Conserving Culture A New Discourse On Heritage:

Conserving Culture Mary Hufford,1994 Conserving Culture examines heritage protection in the United States and how it has been implemented in specific cases Contributors challenge the division of heritage into nature the built environment and culture They describe cultural conservation as an integrated process for resource planning and recommend supplanting the current prescriptive approach with one that is more responsive to grass roots cultural concerns The Oxford Handbook of American Folklore and Folklife Studies Simon J. Bronner,2019 The Oxford Handbook of American Folklore and Folklife Studies surveys the materials approaches concepts and applications of the field to provide a sweeping guide to American folklore and folklife culture history and society Forty three comprehensive and diverse chapters explore the extraordinary richness of the American social and cultural fabric offering a valuable resource not only for scholars and students of American studies but also for the global study of tradition folk arts and cultural practice Culture, Environment, and Conservation in the Appalachian South Benita J. Howell,2002 Focusing on the mountainous area from northern Alabama to West Virginia this important volume explores the historic and contemporary interrelations between culture and environment in a region that has been plagued by land misuse and damaging stereotypes of its people Committed to taking account of humankind's place in the environment this collection is a timely contribution to debates over land use and conservation Debunking the nature culture dichotomy contributors examine how physical space is transformed into culturally constituted place by a variety of factors both tangible architecture landmarks artifacts and intangible a sense of place long term family habitation of land tradition a way of life worth fighting for Archaeologists cultural geographers and ethnographers examine how the land was used by its earliest inhabitants and trace the effects of agricultural decline industrial development and tourism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Powerful case studies recount past displacement of local populations in the name of progress or conservation and track threatened communities struggles to maintain their claims to place in the face of extralocal counterclaims that would appropriate space and resources for other purposes such as mountaintop removal of coal or a power company's plans to export electricity from Appalachia to distant urban centers Contributors also record successful community planning ventures that have achieved creative solutions to seemingly intransigent conflicts between demands for economic wealth and environmental health Places of Cultural Memory,2001 Rhetorics of Names and Naming Star Medzerian Vanguri,2016-01-29 This volume takes up rhetorical approaches to our primarily linguistic understanding of how names work considering how theories of materiality in rhetoric enrich conceptions of the name as word or symbol and help explain the processes of name bestowal accumulation loss and theft Contributors theorize the formation modification and recontextualization of names as a result of technological and cultural change and consider the ways in which naming influences identity and affects grants power The Oxford Handbook of Public History James B. Gardner,Paula Hamilton,2017 Public history is a large and complex field with boundaries methods and subjects that are hotly debated and the Oxford Handbook of Public History reflects these complexities This book defines public history as a transnational field and public history work as analytical and active practical work informed by thoughtful reflection The book locates public history as a professional practice within an intellectual framework that is increasingly democratic technological and transnational Environmental Considerations in Energy Production John R. Craynon, 2013 Environmental Considerations in Energy Production contains submissions by energy professionals from around the world who discuss a wide selection of topics on energy production including coal mining oil and gas production and electrical power generation as well as the impacts on society and the environment The papers present existing and emerging issues best practices and techniques and appropriate and innovative solutions to meet the present and future challenges of energy production These proceedings contain both complete papers as well as abstracts where a full paper was not warranted The abstracts are included as a resource to readers who may be interested in contacting those individuals The papers range from reviews of work previously completed and discussions of preliminary investigations to thorough reports of research and recommended changes in methodologies and procedures The issues presented show how the environmental impacts of energy production affect community well being and human health

The Conservation Movement Miles Glendinning, 2013 Winner of the 2016 Antoinette Forrester Downing Award presented by the Society of Architectural Historians In many cities across the world particularly in Europe old buildings form a prominent part of the built environment and we often take it for granted that their contribution is intrinsically positive How has that widely shared belief come about and is its continued general acceptance inevitable Certainly ancient structures have long been treated with care and reverence in many societies including classical Rome and Greece But only in modern Europe and America in the last two centuries has this care been elaborated and energised into a forceful dynamic ideology a Conservation Movement infused with a sense of historical destiny and loss that paradoxically shared many of the characteristics of Enlightenment modernity The close inter relationship between conservation and modern civilisation was most dramatically heightened in periods of war or social upheaval beginning with the French Revolution and rising to a tragic climax in the 20th century age of totalitarian extremism more recently the troubled relationship of heritage and global commercialism has become dominant Miles Glendinning s new book authoritatively presents for the first time the entire history of this architectural Conservation Movement and traces its dramatic fluctuations in ideas and popularity ending by questioning whether its recent international ascendancy can last indefinitely

Place, Race, and Story Ned Kaufman,2009-09-11 In Place Race and Story author Ned Kaufman has collected his own essays dedicated to the proposition of giving the next generation of preservationists not only a foundational knowledge of the field of study but more ideas on where they can take it Through both big picture essays considering preservation across time and descriptions of work on specific sites the essays in this collection trace the themes of place race and story in ways that raise questions stimulate discussion and offer a different perspective on these common ideas Including unpublished essays as well as established works by the author Place Race and Story provides a new outline for a progressive preservation movement the revitalized movement for social progress

Pennsylvania in Public Memory Carolyn Kitch,2015-06-26 What stories do we tell about America s once great industries at a time when they are fading from the landscape Pennsylvania in Public Memory attempts to answer that question exploring the emergence of a heritage culture of industry and its loss through the lens of its most representative industrial state Based on news coverage interviews and more than two hundred heritage sites this book traces the narrative themes that shape modern public memory of coal steel railroading lumber oil and agriculture and that collectively tell a story about national as well as local identity in a changing social and economic world
