New Formations ,1998 Postcolonial Studies Benita Parry,2004-07-31 This powerful selection of essays proposes practices of reading and criticism to make the field of postcolonial studies more fully attentive to historical circumstances and socio material conditions Benita Parry points to directions and dead ends in the discipline she has helped to shape with a first series of essays vigorously challenging colonial discourse theory and postcolonialism as we have known them She then turns to literature with a series of detailed readings that not only demonstrate her theoretical position at work but also give new dimensions to widely studied texts by Rudyard Kipling Joseph Conrad H G Wells and E M Forster Parry argues throughout that the material impulses of colonialism its appropriation of physical resources exploitation of human labour and institutional repression have too long been allowed to recede from view Posthegemony Jon Beasley-Murray,2010 A challenging new work of cultural and political theory rethinks the concept of hegemony Another Country Jan-Werner Müller,Jan-Werner Müller,2000-01-01 This important book not only examines changing notions of nationhood and their complicated relationship to the Nazi past but also charts the wider history of the development of German political thought since World War II while critically reflecting on some of the continuing blind spots among German writers and thinkers

Sapphic Modernities L. Doan,J. Garrity,2006-06-10 An examination of the representation of the lesbian in modernity from the multiple perspectives of literary visual and cultural studies this book shows how the sapphic figure in her multiple and contradictory guises refigured and redefined citizenship in the early decades of the twentieth century Peculiarities of

Liberal Modernity in Imperial Britain Simon Gunn,James Vernon,2011-05-15 In this wide ranging volume leading scholars across several disciplines history literature sociology and cultural studies investigate the nature of liberalism and modernity in imperial Britain since the eighteenth century They show how Britain s liberal version of modernity of capitalism democracy and imperialism was the product of a peculiar set of historical circumstances that continues to haunt our neoliberal present The German Right, 1860-1920 James N. Retallack,Professor of History and German Studies James Retallack,2006-01-01 With unification as a nation state under Bismarck in 1871 Germany experienced the advent of mass politics The dynamic political culture that emerged challenged the adaptability of the interlocking directorate of the Right This work examines how the authoritarian imagination inspired the Right and how political pragmatism constrained it

Varieties of Multiple Modernities ,2015-11-24 To date the nascent consequential notion of multiple modernities has been predominately grounded in historical research with the purpose of validating the theory Yet the notion of multiple modernities represents a radical transformation in the way modernity and indeed the contemporary world is viewed As such the central aim of this volume is to explore the implications and hidden understanding of the multiple modernities research project beyond historical analysis in order to investigate its wide ranging omnipresent implications as they exist in communication and in the social order of societal membership in contemporary societies This volume collects new research about multiple modernities and globalization It shows the new turn of sociological theory in the contemporary scene with respect to multiple modernities multi centrism transglobality hybridization and multiculturalism and explores it as a new area of societal communication one that takes effect in the sectors of a global society as a society of societies The studies in this book converge to demonstrate that the route of Western modernization its cultural program and its institutional structure does not follow the pathway of modernization that we have thus far observed in the emerged new area Rather the continuation of the multiple modernities research program is given a new design researching the social structure and dynamic of postmodern societies their exchange and the debate about the flow of free resources But the studies are also evidence that the sociological theory has no normative foundation Contributors are Mehdi P Amineh Barrie Axford Eliezer Ben Rafael Shmuel N Eisenstadt Mark Jarzombek Werner Krawietz Judit Bokser Liwerant Manussos Marangudakis Jan Nederveen Pieterse Gerhard Preyer Roland Robertson Luis Roniger Yitzhak Sternberg and Michael Sussman

Creativity and Conservatism: An Investigation into the Formation of Saudi Female Artistic Identity Fatemah Abdullah Alqahtani, 2024-07-31 This book investigates the formation of Saudi female artistic identity within the context of religious and social values and customs It proposes a theory about the uniqueness of this identity in terms of how Saudi female artists push the boundaries of creativity in a conservative culture The book explores the influence of two main factors Islamic doctrines and sociocultural norms It examines how these factors relate to the temporal and spatial limitations placed on artists From a faith based perspective it analyses the ambivalent relationship between some Muslim scholars thoughts and the concept of creativity and how this ambivalence can be overcome The book also examines the intellectual and cultural factors that have shaped Saudis collective mindset about the arts incorporating significant events in Saudi history and their impact on artistic practice If you have questions about what factors shape female Saudi artistic identity or how these artists are challenging norms of representation this book helps uncover the answers

America First Mandy Merck, 2012-11-12 At a time when the expanded projection of US political military economic and cultural power draws intensified global concern understanding how that country understands itself seems more important than ever This collection of new critical essays tackles this old problem in a new way by examining some of the hundreds of US films that announce themselves as titularly American From early travelogues to contemporary comedies national nomination has been an abiding characteristic of American motion pictures heading the work of Porter Guy Blach DeMille Capra Sternberg Vidor Minnelli and Mankiewicz More recently George Lucas Paul Schrader John Landis and Edward James Olmos have made their own contributions to Hollywood s Americana What does this national branding signify Which versions of Americanism are valorized and which marginalized or excluded Out of which social and historical contexts do they emerge and for and by whom are they constructed Edited by

Mandy Merck the collection contains detailed analyses of such films as The Vanishing American American Madness An American in Paris American Graffiti American Gigolo American Pie and many more English Art, 1860-1914 David Peters Corbett, Lara Perry, 2000 In one of the first studies of its kind Orphan texts seeks to insert the orphan and the problems its existence poses in the larger critical areas of the family and childhood in Victorian culture In doing so Laura Peters considers certain canonical texts alongside lesser known works from popular culture in order to establish the context in which discourses of orphanhood operated The study argues that the prevalence of the orphan figure can be explained by considering the family The family and all it came to represent legitimacy race and national belonging was in crisis In order to reaffirm itself the family needed a scapegoat it found one in the orphan figure As one who embodied the loss of the family the orphan figure came to represent a dangerous threat to the family and the family reaffirmed itself through the expulsion of this threatening difference Orphan texts will be of interest to final year undergraduates postgraduates academics and those interested in the areas of Victorian literature Victorian studies postcolonial studies history and popular culture Modern Times Mica Nava, Alan O'Shea, 2013-04-15 Confronting the contemporary poststructuralist debate from the perspective of cultural of cultural historiography this book presents an historical study of race and ethnicity Specifically it provides an account both theoretical and applied of the combination of sexual racial and ethnic underpinning and shaping the experiences of English men and women in various colonies in the nineteenth century Although accessible for the student the book will be received seriously by both theorists and historians The Oxford Handbook of Confucianism Jennifer Oldstone-Moore, 2023 Comprised of thirty eight original essays by experts from a wide range of disciplines the Oxford Handbook of Confucianism covers the Confucian tradition chronologically geographically and topically through textured and innovative examinations of foundational subjects and emerging topics in Confucian studies Gender and Nation Nira Yuval-Davis, 1997-03-25 Nira Yuval Davis provides an authoritative overview and critique of writings on gender and nationhood presenting an original analysis of the ways gender relations affect and are affected by national projects and processes In Gender and Nation Yuval Davis argues that the construction of nationhood involves specific notions of both manhood and womanhood She examines the contribution of gender relations to key dimensions of nationalist projects the nation's reproduction its culture and citizenship as well as to national conflicts and wars exploring the contesting relations between feminism and nationalism Gender and Nation is an important contribution to the debates on citizenship gender and nationhood It will be essential reading for academics and students of women's studies race and ethnic studies sociology and political science The Conservative Century Gregory L. Schneider, 2009-11-16 This concise history focuses on the development of American conservatism in the twentieth century up to the present Gregory L Schneider traces the course of a once reactionary movement opposed to progressive reform and the New Deal and describes how it came to advance alternative policies and programs that revolutionized the shaping of domestic politics foreign policy and economic policy

Along the way he profiles such influential thinkers as William F Buckley Frank Meyer Henry Regnery and Barry Goldwater He also details how the decline of liberalism after the 1960s helped conservatives gain political power and how their energized activism and organization culminated in the election of Ronald Reagan in 1980 Schneider also describes how the years since the Reagan Revolution have been decidedly mixed for American conservatives

Sensational Modernism

Joseph B. Entin,2012-09-01 Challenging the conventional wisdom that the 1930s were dominated by literary and photographic realism Sensational Modernism uncovers a rich vein of experimental work by politically progressive artists Examining images by photographers such as Weegee and Aaron Siskind and fiction by writers such as William Carlos Williams Richard Wright Tillie Olsen and Pietro di Donato Joseph Entin argues that these artists drew attention to the country's most vulnerable residents by using what he calls an aesthetic of astonishment focused on startling graphic images of pain injury and prejudice Traditional portrayals of the poor depicted stoic passive figures of sentimental suffering or degraded but potentially threatening figures in need of supervision Sensational modernists sought to shock middle class audiences into new ways of seeing the nation's impoverished and outcast populations The striking images these artists created often taking the form of contorted or disfigured bodies drawn from the realm of the tabloids pulp magazines and cinema represented a bold experimental form of social aesthetics Entin argues that these artists created a willfully unorthodox brand of vernacular modernism in which formal avant garde innovations were used to delineate the conditions contradictions and pressures of life on the nation's fringes

Performativity & Belonging Vikki Bell,1999-10-25 This book explores belonging as a performative achievement The contributors investigate how identities are embodied and effected and how lines of allegiance and fracture are produced and reproduced Questions of difference are tackled from a perspective that attends to the complexities of history and politics Drawing on sociology philosophy and anthropology this collection brings together leading commentators including Judith Butler Paul Gilroy and Arjun Appadurai as well as a range of new scholars It examines questions of visibility political affiliation ethics mimesis spatiality passing and diversity in modes of embodied difference The volume advances conceptual and theoretical issues through testing va
