Basic Needs In Developing Countries

John P. Renninger

Basic Needs In Developing Countries:

Basic Needs in Developing Countries Frances Stewart, 1985 Economic analysis of economic planning approaches to meet basic needs in developing countries develops a macroeconomic planning framework looks at alternative planning and policy options makes a comparison of basic needs achievements in selected countries and types of economic policy associated with each includes case studies of Nigeria and Tanzania ILO mentioned Bibliography diagrams graphs references statistical tables

Basic Needs in Development Planning Michael Hopkins, Rolph van der Hoeven, 1983      First Things First Paul Streeten, World Bank, 1981 The authors defend the basic needs approach to economic development which has been the subject of controversy and suspicion among many groups      Meeting Basic Needs Mahbub ul Haq, Shahid Javed Burki, 1980

A Basic Human Needs Strategy of Development Charles Paolillo, 1976      Poverty in Developing Countries World Employment Programme, 1992 Topics include agricultural development basic needs development strategy and planning economic development and policy employment food production housing needs income distribution and industrialization Indexes are divided by references authors corporate authors subject and geographical aspects      Planning to Meet Basic Needs Frances Stewart, 1985-01-21      Land, Food and Basic Needs in Developing Countries Johan Dahl, D. W.

Drakakis-Smith, Anders Närman, 1993      UN Ideas That Changed the World Richard Jolly, Louis Emmerij, Thomas G. Weiss, 2009-09-01 Ideas and concepts have been a driving force in human progress and they may be the most important legacy of the United Nations UN ideas have set past present and future international agendas in many global economic and social arenas and have also led to initiatives and actions that have improved the quality of human life This capstone volume draws upon findings of the other 14 books in the acclaimed United Nations Intellectual History Project Series The authors not only assess the development and implementation of UN ideas regarding sustainable economic development and human security but also apply lessons learned to suggest ways in which the United Nations can play a fuller role in confronting the challenges of human survival with dignity in the 21st century      War on Hunger, 1977      The World Health Organization between North and South Nitsan Chorev, 2012-05-01 Since 1948 the World Health Organization WHO has launched numerous programs aimed at improving health conditions around the globe ranging from efforts to eradicate smallpox to education programs about the health risks of smoking In setting global health priorities and carrying out initiatives the WHO bureaucracy has faced the challenge of reconciling the preferences of a small minority of wealthy nations who fund the organization with the demands of poorer member countries who hold the majority of votes In The World Health Organization between North and South Nitsan Chorev shows how the WHO bureaucracy has succeeded not only in avoiding having its agenda co-opted by either coalition of member states but also in reaching a consensus that fit the bureaucracy's own principles and interests Chorev assesses the response of the WHO bureaucracy to member state pressure in two particularly contentious moments when during the 1970s and early 1980s developing countries forcefully called for a more equal international economic order and when in the 1990s the United States and other wealthy countries demanded international organizations adopt neoliberal economic reforms In analyzing these two periods Choev demonstrates how strategic maneuvering made it possible for a vulnerable bureaucracy to preserve a relatively autonomous agenda promote a consistent set of values and protect its interests in the face of challenges from developing and developed countries alike

Development Issues of Our Time Rameshwar Prasad Misra,1985 Issues and Challenges of Development Bikram Keshari Pattanaik,2025-04-24 This book presents a balanced and accessible introduction to the core issues and challenges of development It covers the key aspects of development in contemporary times its relationship with agriculture industrialization and services sustainable and inclusive development issues of marginalization and women s empowerment This volume focuses on the uniquely multi dimensional challenges faced by developing countries which extend to the fields of economics sociology administration politics and environment The sectoral issues in development which comprise agriculture industries and services sectors are useful subjects for enhancing economic growth and development of the nation states Replete with case studies of different countries juxtaposed with the Indian scenario this book caters to student needs across various disciplines It will be useful to undergraduate and postgraduate students researchers and teachers of development studies economics sociology political science and public administration It will be equally useful for administration officials of the central and state governments policymakers non governmental organization NGO staff and corporate sector functionaries dealing with corporate social responsibilities

Economic Development H. W. Arndt,1987 Economic development has been for many years the dominant national policy objective of the countries in the Third World but there has been little consensus on the goals and definitions of development Focusing on the era since World War II H W Arndt traces the history of thought about economic development to show readers in nontechnical terms what the development objective has meant to political and economic theorists policymakers and politicians from Adam Smith to Ayatollah Khomeini

Congressional Record United States. Congress,1977

Poverty, Inequality and Growth in Developing Countries Atsushi Maki,2015-06-05 There are many problems regarding poverty inequality and growth in developing countries in Asia and Africa Policy makers at the national level and at international institutions such as the United Nations World Bank International Monetary Fund and others have implemented various policies in order to decrease poverty and inequality This book provides empirical observations on Asian countries and Africa Each chapter provides theoretical and empirical analysis on regional case studies with an emphasis on policy implications The book will be of use to many who wish to assess and improve policies in developing countries and mitigate poverty and inequality and stimulate growth by drawing on relevant empirical research and economic theories Clearly there have been numerous policy failures and the book aims to provide a basis for improving policies and outcomes based on relevant empirical observations

Multinational Cooperation for Development in West Africa John P. Renninger,2013-09-03 Multinational Cooperation for Development in West Africa

discusses the obstacles and prospects of organizations that were formed to facilitate considerable cooperation in the developing countries of West Africa The book describes and analyzes the cooperation movement and the United Nations system and role in fostering the process of cooperation in West Africa A brief overview of West African characteristics trends and analysis of development history of the cooperation movement issues regarding cooperation in West Africa potentialities of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and the impact of the United Nations on the growth of cooperation in the subregion are elucidated in the text Students of international studies researchers economists sociologists political leaders of the West African region and the staff of United Nations agencies will find this book invaluable Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1984-07 Small Pulp and Paper Mills in Developing Countries Jörg Becker,1991 Seminar papers The State of World Rural Poverty Idriss Jazairy,Mohiuddin Alamgir,Theresa Panuccio,1992 Despite almost four decades and billions of dollars in development activities we are barely in a position to track the changing dynamics of poverty or to define with conviction the processes that entrap the poor in their misery Accounting for about 90% of global poverty rural poverty through transmigration is also a main contributor to urban poverty It is in the rural areas of the world where poverty is most severe in human terms where the hunger hopelessness hardship and despair commonly associated with entrenched poverty are most pronounced where basic health services sanitation educational opportunities and other common amenities are most lacking The alleviation of rural poverty is therefore tantamount to the alleviation of global poverty in its entirety The State of World Rural Poverty offers the first comprehensive look at the economic conditions and prospects of the world s rural poor
