Consolation of the Blessed Elizabeth Petroff,1979 The Book of Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno Angela (of Foligno),1909 The Book of Divine Consolations of the Blessed Angela of Foligno ,2007-06-01 Book of Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno ,2013 The Work of the Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno ,1909 The book of divine consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno of Foligno Angela,1909 The Book of Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno Angela,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1909 edition Excerpt in order that they may appear more virtuous than other persons desiring that none may seem better than themselves or even approach unto their perfection And inasmuch as they desire to have none equal unto them they are in this matter like unto Lucifer who desired that no creature should be equal unto him Others there are who desire that their fame should be noised abroad in order that they may be commended as saints alike by good and evil persons They do praise both those who are spiritual and those who are not in order that they may not be accused of judging boldly Some do love the devout persons who come unto them with a spiritual and perfect love wholly loving them in God Nevertheless this love doth sometimes increase too greatly and if it be not armed with the weapons of discretion it turneth unto evil Sometimes it becometh carnal love and unprofitable then is it very hurtful for them to converse together and they do uselessly lose their time inasmuch as their hearts are united in an unseemly bond This love increaseth and ever desireth the presence of the beloved and falleth sick if it hath it not And if the beloved is there the love groweth too great and the lover becometh one with the beloved so that what pleaseth one pleaseth likewise the other and what displeaseth one displeaseth the other Therefore if the soul be not so fortified that it can control the ardour of this love which ever increaseth and hath not perfect order or discretion it must needs fall at last into disorder And if when this disorder cometh about the beloved hath not the aforesaid weapons for protection and is likewise wounded by the sword of love then is it very much more dangerous because they do then begin to disclose their The Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela Da Foligno Angela (of Foligno),M. G. Steegman,Algar Labouchere Thorold,1909 The Book of Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno MARY Steegman,2015-02-09 Angela of Foligno was an influential medieval Catholic woman and this looks at some of her most important works From the first treatise As I walked said the Blessed Angela by the way of penitence I did take eighteen spiritual steps before I came to know the imperfection of my life The first step was that I did begin to reflect upon my sins the knowledge of which did fill my soul with so great a dread that fearing to be condemned unto hell I wept bitterly The second was that I did begin to be so exceeding ashamed of those my sins that for shame I could not fully confess them wherefore many times did I communicate whilst yet unconfessed and with all my sins did I receive the Body of our Lord Being day and night reproached by my conscience because of this thing I did pray the Blessed Francis that he would grant me to discover a confessor meet for my needs who should be well acquainted with my sins and unto whom I could fully confess myself In that same night did the Blessed Francis appear unto me and say Sister if thou had prayed unto me sooner thy prayer would have been sooner granted that which thou hast asked hath been done Upon the next morn ing therefore I went into the church of Saint Francis and found there a friar preaching in Saint Feliciano which friar was chaplain unto the bishop and did hold his authority and to him I did determine to make my confession immediately that the sermon should be ended Where fore I did confess myself most fully and was absolved of all my sins And in this confession I did feel no love but only bitterness shame and pain The third step was that I did consequently persevere in the performance of the penance imposed upon me and as yet I was filled with pain and misery without any other consolation

The Book of Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno (Classic Reprint) Of Foligno Angela,2015-07-19 Excerpt from The Book of Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno What is the secret and so potent attraction of the Saints Renan says somewhere that he would have given everything he had to have seen St Mary of Egypt pacing the desert in ecstasy half starved and turned to the semblance of Nebuchadnezzar And Renan liberally discounted the value not only of Theology but also of the particular virtue the loss of which had driven that Saint to such an unusual mode of life The interest in sanctity evidently survives theological and ethical pre occupations Indeed to day the Saint is perhaps an object of higher intrinsic interest to unbelievers than to the faithful For to the faithful he is primarily useful either as being efficacious in various troubles of life or on a higher plane as a sort of spiritual agent obtaining graces for his clients O admirabile commercium But like everything else this celestial intercourse suffers from the defects of its qualities I do not wish to be understood as making light of superstition The humblest blossom of that luxuriant garden is of infinite value nor do the roots of our most highly rationalised opinions grow outside it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Book of Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno Angèle (de Foligno),1966 The Book of Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno Angela Foligno,2016-03-23 From the Introduction WHAT is the secret and so potent attraction of the Saints Renan says somewhere that he would have given everything he had to have seen St Mary of Egypt pacing the desert in ecstasy half starved and turned to the semblance of Nebuchadnezzar And Renan liberally discounted the value not only of Theology but also of the particular virtue the loss of which had driven that Saint to such an unusual mode of life The interest in sanctity evidently survives theological and ethical pre occupations Indeed to day the Saint is perhaps an object of higher intrinsic interest to unbelievers than to the faithful For to the faithful he is primarily useful either as being efficacious in various troubles of life or on a higher plane as a sort of spiritual agent obtaining graces for his clients O admirabile commercium But like everything else this celestial intercourse suffers from the defects of its qualities I do not wish to be understood as making light of superstition The humblest blossom of that luxuriant garden is of infinite value nor do the roots of our most highly rationalised opinions grow outside it Nevertheless the important position of the Saint in the Catholic economy does tend to conceal his real personality from his worshippers He inevitably tends to be considered more as a means to an end than as an object intrinsically worthy of contemplation In these circumstances the actual historical value of his personality is apt to be obscured by legend and fancy Legend of course if at all contemporaneous is of the highest value as illustrating his effect on those with whom he came in contact We could ill spare in the life of St Francis the Wolf of Gubbio Modern devotional fancy is less illuminative It throws no light upon the character of St Anthony of Padua to learn that centuries after his death he recovered some papers lost by that devout man King Charles II What then is it that constitutes the intrinsic interest of the Saint when his supernatural value has gone The Book of Divine Consolation of the Blessed Angela of Foligno... - Primary Source Edition Angela (Of Foligno), Mary G.
