Finalist Philosophers throughout history have debated the existence of gods but it is only in recent years that the absence of such a belief has become a significant topic of philosophical analysis in particular for philosophers of religion Although it is difficult to trace the historical contours of atheism as the lack of belief in a higher power the reasoned reflective and thoughtful rejection of theism has become commonplace in many modern intellectual circles including academic philosophy where disciplinary data indicates that a large majority of philosophers self identify as atheists As the first book of its kind to bring together a collection of writing on the philosophical aspects of atheism both historical and contemporary the Companion to Atheism and Philosophy stages an explicit constructive and comprehensive conversation between philosophy and atheism to examine the ways in which atheist thought intersects with ideas and positions from a variety of philosophical and theological sub disciplines The Companion begins by addressing the foundational questions and lingering controversies which underpin philosophical thought about atheism exploring the implications of major developments in the history of philosophy for the modern atheistic worldview Divided into eight distinct sections essays consider a range of thinkers who were widely believed to have been atheists including David Hume Mary Wollstonecraft Karl Marx and Elizabeth Cady Stanton and survey different kinds of objections to theism and atheism including logical evidential normative and prudential Later chapters trace the relationship between atheism and metaphysics epistemology ethics and political philosophy oriented around topics such as pragmatism postmodernism freedom education violence and happiness Deftly curated and thoughtfully composed A Companion to Atheism and Philosophy is the most ambitious and authoritative account of philosophical thinking on atheism available and is a first rate resource for academics professionals and students of philosophy religious studies and theology

Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature John Horden,1973 The Sex Trade, Evil, and Christian Theology Glenn M. Harden,2016-03-04 As a scholar and an activist Glenn Harden seeks a theology of hope that can sustain opposition to evil Looking into the face of evil without blinking he uses the sex trade as an example of how horrendous evil can be But he also uncovers stories of radical healing which are problematic for those who deny either God or the resurrection This book is for those people of faith who walk in dark places and need deeper theological sustenance to sustain their journey

Justice and International Order Richard Ned Lebow,Feng Zhang,2022-06-01 In Justice and International Order Richard Ned Lebow and Feng Zhang compare and contrast Western and Chinese conceptions of justice Lebow and Zhang argue that justice can often be reduced to the principles of fairness and equality although they are developed and expressed quite differently in the two cultures This book reveals the extent to which Sino Western competition in the present era can be explained by their different conceptions of justice The authors further examine whether these conceptions are either converging or diverging and what this means for great power international relations
