Conspiring With Forms Life In Academic Texts:

Cultural Memory and the Construction of Identity Dan Ben-Amos, Liliane Weissberg, 1999 Cultural memory and the Construction of Identity brings together scholars of folklore literature history and communication to explore the dynamics of cultural memory in a variety of contexts Memory is a powerful tool that can transform a piece of earth into a homeland and common objects into symbols The authors of this volume show how memory is shaped and how it operates in uniting society and creating images that attain the value of truth even if they deviate from fact Gypsy Scholars, Migrant Teachers and the Global Academic Proletariat Rudolphus Teeuwen, Steffen Hantke, 2007 Once adjunct teaching was considered a temporary solution to faculty shortages in institutions of higher education Now it a permanent and indispensable feature of such institutions not just in the U S but worldwide This book takes stock of this new development concentrating primarily on the situation in the humanities It looks at its impact on the lives of the highly educated scholars and teachers from many parts of the world scholars waking up to the sobering fact that higher education presents them with a two tiered labour market in which they themselves are permanently barred from moving up to the higher tier To them being an adjunct teacher means experiencing frustration and humiliation All essays in this book offer personal accounts of adjuncts experiences together with critical reflections on institutional conditions and suggestions for their improvement In turn defiant poignant analytical exasperated and sardonic these essays are always incisive and revealing Their inside view a view from below shows higher education as a world different from how it appears to tenured professors and university administrators different from that presented in most college brochures For all those who care about the current state and the future of higher education no matter if they are teachers scholars students parents or administrators this book will offer valuable insights into the working world of academic teaching BOOK JACKET Autobiographical Writing Across the Disciplines Diane P. Freedman, Olivia Frey, 2004-01-23 An anthology of the personal autobiographical essays of scholars who have made the life story an important part of their disciplinary research Postcolonial Theory and Autobiography David Huddart, 2008-04-18 Cultural theory has often been criticized for covert Eurocentric and universalist tendencies Its concepts and ideas are implicitly applicable to everyone ironing over any individuality or cultural difference Postcolonial theory has challenged these limitations of cultural theory and Postcolonial Theory and Autobiography addresses the central challenge posed by its autobiographical turn Despite the fact that autobiography is frequently dismissed for its Western masculine bias David Huddart argues for its continued relevance as a central explanatory category in understanding postcolonial theory and its relation to subjectivity Focusing on the influence of post structuralist theory on postcolonial theory and vice versa this study suggests that autobiography constitutes a general philosophical resistance to universal concepts and theories Offering a fresh perspective on familiar critical figures like Edward W Said and Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak by putting them in the context of readings of the work of Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze and Alain Badiou this book relates the theory of autobiography to expressions of new universalisms that together with postcolonial theory rethink and extend norms of experience investigation and knowledge Ms. Mentor's Impeccable Advice for Women in Academia Emily

Toth,2012-07-24 In question and answer form Ms Mentor advises academic women about issues they daren t discuss openly such as How does one really clamber onto the tenure track when the job market is so nasty brutish and small Is there such a thing as the perfectly marketable dissertation topic How does a meek young woman become a tiger of an authority figure in the classroom and get stupendous teaching evaluations How does one cope with sexual harassment grandiosity and bizarre behavior from entrenched colleagues Ms Mentor s readers will find answers to the secret queries they were afraid to ask anyone else They ll discover what it really takes to get tenure what to wear to academic occasions when to snicker when to hide what to eat and when to sue They ll find out how to get firmly planted in the rich red earth of tenure They ll learn why lunch is the most important meal of the day The Last Professors Frank Donoghue,2018-04-03 What makes the modern university different from any other corporation asked Columbia s Andrew Delbanco recently in the New York Times There is more and more reason to think less and less he answered In this provocative book Frank Donoghue shows how this growing corporate culture of higher education threatens its most fundamental values by erasing one of its defining features the tenured professor Taking a clear eyed look at American higher education over the last twenty years Donoghue outlines a web of forces social political and institutional dismantling the professoriate Today fewer than 30 percent of college and university teachers are tenured or on tenure tracks and signs point to a future where professors will disappear Why What will universities look like without professors Who will teach Why should it matter The fate of the professor Donoghue shows has always been tied to that of the liberal arts with the humanities at its core The rise to prominence of the American university has been defined by the strength of the humanities and by the central role of the autonomous tenured professor who can be both scholar and teacher Yet in today s market driven rank and ratings obsessed world of higher education corporate logic prevails faculties are to be managed for optimal efficiency productivity and competitive advantage casual armies of adjuncts and graduate students now fill the demand for teachers Bypassing the distractions of the culture wars and other crises Donoghue sheds light on the structural changes in higher education the rise of community colleges and for profit universities the frenzied pursuit of prestige everywhere the brutally competitive realities facing new Ph D s that threaten the survival of professors as we ve known them There are no quick fixes in The Last Professors rather Donoghue offers his fellow teachers and scholars an essential field guide to making their way in a world that no longer has room for their dreams First published in 2008 The Last Professors have largely had its arguments borne out in the interim as the percentage of courses taught by tenured professors continues to dwindle This new edition includes a substantial Preface that elaborates on recent developments and offers tough but productive analysis that will be crucial for today s academics to heed Manifesto of a Tenured Radical Cary Nelson,1997-04 In an age when innovative scholarly work is at an all time high the academy itself is being rocked by structural change Funding is plummeting Tenure increasingly seems a prospect for only the elite few Ph D s are going begging for even adjunct work Into this tumult steps Cary Nelson with a no holds barred account of recent developments in higher education Eloquent and witty Manifesto of a Tenured Radical urges academics to apply the theoretical advances of the last twenty years to an analysis of their own practices and standards of behavior In the process Nelson offers a devastating critique of current inequities and a detailed proposal for change in the form of A Twelve Step Program for Academia

Reading with a Difference Arthur F. Marotti, 1993 Reading with a Difference is a collection of eighteen essays that examines how issues of gender race and cultural identity inform texts from the seventeenth century to the present Together the contributions document recent significant shifts occurring in the theoretical approach to the texts they study and illustrate how shifts in each of these categories affect how the others are viewed The first section of this anthology explores the notion that identity particularly gender identity is a cultural construct The essays in the second section consider ways in which race and gender intersect with cultural identity and how encounters between different cultures challenge any identity constructed in isolation First published in the journal Criticism these essays offer no blueprint for reading Instead they encourage a rereading of canonical texts and a questioning of how these texts face matters of gender race and cultural identity how they respond to the differences and the incongruities within the cultures from which they arise and to which they speak

Composition in the Twenty-first Century Lynn Z. Bloom, Donald A. Daiker, Edward Michael White, 1997 The essays in this book stemming from a national conference of the same name focus on the single subject required of nearly all college students composition Despite its pervasiveness and its significance composition has an unstable status within the curriculum Writing programs and writing faculty are besieged by academic political and financial concerns that have not been well understood or addressed At many institutions composition functions paradoxically as both the gateway to academic success and as the gatekeeper reducing access to academic work and opportunity for those with limited facility in English Although writing programs are expected to provide services that range from instruction in correct grammar to assisting or resisting political correctness expanding programs and shrinking faculty get caught in the crossfire The bottom line becomes the firing line as forces outside the classroom determine funding and seek to define what composition should do In search of that definition the contributors ask and answer a series of specific and salient questions What implications intellectual political and institutional will forces outside the classroom have on the quality and delivery of composition in the twenty first century How will faculty and administrators identify and address these issues What policies and practices ought we propose for the century to come This book features sixteen position papers by distinguished scholars and researchers in composition and rhetoric most of the papers are followed by invited responses by other notable compositionists In all twenty five contributors approach composition from a wide variety of contemporary perspectives rhetorical historical social cultural political intellectual economic structural administrative and developmental They propose solutions applicable to pedagogy research graduate training of composition teachers academic administration and public and social policy In a very real sense then this is the only book to offer a map to the future of composition The Knowledge

Contract David B. Downing, 2005-01-01 The Knowledge Contract intervenes in the ongoing debates about the changing conditions of higher education in America with a special focus on English studies and the humanities This highly original study integrates three crucial concerns the economic restructuring of higher education the transformation of disciplinary models of teaching and research and the rise of the academic labor movement Whereas most contemporary critiques of higher education have focused on the impact of global economic forces The Knowledge Contract adds a new dimension to the discussion by addressing the tensions between disciplinary and nondisciplinary forms of academic work David B Downing draws on several traditions of scholarship histories of the university sociological studies of education critiques of disciplinary and interdisciplinary forms of work histories of academic capitalism and the labor movement and field specific analyses of the history of English studies Building on his analysis Downing develops alternative possibilities to the dominance of disciplinary forms of labor and offers scenarios for creating more equitable working and learning conditions for faculty and students

Confessions of the Critics H. Aram Veese, 2014-05-01 The Confessions of the Critics shatters a certain silence Autobiographical criticism has until now skated relatively free from the challenges that usually assail a new literary critical method It has had this immunity from critique largely because feminists and third world liberation fighters such as Alice Walker Adrienne Rich and Jane Gallop ushered it to the North American academic stage Other women and men including Rigoberta Menchu Nawal al Sadawi Mahasweta Devi and Malcolm X wrote in the tradition and genre of testimonio These and other unimpeachably militant backgrounds gave confessional criticism a certain cache among the largely liberal community of literary scholars We have hesitated to express misgivings about a form that seemed intrinsically tied to the most vital powerful strivings Telling stories about one's own past is probably our culture's richest way of characterizing the effects of social injustice and developing what it takes to resist various kinds of victimage writes contributor Charles Altieri Confessions of the Critics provides a revealing look into the thoughts and experiences of some of the most influential and important critics of the 20th century The writers included avoid pretention and gross self misrepresentation giving way to raw sometimes embarrassing always wholly believable emotion Describing cumulative literary shocks and episodes of self recognition contributors offer insights to their ruling passions and works Powerful sensations emotions recognitions and revelations make up the heart of Confessions of the Critics It is a book that none will put aside or easily forget Contributors Charles Altieri William Andrews Michael F Berube Timothy Brennan Gillian Brown Cathy Davidson Elizabeth Fox Genovese Diane Freedman Marjorie Garber Gerald Graff Stephen J Greenblatt Michael Hill Marianne Hirsch Alice Yeager Kaplan Amitava Kumar Candace Lang Louis Menand Judith Lowder Newton Linda Orr Vincent Pecora David Simpson Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Madelon Sprengnether Jane Tompkins Marianna Torgovnick H Aram Veesser Jeffrey Williams Elizabeth Young Bruehl The Philosopher's Address Jeff Mason, 1999-01-01 Jeffrey A Mason has written an informative accessible guide to today's most popular form of philosophical writing the journal length essay The Philosopher's Address does what no other book on the market has attempted it takes the reader behind the scenes of the writing process to expose the rhetorical underpinnings of philosophical texts Mason argues that readers need to understand why philosophical writing is constructed as it is and to be aware of the rhetorical devices by which authors seek to persuade them if they are to engage fully with these texts This book is intended for a broad audience of specialists and students alike Professional scholars will appreciate Mason's astute discussion of current trends within analytic philosophy while students will benefit greatly from his comprehensive understanding of the social context in which philosophical discourse is produced its various and competing schools of thought and the theoretical concepts that inform them Scenes of Instruction Michael Awkward, 1999 A work of personal criticism by a leading Black male literary critic combining memoir with readings of African American fiction

States of Rage Renee R. Curry, Terry L. Allison, 1996 States of Rage permeate our culture and our daily lives From the anti Catholic protests of ACT UP to the political posturing of Al Sharpton from the LA Riots to anti abortion gunmen murdering clinic personnel the unleashing of rage marginalized or institutional has translated into dead bodies on our campuses and city streets in our public buildings and in our homes Rage seems to have gained a currency in the past decade which it previously did not possess Suddenly we appear willing to employ it more often to describe our own or others mental states or actions Rage succinctly describes an ongoing emotional state for many residents and citizens of the United States and elsewhere States of Rage gathers for the first time a critical mass of writing about rage its function expression and utilities It examines rage as a cultural phenomenon delineating its use and explaining why this emotional state increasingly intrudes into our social artistic and academic existences What is the relationship between rage and powerlessness How does rage relate to personal or social injustice Can we ritualize rage or is it always spontaneous Finally what provokes rage and what is provocative about it Essays shed light on the psychological and social origins of rage its relationship to the self its connection to culture and its possible triggers The volume includes chapters on violence in the workplace the Montreal massacre female murderers the rage of African American filmmakers rage as a reaction to persecution the rage of AIDS activists class rage and rage in the academy Disciplining English David R. Typewriter Robert DeMott, 2012-10-17 Steinbecks Typewriter Essays on His Art collects several of DeMotts finest essays on Steinbeck that are so carefully revised as to warn other critics seeking their own collected essay volume of the difference between a genuinely lapidary compilation and a kitchen midden Illustrated with some rare photos this collection is especially notable John Ditsky Choice Steinbecks Typewriter stands as the most in depth treatment of Steinbecks aesthetics particularly in its exploration of the authors interior spaces and creative habits elements of Steinbecks artistry which have not only been underestimated but woefully ignored Stephen George Steinbeck Review Culture, Politics and Governing P. Nickel, 2015-02-10 Culture Politics and Governing The Contemporary Ascetics of Knowledge Production is a critical interdisciplinary approach to how the practices that govern the production of knowledge and culture have material consequences for how we experience everyday life Faculty at Work Robert T.
