Construction Of Racial Identity In Children Of Mixed Parentage Mixed Metaphors:

The Construction of Racial Identity in Children of Mixed Parentage Ilan Katz, 1996 This book is a major contribution to the literature on race identity and child development and offers a radically new way of looking at some of these issues Based on intensive research on interracial families the book reviews the previous literature relating to racial identity development and shows it to be based on flawed assumptions

Working with Children of Mixed Parentage Toyin Okitipki, 2005 This uniquely important new book asks fundamental questions about professional practice that views society as a binary world in which children can be only Black or White It questions social workers and others assumptions about children of mixed parentage and challenges simplistic understandings of race ethnicity and culture It advocates a more complex understanding of the issues one rooted in the lived experience of the children and families who are the subjects of social intervention Rather than viewing these children and young people as victims of confusion and uncertainty this important book identifies the ethnic and cultural diversity to which these youngsters are heir as the basis upon which effective practice must be built Working with children of mixed parentage explores The influence of the one drop rule one drop of black blood renders a person black on professional practice in social welfare The experiences of white mothers of children of mixed parentage The social impact of the increasing number of interracial relationships and children of mixed parentage in Britain The social and psychological development of children of mixed parentage A new paradigm for direct work with the children and young people of mixed parentage and their families The permanent family placement experience of children of mixed parentage The contributors are at the forefront of developments in this contentious field Working with children of mixed parentage has been written with practitioners students service managers and academics in mind It is an invaluable source for those genuinely interested in developing improved practice with children of mixed parentage and their families

Mixed Race Identities in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands Farida Fozdar, Kirsten McGavin, 2016-12-08 This volume offers a southern Pacific Ocean perspective on the topic of racial hybridity exploring it through a series of case studies from around the Australo Pacific region a region unique as a result of its very particular colonial histories Focusing on the interaction between race and culture especially in terms of visibility and self defined identity and the particular characteristics of political cultural and social formations in the countries of this region the book explores the complexity of the lived mixed race experience the structural forces of particular colonial and post colonial environments and political regimes and historical influences on contemporary identities and cultural expressions of mixed ness

Mothering, Mixed Families and Racialised Boundaries Ravinder Barn, Vicki Harman, 2015-09-04 This pioneering volume draws together theoretical and empirical contributions analyzing the experiences of white mothers in interracial families in Britain Canada and the USA The growth of the mixed race population reflects an increasingly racially and culturally heterogeneous society shaped by powerful forces of globalisation and migration Mixed family formations are becoming increasingly common through marriage relationships and adoption and there is also increasing social recognition of interracial families through the inclusion of mixed categories in Census data and other official statistics The changing demographic make up of Britain and other Western countries raises important questions about identity belonging and the changing nature of family life It also connects with theoretical and empirical discussions about the significance of race in contemporary society In exploring mothering across racialised boundaries this volume offers new insights and perspectives The notion of racialisation is invoked to argue that while the notion of race does not exist in any meaningful sense it continues to operate as a social process This crucial resource will appeal to academics researchers policy makers practitioners and undergraduate and postgraduate students This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Black, White Or Mixed Race? Ann Phoenix, Barbara Tizard, 2005-07-05 This revised edition begins with a substantial new introduction setting the data in today's context and includes updated statistics and references Black White or Mixed Race is as relevant today as when it was first published Meeting the Needs of Ethnic Minority Children Kedar Nath Dwivedi, 2002 Offering practical guidelines based on research and practice this book focuses on some of the most topical issues among those working with children from ethnic minorities Experts from a variety of disciplines look at the various aspects of such work International Perspectives on Racial and Ethnic Mixedness and Mixing Rosalind Edwards, Suki Ali, Chamion Caballero, Miri Song, 2012-06-14 People from a mixed or inter racial and ethnic background and people partnering and parenting across different racial and ethnic backgrounds are of increasing political public and intellectual interest internationally Contributors to this interdisciplinary collection interrogate notions of mixedness and mixing and challenge stereotypical assumptions They advance debates in the field through illuminating the complexity of specific historical trajectories administrative practices and lived experience Recurrent themes woven throughout the chapters include boundaries and categorisation in terms of administration and government and also of lived experience the explicit and implicit politics of mixedness and mixing in terms of nation state interests agenda and policies as well as on the ground social relations the ways that mixedness and mixing shift in meaning and implications across time and place shaped by different national regional and or local contexts This volume shows that who is and is not mixed is contested and understandings of mixedness and mixing however conceived need to be situated in the larger complex of ideas about race and its classification International Perspectives on Racial and Ethnic Mixedness and Mixing is an invaluable book for students and scholars of race and ethnicity Mixed Matters Denise Williams, 2011 More often than not mixed race pupils are simply referred to as black and tend to be encompassed in a larger more diverse group of black pupils but the increased presence of mixed race pupils in schools needs to focus the efforts of education professionals to address issues of race ethnicity and culture Mixed Matters is essential reading for all educational professionals who want to get to grips with the issues that face mixed families and the pupils themselves as they share their personal experiences of what it is like to be them in the British schooling system The young people featured in this book challenge some of the commonly held assumptions made about them especially regarding their aspirations This book contains some resources that can be used to support work with mixed race pupils as well as initial training and professional development of teachers The book also details the approach of Mixed formerly the Multiple Heritage Project in organising youth conferences and training youth facilitators of mixed race to lead their peers in discussions about school and identity

The Biopolitics of Mixing Jinhana Haritaworn,2016-03-23 Debates over who belongs in Europe and who doesn't increasingly speak the language of mixing but how are the figures commonly described as mixed actually embodied The Biopolitics of Mixing invites us to reckon with the spectres of pathologization past and present placing the celebration of mixing beside moral panics over terrorism and trafficking and a post race multiculturalism that elevates some as privileged members of the neoliberal community whilst ghosting others from it Drawing on a broad archive including rich qualitative interviews conducted in Britain and Germany media and policy debates popular culture race based research and queer of colour theories this book imagines into being communities in which people and places normally kept separate can coexist in the same reality As such it will appeal to scholars across a range of sociological and cultural studies including critical race ethnic and migration studies transnational gender and queer studies German and European studies Thai and Southeast Asian studies and studies of affect performativity biopolitics and necropolitics It should be read by all those interested in thinking critically on the intersections of race class gender sexuality and disability

Mixed Race Britain in The Twentieth Century Chamion Caballero,Peter J. Aspinall,2018-05-07 This book explores the overlooked history of racial mixing in Britain during the course of the twentieth century a period in which there was considerable and influential public debate on the meanings and implications of intimately crossing racial boundaries Based on research that formed the foundations of the British television series Mixed Britannia the authors draw on a range of firsthand accounts and archival material to compare official accounts of racial mixing and mixedness with those told by mixed race people couples and families themselves Mixed Race Britain in The Twentieth Century shows that alongside the more familiarly recognised experiences of social bigotry and racial prejudice there can also be glimpsed constant threads of tolerance acceptance inclusion and ordinariness It presents a more complex and multifaceted history of mixed race Britain than is typically assumed one that adds to the growing picture of the longstanding diversity and difference that is and always has been an ordinary and everyday feature of British life

Sex and Race in the Black Atlantic Daniel McNeil,2010-01-27 Drawing on a wide range of sources and a diverse cast of characters this book is the first to place the self fashioning of mixed race individuals in the context of a Black Atlantic and gives particular attention to the construction of mixed race femininity and masculinity during the twentieth century

Mixed-up Kids? Tina G. Patel,2009 Drawing upon the reflective narratives of individuals who were transracially adopted as children and upon the relevant literature and research this book will challenge and help anyone in social work adoption and fostering education youth work and youth justice BOOK

JACKET Mixed Feelings Gina E. Miranda, 2002 Mixed Experiences Dinah Morley, Cathy Street, 2014-02-17 Mixed race is the fastest growing population group of children and young people in England and Wales The diversity of the mixed race group does not allow for a one size fits all assessment of needs and this is the challenge for practitioners This guide offers practitioners an insight into the experiences of racism discrimination and identity confusion that mixed race children and young people encounter With a focus on mental health it discusses the policy context and considers the learning from projects and local services that have targeted mixed race children young people and families It will be of value to all practitioners working with children and young people especially those in the mental health field and also in health early years services social care education youth justice and the voluntary sector

Hybrid Identities and Adolescent Girls Laurel D. Kamada, 2010 This book examines the ethnic gendered and embodied hybrid identities of half Japanese girls in Japan colourfully narrated through their own voices The girls struggle to positively construct their identities into positions of control over disempowering discourses of otherness while also celebrating cultural capital as they negotiate their constructed identities of Japaneseness whiteness and halfness doubleness

Global Feminist Politics Suki Ali, Kelly Coate, Wangüi wa Goro, 2000 Featuring an international panel of cutting edge feminist thinkers Global Feminist Politics examines the changing context for feminist political action its meaning and forms

Mixed Messages David L. Brunsma, 2006 The experiences and voices of multiracial individuals are challenging current categories of race profoundly altering the meaning of racial identity and in the process changing the cultural fabric of the nation Exploring this new reality the authors of Mixed Messages examine what we know about multiracial identities and the implications of those identities for fundamental issues of justice and equality

Working with Ethnic Minorities and Across Cultures in Western Child Protection Systems Pooja Sawrikar, 2016-12-16 Multiculturalism in western countries continues to grow but responsiveness to it with culturally sensitive research policy and practice has been slower to develop Unlike previous research this book addresses discrete and relevant practice issues how to work effectively with interpreters whether or not to match caseworkers and clients based on ethnic background and what to consider when making plans for children in the out of home care system with best practice guidelines

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World

Working with Ethnicity, Race and Culture in Mental Health Hári Sewell, 2008-10-15 This book enables practitioners to understand why it is important to consider the needs of people from black and minority ethnic BME backgrounds in mental health settings It offers guidance on how they can take positive steps to improve the quality of their work their relationships with BME users and ultimately how to improve their outcomes
