzantine Russian Hebrew Arabic Persian and Turkish traditions of oral literature There is a special focus on epic and lyric genres that are also discussed in separate chapters with additional chapters on the ballad and on drama The Philosophical Poetics of Alfarabi, Avicenna and Averroes Salim

Kemal, 2012-12-06 This book examines the studies of Aristotle s Poetics and its related texts in which three Medieval philosophers Alfarabi Avicenna and Averroes proposed a conception of poetic validity beauty and a just relation between subjects in a community goodness The work considers the relation of the Poetics to other Aristotelian texts the transmission of these works to the commentators context and the motivations driving the commentators reception of the texts The book focuses on issues central to the classical relation of beauty to truth and goodness The Heritage of Traditional Malay Literature V.I. Braginsky, 2022-06-20 Traditional literature or the deed of the reed pen as it was called by its creators is not only the most valuable part of the cultural heritage of the Malay people but also a shared legacy of Malaysia Indonesia Singapore and Brunei Malay culture during its heyday saw the entire Universe as a piece of literature written by the Creator with the Sublime Pen on the Guarded Tablet Literature was not just the creation of a scribe but a scribe himself imprinting words on the sheet of memory and thus shaping human personality This book the first comprehensive survey of traditional Malay literature in English since 1939 embraces more than a millennium of Malay letters from the vague data of the seventh century up to the early beginnings of the modern literatures in the late nineteenth century The long path trodden by traditional Malay literature is viewed in historical and theoretical perspectives as a development of integral system caused by cultural and religious changes primarily by gradual Islamization This changing system considered in the entirety of its genres and works is seen both externally and internally from the point of view of modern scholarship and through the examination of indigenous concepts of literary creativity poetics and aesthetics The book not only represents an original study based on a specific historico theoretical approach but it is also a complete reference work and an indispensable manual for students

Language, Literature & Meaning John Odmark, 1980-01-01 The essays in this two volume anthology provide the reader with an overview of current Czech Polish and Hungarian research in language literature and meaning as well as some new perspectives on the major theoretical contributions of Roman Ingarden Georg Lukács and Jan Mukařovský For the most part the emphasis is on Poetics and Literary Theory however in some of the essays the focus shifts to such related disciplines as Aesthetics Linguistics and Semiotics The heterogeneity of this collection reflects the broad spectrum of interests and approaches to problems of theory being pursued at present in Poland Hungary and Czechoslovakia Much of the work being done in these countries remains relatively unknown outside of Eastern Europe This anthology is an attempt to rectify this situation and make better known the nature and extent of research which promises new insights into a whole range of phenomena in language literature and culture

Modernist Aesthetics in Taiwanese Poetry since the 1950s Chung-to Au, 2008-05-31 Much of the previous scholarship on Taiwanese modernist poetry easily falls into ideological arguments This book participates in the development of an alternative approach to understanding Taiwanese modernist poetry Dr Au's approach emphasizes the diversity and intensity of experiences of place and placelessness in the work of five poets Lomen Luo Fu Rong Zi Yu Guangzhong and Zheng Chouyu The phenomenon of placelessness is a problem in all modernity and so modern aesthetics is an outgrowth of modern society's sense of placelessness This book not only shows how place becomes placelessness but also analyses Taiwanese modernist poets' responses to the phenomenon of placelessness Four kinds of places are examined namely the house the city homeland and an imagined literary community in this work The result is both refreshing and original

that their thought may not possess This cautionary statement is especially applicable to Mikhail Bakhtin whose intellectual development displays a diversity of insights that cannot be easily integrated or accurately described in terms of a single overriding concern Indeed in a career spanning some sixty years he experienced both dramatic and gradual changes in his thinking returned to abandoned insights that he then developed in unexpected ways and worked through new ideas only loosely related to his earlier concerns Small wonder then that Bakhtin should have speculated on the relations among received notions of biography unity innovation and the creative process Unity with respect not only to individuals but also to art culture and the world generally is usually understood as conformity to an underlying structure or an overarching scheme Bakhtin believed that this idea of unity contradicts the possibility of true creativity For if everything conforms to a preexisting pattern then genuine development is reduced to mere discovery to a mere uncovering of something that in a strong sense is already there And yet Bakhtin accepted that some concept of unity was essential Without it the world ceases to make sense and creativity again disappears this time replaced by the purely aleatory There would again be no possibility of anything meaningfully new The grim truth of these two extremes was expressed well by Borges an inescapable labyrinth could consist of an infinite number of turns or of no turns at all Bakhtin attempted to rethink the concept of unity in order to allow for the possibility of genuine creativity The goal in his words was a nonmonologic unity in which real change or surprisingness is an essential component of the creative process As it happens such change was characteristic of Bakhtin s own thought which seems to have developed by continually diverging from his initial intentions Although it would not necessarily follow that the development of Bakhtin s thought corresponded to his ideas about unity and creativity we believe that in this case his ideas on nonmonologic unity are useful in understanding his own thought as well as that of other thinkers whose careers are comparably varied and productive
