Conservation Trusts:

Countryside in Trust Janet Dwyer, Ian Hodge, 1996-05 This study examines the creation and principles of voluntary non profit organizations which own and manage land for countryside conservation The experiences of these groups are traced in a series of case studies which chart their activities finances and relationships with government bodies A Field Guide to Conservation Finance Story Clark, 2012-09-26 Finally a comprehensive book on land conservation financing for community and regional conservation leaders A Field Guide to Conservation Finance provides essential advice on how to tackle the universal obstacle to protecting private land in America lack of money Story Clark dispels the myths that conservationists can access only private funds controlled by individuals or that only large conservation organizations have clout with big capital markets She shows how small land conservation organizations can achieve conservation goals using both traditional and cutting edge financial strategies Clark outlines essential tools for raising money borrowing money and reducing the cost of transactions She covers a range of subjects including transfer fees voluntary surcharges seller financing revolving funds and Project Related Investment programs PRIs A clear well written overview of the basics of conservation finance with useful insights and real stories combine to create a book that is an invaluable and accessible guide for land trusts seeking to protect more land Trusts in Latin America Nicolás Malumíán, 2009 The growing interest in investment in Latin America particularly in commodities production and real estate development has increased the use of trusts as investment vehicles throughout Latin America Written for the English speaking practitioner the book covers Argentina Belize Bolivia Brazil Chile Colombia Costa Rica Ecuador El Salvador Guatemala Honduras Mexico Panama Paraguay Peru Uruguay and Venezuela and provides a practical clear and thorough explanation of trusts as legal vehicles for investment in Latin American countries Trusts in Latin America provides a comprehensive comparative review of statutes case law and examples of trusts in Latin America and also highlights differences between these countries and common law systems Encyclopedia of Energy, Natural Resource, and Environmental Economics, 2013-03-29 Every decision about energy involves its price and cost The price of gasoline and the cost of buying from foreign producers the price of nuclear and hydroelectricity and the costs to our ecosystems the price of electricity from coal fired plants and the cost to the atmosphere Giving life to inventions lifestyle changes geopolitical shifts and things in between energy economics is of high interest to Academia Corporations and Governments For economists energy economics is one of three subdisciplines which taken together compose an economic approach to the exploitation and preservation of natural resources energy economics which focuses on energy related subjects such as renewable energy hydropower nuclear power and the political economy of energy resource economics which covers subjects in land and water use such as mining fisheries agriculture and forests environmental economics which takes a broader view of natural resources through economic concepts such as risk valuation regulation and distribution Although the three are closely related they are not often presented as an integrated whole This Encyclopedia has done just that by unifying these fields into a high quality and unique overview The only reference work that codifies the relationships among the three subdisciplines energy economics resource economics and environmental economics Understanding these relationships just became simpler Nobel Prize Winning Editor in Chief joint recipient 2007 Peace Prize Jason Shogren has demonstrated excellent team work again by coordinating and steering his Editorial Board to produce a cohesive work that guides the user seamlessly through the diverse topics This work contains in equal parts information from and about business academic and government perspectives and is intended to serve as a tool for unifying and systematizing research and analysis in business universities and government

Catalog of Training U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Agricultural Land Trusts: Preserving Small Farm Heritage L. Blair Hamilton, 2005 The land trust is seen as a way For example a landowner might have a bun to both balance the legitimate rights of the indi dle of rights to a section of land The common and private forms of property and trust owns the land and the lessee or the user concludes that the land trust does not fit neat owns the improvement The land use agreement 5 easement transfers with the title of the property In Canada the greatest number of land trusts and may impact the market value of the property There is a growing interest A positive easement gives the holder of the in housing trusts CLTs which are much more easement the right to enter on the land for a par common in the U S Agricultural land trusts are ticular reason The development of agricultural land for free where the restrictive nature of the ease trusts is a relatively new phenomenon and most ment is consistent with the landowner s long term of them are designed to address the issue of farm desire for how the land is to be used Guidelines for Protected Areas Legislation Barbara J. Lausche, 2011 The central aim of this publication is to consider the key elements of a modern comprehensive and effective legal framework for successful management of protected areas They provide practical guidance for all those involved in developing improving or reviewing national legislation on protected areas be they legal drafters and practitioners protected area managers interested NGOs or scholars These guidelines include fifteen case studies eight dealing with the protected area legislation of individual countries and six cases dealing with specific sites providing fundamental solutions that stand the test of time

Ecology and Management of Atlantic Salmon D. Mills, 1989-01-31 Reviews advances in the understanding of the biology ecology and management of the Atlantic salmon throughout its geographical range and examines the effects on salmon of afforestation pollution acid rain water abstraction and changing agricultural methods The rapid escalation of salmon farming with its impact on wild stocks is analyzed as is the increasing threat of over exploitation on both the open seas and in home waters Guideline ,1971 Canadian Issues in Environmental Ethics Wesley Cragg, Allan Greenbaum, Alex Wellington, 1997-06-10 Is it possible to design a forest policy that satisfies ethical and environmental concerns and is acceptable to business labour and First Nations representatives What is the best path through the tangle of ethical issues surrounding the collapse of the east coast fishery What sort of obligations does a rich nation such as Canada have to satisfy the claims of global environmental justice These are the sorts of issues in applied ethics that are tackled in this collection of essays the vast majority of which have been written especially for this volume It is the first Canadian collection of its kind The book is divided in to sections detailing with such topics as the environment and the economy ethical issues relating to non human animals issues of gender and issues relating to native peoples Most of the authors are philosophers though specialists in geography geology and the social sciences are also among the contributors Frequent reference is made to theoretical ethical concerns but the focus throughout is on applied ethics and a variety of case studies are included Examples include essays on animal rights and the case of native hunters surface mining in Northern Ontario the Quebec arctic and fishing communities in the Maritimes Comparisons are frequently drawn to policies and ethical questions arising in other countries most prominently the United States Accounting for Mother Nature Terry Lee Anderson, Laura E. Huggins, Thomas M. Power, 2008 In turn the contributors explore the role that private individuals and organizations can play in protecting natural and agrarian landscapes BOOK JACKET Countryside Management Mr Peter Bromley, 2013-11-05 This management handbook explains the skills and systems needed by all those involved in managing the countryside It deals with the process of management national trends establishing local policies and priorities implementing schemes as well as the legislation which surrounds countryside management Preserving Our Natural Heritage ,1982 Louisiana's Response to Extreme Weather Shirley Laska, 2019-11-12 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license This book takes an in depth look at Louisiana as a state which is ahead of the curve in terms of extreme weather events both in frequency and magnitude and in its responses to these challenges including recovery and enhancement of resiliency Louisiana faced a major tropical catastrophe in the 21st century and experiences the fastest rising sea level Weather specialists including those concentrating on sea level rise acknowledge that what the state of Louisiana experiences is likely to happen to many more and not necessarily restricted to coastal states This book asks and attempts to answer what Louisiana public officials scientists engineers and those from outside of the state who have been called in to help have done to achieve resilient recovery How well have these efforts fared to achieve their goals What might these efforts offer as lessons for those states that will be likely to experience enhanced extreme weather Can the challenges of inequality be truly addressed in recovery and resilience How can the study of the Louisiana response as a case be blended with findings from later disasters such as New York New Jersey Hurricane Sandy and more recent ones to improve understanding as well as best adaptation applications federal state and local Food, Farms, and Community Lisa Chase, Vern Grubinger, 2014-12-02 Throughout the United States people are increasingly concerned about where their food comes from how it is produced and how its production affects individuals and their communities The answers to these questions reveal a complex web of interactions While large distant farms and multinational companies dominate at national and global levels innovative programs including farmers markets farm to school initiatives and agritourism are forging stronger connections between people and food at local and regional levels At all levels of the food system energy use climate change food safety and the maintenance of farmland for the future are critical considerations The need to understand food systems what they are who s involved and how they work or don t has never been greater Food Farms and Community Exploring Food Systems takes an in depth look at critical issues successful programs and challenges for improving food systems spanning a few miles to a few thousand miles Case studies that delve into the values that drive farmers food advocates and food entrepreneurs are interwoven with analysis supported by the latest research Examples of entrepreneurial farms and organizations working together to build sustainable food systems are relevant to the entire country and reveal results that are about much more than fresh food 107-1 Hearing: Preserving And Protection Our Natural Resources, S.
