Consolidation Of Capitalism 1896 1929:

Readings in Canadian Social History Michael S. Cross,1983 A History of Migration from Germany to Canada, 1850-1939 Jonathan Wagner,2011-11-01 Human migration figures prominently in modern world history and has played a pivotal role in shaping the Canadian national state Yet while much has been written about Canada s multicultural heritage little attention has been paid to German migrants although they compose Canada s third largest European ethnic minority A History of Migration from Germany to Canada 1850 1939 addresses that gap in the record Jonathan Wagner considers why Germans left their home country why they chose to settle in Canada who assisted their passage and how they crossed the ocean to their new home as well as how the Canadian government perceived and solicited them as immigrants He examines the German context as closely as developments in Canada offering a new more complete approach to German Canadian immigration This book will appeal to students of German Canadiana as well as to those interested in Canadian ethnic history and European and modern international migration Ontario since Confederation Lori Chambers,Edgar-Andre Montigny,James Onusko,Dimitry Anastakis,2024-10-01 In the more than two decades since the publication of Ontario Since Confederation A Reader Ontario Canada North America and the world have experienced a whirlwind of profound changes This new edition brings together leading scholars to present a new and expansive view of Ontario s social political and economic history Building on the strengths of the first edition the second edition reflects on the dramatic changes in historical practice and understanding that have marked the last two decades Taking a chronological approach and broadening the theme of state and society the book explores important topics such as the environment gender continentalism urban growth and Indigenous issues This timely update to Ontario Since Confederation features new and revised chapters as well as new discussion questions designed to stimulate and guide readers to make connections between and across the entire book Bringing together a wide range of perspectives approaches and frameworks Ontario Since Confederation sheds light on historical changes in Canada s most populous province across more than one and a half centuries The Consolidation of Capitalism, 1896-1929 Michael S. Cross,Gregory S. Kealey,1983 When Coal Was King John Hinde,2011-11-01 The town of Ladysmith was one of the most important coal mining communities on Vancouver Island during the early twentieth century The Ladysmith miners had a reputation for radicalism and militancy and engaged in bitter struggles for union recognition and economic justice most notably the Great Strike of 1912 14 This strike one of the longest and most violent labour disputes in Canadian history marked a watershed in the history of the town and the coal industry This book explains the origins of the 1912 14 strike by examining the development of the coal industry on Vancouver Island the founding of Ladysmith the experience of work and safety in the mines the process of political and economic mobilization and how these factors contributed to the development of identity and community While the Vancouver Island coal industry and the strike have been the focus of a number of popular histories this book goes beyond to emphasize the importance of class ethnicity gender and community in creating the conditions for the emergence and mobilization of the working class population Informed by current academic debates on the matter and within the discipline this readable history takes into account extensive archival research and will appeal to historians and others interested in the history of Vancouver Island Power, Politics, and Principles Taylor Hollander, 2018-01-01 Power Politics and Principles gets to the root of the policy making process revealing how a wartime order forced employers to the collective bargaining table and marked a new stage in Canadian industrial relations A Sense of Their Duty Andrew Holman, 2000 Using the towns of Galt and Goderich as case studies Andrew Holman shows how population growth industrial change and the expansion of government contributed to profound changes to Ontario's social structure between the 1850s and the 1890s with an identifiable and self identified middle class emerging between the idle rich and the working class Businessmen professionals and white collar workers developed a new sense of authority that extended beyond the workplace and local electors breadwinners and members of voluntary associations and reform societies set middle class standards of behavior that enjoyed currency and relevance throughout the twentieth century Jacket The Railway King of Canada R. B. Fleming, 2007-10-01 During the first two decades of this century Sir William Mackenzie was one of Canada's best known entrepreneurs He spearheaded some of the largest and most technologically advanced projects undertaken in Canada during his lifetime building enterprises that became the foundations for such major institutions as Canadian National Railways Brascan and the Toronto Transit Commission He built a business empire that stretched from Montreal to British Columbia and to Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo in Brazil It included gas electric telephone and transit utilities railroads hotels and steamships as well as substantial coal mining whaling and timber interests For a time Mackenzie also owned Canada's largest newspaper La Presse He accumulated an enormous personal fortune but when he died in 1923 his estate was virtually bankrupt as a result of the dramatic collapse of his Canadian Northern Railway during the First World War In an era when the entrepreneur has come to be seen as a media hero and when struggles about the role of state enterprise in the transportation and energy sectors consume public policy debate it is ironic that Mackenzie is largely forgotten by all but a few historians and railway aficionados He left no papers to guide biographers After a decade of gathering and piecing together fragments from an immense array of sources Rae Fleming has written the first biography of the man that the German press extolled as the Railway King of Canada Mackenzie was wily crafty manipulative and intimidating Starting as a general contractor in Eldon Township in rural Ontario he built a small fortune contracting for the CPR in the Selkirks in the 1880s and then moved on to bigger things Along the way he funded the first full length documentary movie was toasted by the House of Lords received a knighthood from George V and developed close friendships with the major politicians of his day including Borden and Meighen In a business biography intended as much for general readers as for a scholarly audience Fleming offers a revisionist perspective on Mackenzie He dispels the simplistic approach of those historians and journalists who have depicted

Mackenzie and his partner Sir Donald Mann as melodramatic crooks who could have stepped out of the pages of Huckleberry Finn

From Politics to Profit Minko Sotiron, 1997 Describing a decisive period in the evolution of mass communication in Canada Minko Sotiron documents the development of the newspaper Canada's first mass communication medium from a political mouthpiece in the nineteenth century to a profit driven industry in the twentieth The Century of the Child

Theresa Richardson, 1989-08-03 In this book Richardson crosses disciplinary boundaries to examine mental hygiene issues of contemporary concern in both the United States and Canada The work juxtaposes a social history of the child in the twentieth century to shifts in private and public power as influenced by the mental hygiene movements in both countries The author shows how the historical record sheds light on current policy concerned with mentally emotionally and educationally handicapped children As a sociology of mental illness the book examines the relationship between mental hygiene as a form of knowledge and the social institutions that fostered the use of psychiatric perspectives concerning child and family life Significant topics covered in this regard include the history of early childhood and parent education the origins of child psychiatry in treating juvenile delinquency and the evolution of contemporary concepts of normal development Changing Women, Changing History

Diana Pederson, 1996-10-15 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian's women's history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive Vancouver's Chinatown

Kay Anderson, 1991 Anderson argues that illustrative of a process of cultural domination that gave European settlers in North America and Australia the power to define and shape the district according to their own images and interests Anderson charts the construction of Chinatown in the minds and streets of the white community of Vancouver over a hundred year period Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Readings in Canadian social history

Michael Cross, Greg Kealey, 1983 Riding to the Rescue

Steve Hewitt, 2006-01-01 The Mountie may be one of Canada's best known national symbols yet much of the post nineteenth century history of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police remains unexamined particularly the period between 1914 and 1939 when the RCMP underwent enormous transformation The nature of this transformation as it took place in Alberta and Saskatchewan where the Mounties have traditionally dominated policing is the focus of Steve Hewitt's Riding to the Rescue During the 1914 to 1939 period the nineteenth century model of the RCMP was evolving into a twentieth century version and the institution that emerged responded to a nation that was being transformed as well Forces such as industrialization mass immigration urbanization and political radicalism compelled the Mounties to look away from the frontier and toward a new era Incorporating previously classified material which explores the RCMP both in the context of its ordinary policing role and in its work as Canada's domestic spy agency Hewitt demonstrates how much of the impetus behind the RCMP's transformation was ensuring its own survival and continued relevance Riding to the Rescue is a provocative and incisive look behind one of Canada's most enduring icons at the cusp of the modern era Rebuilding

Halifax Barry Cahill, 2020-09-01 Using the perspectives of law politics public policy and intergovernmental relations historian Barry Cahill describes the complex activities of an almost unaccountable agency that took the place of municipal provincial and federal governments in addressing the needs of the citizens and the city after the Explosion He provides new insight into the pioneering town planning and construction of the Hydrostone neighbourhood in Halifax He also explains why this ad hoc disaster agency continued to operate for nearly sixty years after the catastrophic event that precipitated its establishment This book offers a new and unique perspective on the recovery efforts which followed a domestic disaster unprecedented in Canadian history

Angels of the Workplace Mercedes Steedman, 1997-01-01 In this study of the clothing industry in Canada historian Mercedes Steedman examines how the intricate weaving together of the meanings of class gender ethnicity family and workplace served often unconsciously to create a job ghetto for women

Retail Nation Donica Belisle, 2011-02-15 The experience of walking down a store aisle replete with displays salespeople and infinite choice is so common we often forget retail has a short history Retail Nation traces Canada's transformation into a modern consumer society back to an era 1890 to 1940 when department stores such as Eaton's ruled the shopping scene and promised to strengthen the nation Department stores emerge as agents of modern nationalism but the nation they helped to define white consumerist middle class was more limited and contested than nostalgic portraits of the early department store suggest
