Constitutional Democracy in Africa: Constitutionalism, authoritarianism and statism Benjamin Obi Nwabueze, 2003 This five volume work received a Special Commendation in the 2005 Noma Award for Publishing in Africa The Jury cited the work as A magisterial and authoritative treatment of all aspects of constitutional democracy in Africa The author cares very deeply about democracy thriving in Africa but never weakens his objectivity in assessing its history or prospects It places the author securely as one of Africa s great scholars Social Media and Elections in Africa, Volume 2 Martin N. Ndlela, Winston Mano, 2020-02-14 This book the second of two volumes explores the challenges and opportunities presented by the increased presence of social media within African politics Electoral processes in Africa have assumed new dimensions due to the influence of social media As social media permeates different aspects of elections it is ostensibly creating new challenges and opportunities Most evident are the challenges of hate speech misogyny and incivility This book considers the impact of digital media before during and after elections as well as authorities attempts to legislate and regulate the internet in response Contributions to this volume analyse social media posts transgressive images newspaper articles and include case studies of Algeria Zimbabwe Kenya South Africa Nigeria and Uganda This results in the delivery of an original depiction of the use of social media in a variety of African contexts This book will appeal to academics and students of media and communication studies political studies journalism sociology and African studies Dimensions of Constitutional Democracy Anupama Roy, Michael Becker, 2020-06-01 This book examines a selection of themes that have become salient in contemporary debates on constitutional democracies It focuses in particular on the experiences of India and Germany as examples of post war and post colonial constitutional democracies whose trajectories illustrate democratic transitions and transformative constitutionalism While transformative constitutionalism has come to be associated specifically with the post apartheid experience in South Africa this book uses the transformative as an analytical framework to transcend the dichotomy of west and east and explore how temporally coincident constitutions have sought to install constitutional democracies by breaking with the past While the constitution making processes in the two countries were specific to their political contexts the constitutional promises and futures converged In this context the book explores the themes of Constitutionalism Nationalism Secularism Sovereignty and Rule of Law Freedoms and Rights to investigate how the contestations over democratic transitions and democratic futures have unfolded in the two democracies It offers readers valuable insights into how the normative frameworks of constitutional democracy take concrete form at specific sites of democratic and constitutional imagination in Dalit and Islamic writings as well as the relationship between state and religion in the writings of public intellectuals political and legal philosophers The book also focuses on specific sites of contestation in democracies including the relationship between sovereignty and citizenship in post colonial India free speech and sedition in liberal democracies questions of land rights in connection with economic and political changes in contemporary contexts and the rights of indigenous communities with regard to international conventions and domestic law Given its scope it will be of interest to students and scholars of political theory political philosophy comparative constitutionalism law and human rights

African Human Rights Law Journal Volume 20 No 2 2020, 2020-01-01 In 2020 the African Human Rights Law Journal AHRLJ or Journal celebrates 20 years since it first was published The AHRLJ is the only peer reviewed journal focused on human rights related topics of relevance to Africa Africans and scholars of Africa It is a time for celebration Since 2001 two issues of the AHRLJ have appeared every year Initially published by Juta in Cape Town South Africa in 2013 it became as an open access journal published by the Pretoria University Law Press PULP PULP is a non profit open access publisher focused on advancing African scholarship The AHRLJ contains peer reviewed articles and recent developments discussing the latest court decisions and legal developments in the African Union AU and regional economic communities It contains brief discussions of recently published books With a total of 517 contributions in 40 issues 436 articles and 81 recent developments not counting book reviews on average the AHRLJ contains around 13 contributions per issue The AHRLJ is accredited with the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences IBSS and the South African Department of Higher Education Science and Innovation and appears in a number of open access portals including AfricanLii the Directory of Open Access Journals and SciELO Over the 20 years of its existence many significant articles appeared in the AHRLJ According to Google Scholar the mostcited articles that have appeared in the Journal over this period are i T Metz Ubuntu as a moral theory and human rights in South Africa 2011 11 African Human Rights Law Journal 532 559 with 273 citations ii D Cornell and K van Marle Exploring ubuntu Tentative reflections 2005 5 African Human Rights Law Journal 195 220 with 97 citations iii S Tamale Exploring the contours of African sexualities Religion law and power 2014 14 African Human Rights Law Journal 150 177 with 85 citations K Kindiki The normative and institutional framework of the African Union relating to the protection of human rights and the maintenance of international peace and security A critical appraisal 2003 3 African Human Rights Law Journal 97 117 with 59 citations and T Kaime The Convention on the Rights of the Child and the cultural legitimacy of children's rights in Africa Some reflections 2005 5 African Human Rights Law Journal 221 238 with 54 citations This occasion allows some perspective on the role that the Journal has played over the past 20 years It is fair to say that the AHRLJ contributed towards strengthening indigenous African scholarship in general and human rights related themes specifically Before the Journal there was no academic outlet devoted to human rights in the broader African context Both in quantity and in quality the Journal has left its mark on the landscape of scholarly journals The AHRLJ has provided a forum for African voices including those that needed to be fine tuned Different from many other peerreviewed journals the AHRLJ has seen it as its responsibility to nurture emerging but not yet fully flourishing talent This approach allowed younger and emerging scholars to be guided to sharpen their skills and find their scholarly voices The AHRLJ has evolved in tandem with the African regional human rights system in a dialogic relationship characterised by constructive criticism When the Journal was first published in 2001 the Protocol on the Establishment of an African Court on Human and Peoples Rights African Court Protocol was not yet in force Over the years the Journal tracked the evolution of the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights African Court from a faltering start through a phase when it increasingly expressed itself in an emerging jurisprudence to the current situation of push back by states signalled by the withdrawal by four states of their acceptance of the Court's direct individual access jurisdiction The same is largely true for the African Committee of Experts on the Rights and Welfare of the Child African Children's Committee It was in 2001 that the AU elected the first members of this Committee It first met in 2002 and its first decade or so was lackluster The Committee examined its first state report only in November 2008 and decided its first communication in March 2011 Articles by authors such as Mezmur and Sloth Nielsen who also served as members of the Committee and Lloyd placed the spotlight on the work of the Committee Initially these articles primarily served to describe and provide information that otherwise was largely inaccessible but over time they increasingly provided a critical gaze and contributed to the constructive evolution of the Committee's exercise of its mandate By 2011 the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights African Commission was already quite well established but it also underwent significant growth over the subsequent 20 year period Numerous articles in the Journal trace and analyse aspects of this evolution Contributions in the Journal also cover most of the AU human rights treaties and soft law standards A number of issues contain a special focus section dealing with a thematic issue of particular relevance or concern such as the focus on the Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women 2006 no 1 30 years of the African Charter 2011 no 2 and sexual and reproductive rights and the African Women's Protocol 2014 no 2 The scope of the Journal extends beyond the supranational dimension of human rights Over the years many contributions explored aspects of the domestic human rights situation in countries such as the Democratic Republic of the Congo Eswatini Ethiopia Lesotho Malawi Mauritius Nigeria South Africa Tanzania Uganda and Zimbabwe From time to time the specific focus sections also veered towards domestic human rights protection See for instance the focus on 20 years of the South African Constitution 2014 no 2 on adolescent sexual and reproductive rights in the African region 2017 no 2 on the rule of law in sub Saharan Africa 2018 no 1 and on dignity taking and dignity restorations 2018 no 2

Dinstein, 2018-08-07 The Israel Yearbook on Human Rights an annual published under the auspices of the Faculty of Law of Tel Aviv University since 1971 is devoted to publishing studies by distinguished scholars in Israel and other countries on human rights in peace and war with particular emphasis on problems relevant to the State of Israel and the Jewish people The Yearbook also incorporates documentary materials relating to Israel and the Administered Areas which are not otherwise available in English including summaries of judicial decisions compilations of legislative enactments and military proclamations Constitutional Change and Constitutionalism in Africa, 2025-05-16 The new generation of African constitutions crafted in the 1990s marked the beginning of a trend that promised a radical transformation of the continent's governance landscape This movement aimed to eliminate the risks of coups and political instability that had plagued Africa since the 1960s by embedding democracy and constitutionalism However the wave of constitutional reforms post 1990s seems to have sparked a contagious fever of making unmaking and remaking constitutions The nature and frequency of these changes threaten to undermine the progress made in entrenching a culture of constitutionalism good governance and respect for the rule of law It is therefore no surprise that there is almost universal agreement that Africa is now facing a profound crisis of democracy and constitutionalism Constitutional Change and Constitutionalism in Africa examines the nature and extent of these changes which have been occurring more frequently and sometimes more arbitrarily than anticipated Among the main questions investigated are the constitution making process and the roles of various internal actors such as the legislature executive and judiciary as well as external actors like the African Union and Regional Economic Communities in the different processes of constitutional change Ultimately the discussions aim to explore how the processes of constitutional change whether inevitable and unavoidable or contrived can be conducted in a manner that does not undermine or threaten the efforts to entrench democracy constitutionalism good governance and respect for the rule of law on the African continent

South Africa and the Case for Renegotiating the Peace Pierre du Toit, Charl Swart, Salom, Teuteberg, 2016-11-11 South Africa is awash with policy failures and policy confusion We argue firstly that our current discord over policy details has its origin in the celebrated negotiated transition We hold that the vote count of an 85% majority in the Constituent Assembly in 1996 obscured the reality that the Constitution meant different things to different negotiators The result was that South Africa from the very start of the democratic era lacked a national consensus on how to go about consolidating democracy We keep on failing to build a proper roof over our democracy because the constitutional foundations are weak The Story of Constitutions Wim Voermans, 2023-11-02 Adopts an interdisciplinary approach to trace the surprising story of written constitutions since the agricultural revolution of c 10 000 B C

Constitutional Democracy in Indonesia Melissa Crouch, 2022-11-07 Indonesia's political and governmental structures underwent sweeping reforms in the late 1990s After decades of authoritarian rule a key aspect of the transition to constitutional democracy during this period was the amendment of the 1945 Indonesian Constitution an important legal text governing the world's third largest democracy The amended Constitution introduced profound changes to the legal and political system including an emphasis on judicial independence a bill of rights and the establishment of a Constitutional Court This volume with chapters written by leading experts explores the ongoing debates over the meaning implementation and practice of constitutional democracy in Indonesia This includes debates over the powers of the legislature the role of the military the scope of decentralisation the protection of rights and permissible limits on rights the regulation of elections the watchdog role of accountability agencies and the leading role of the Constitutional Court These legal issues are analysed in light of the contemporary social political and economic environment that has seen a decline in tolerance freedom and respect for minorities Contributions to this volume review the past two decades of reform in Indonesia and assess the challenges to the future of constitutional democracy amidst the wide spread consensus on the decline of democracy in Indonesia Demands for amendments to the Constitution and calls to revert to its initial form would be a reversal of Indonesia's democratic gains

Religion as Empowerment Kyriaki Topidi, Lauren Fielder, 2016-06-10 This volume shows how and why legal empowerment is important for those exercising their religious rights under various jurisdictions in conditions of legal pluralism At the same time it also questions the thesis that as societies become more modern they also become less religious The authors look beyond the rule of law orthodoxy in their consideration of the freedom of religion as a human right and place this discussion in a more plurality sensitive context The book sheds more light on the informal and or customary mechanisms that explain the limited impact of law on individuals and groups especially in non Western societies The focus is on discussing how religion and the exercise of religious rights may or may not empower individuals and social groups and improve access to human rights in general This book is important reading for academics and practitioners of law and religion religious rights religious diversity and cultural difference as well as NGOs policy makers lawyers and advocates at multicultural jurisdictions It offers a contemporary take on comparative legal studies with a distinct focus on religion as an identity marker

Democracy and Democratization in Africa Udogu, 2021-11-01 The 9 contributors to this volume are Africanists whose comprehension of the political vernacular of Africa helped to sharpen their analyses of a continent on the eve of a new millennium and in the aftermath of the Cold War The debate over the most relevant political models for African countries has till recently been conducted against a backdrop of the competing claims of socialism and capitalism Attempts to consolidate democracy and constitutional have taken place in the shadow of intractable economic problems prompting the question of whether democracy can survive in Africa without economic prosperity The papers published here address many of these problems as well as dealing with the questions of ethnicity leadership the power of the military and prodemocracy movements within African nation states
