history Gertz v Robert Welch Inc Gertz's ordeal began in Chicago during the violent peace demonstrations of 1968 A youth Ronald Nelson was killed by a Chicago policeman Richard Nuccio Gertz represented the Nelson family in civil suits against Nuccio and the Chicago police department After Nuccio was convicted of murder the John Birch Society published an article in its journal American Opinion claiming that Nuccio was framed by Communists Gertz was targeted as a prime Communist instigator After reading and studying the article Gertz filed suit against Robert Welch Inc charging that it had defamed him by publishing highly harmful lies impugning his reputation and patriotism Gertz writes in detail of his landmark case which involved two trials two reviews in the court of appeals and two battles in the Supreme Court Although the case was finally decided in April 1981 when a U S district court jury awarded him 100 000 compensatory damages and 300 000 punitive damages Gertz did not receive payment until May 1983 after Robert Welch Inc had filed two unsuccessful appeals

The Burden of Proof in Comparative and International Human Rights Law Juliane Kokott, 2023-12-28 This book explores how courts decide or ought to decide in situations of uncertainty A Court must always decide the case before it even if the relevant facts remain unclear The question then arises which party benefits and which party is burdened by that uncertainty In these cases the Court must apply the rules on the burden of proof or more precisely the burden of persuasion Their importance for the individual claimant is obvious The comparison of two domestic systems one based on common law and the other a traditional code based legal order with regard to the issue of burden of proof helps to clarify the terminology and lays the ground for dealing with the burden of proof in international human rights law Without knowing what can be understood by the term burden of proof under domestic law international lawyers with different domestic law backgrounds are in danger of misunderstanding each other This may lead to obscuring the problems connected with court decisions involving uncertainty The study also deals with uncertainties with regard to legislative general in contrast to adjudicative individual facts and with uncertainties in the framework of predictions in contrast to uncertainties relating to historic facts It attempts to prepare the ground for dealing more consciously and more consistently with problems of uncertainty in international human rights law International courts due to their geographical and cultural distance from the case usually have less access to the underlying facts Nevertheless in order to protect human rights effectively international courts and tribunals cannot always restrict themselves to reviewing the law but may also have to decide on the facts Thus issues relating to decision making on the basis of uncertain facts including the burden of persuasion are even more important in international than in domestic human rights law
