De-constructing Dahl Laura Viñas Valle, 2016-01-14 This is the first single authored monograph on Roald Dahl since 1994 Remarkably in spite of Dahl s commercial success and the divided opinions he generates very little scholarly work on the author has been produced In the light of sociocultural constructivist theory De constructing Dahl focuses on the critical context texts and paratexts that make up the packaging of Dahl It offers the first thorough overview of the criticism and the language employed to discuss Dahl since the 1970s the difficulties that using such language entails and how it still permeates current criticism It delves into the relationship between Dahl s children s and adult fiction by drawing comparisons and contrasts and exploring the common traits and patterns that bring his whole work together It also examines how Dahl constructed himself as a children s writer how his publishing house and allies contribute to mediating and sustaining the Dahl public persona the ways that marketing strategies are responsible for the identity of his books and how editorial decisions about the age range and therefore how the classification of a manuscript as a book for children or for adults constructs particular ideas of what children s literature is and what is considered appropriate or unsuitable for children to read

Constructing Adolescence in Fantastic Realism Alison Waller, 2010-12-22 Constructing Adolescence in Fantastic Realism examines those fundamental themes which inform our understanding of the teenager themes that emerge in both literary and cultural contexts Models of adolescence do not arise solely from discourses of psychology sociology and education Rather these models frameworks including developmentalism identity formation social agency and subjectivity in cultural space can also be found represented symbolically in fantastic tropes such as metamorphosis time slip hauntings doppelgangers invisibility magic gifts and witchcraft These are the incredible supernatural and magical elements that invade the everyday and diurnal world of fantastic realism In this original study Alison Waller proposes a new critical term to categorize a popular and established genre in literature for teenagers young adult fantastic realism Though fantastic realism plays a crucial part in the short history of young adult literature up until now this genre has typically been overlooked or subsumed into the wider class of fantasy Touching on well known authors including Robert Cormier Melvin Burgess Gillian Cross Margaret Mahy K M Peyton and Robert Westall as well as previously unexamined writers Waller explores the themes and ideological perspectives embedded in fantastic realist novels in order to ask whether parallel realities and fantastic identities produce forms of adolescence that are dynamic and subversive One of the first studies to deal with late twentieth century fantastic literature for young adults this book makes a valuable contribution to our understanding of adult attitudes toward adolescent identity

The Visual Culture of East German Picturebooks 1945-1990 Jörg Meibauer, 2025-06-02 This is the first study to explore picturebooks of the Soviet Occupation Zone and the German Democratic Republic analyzing them in the context of contemporary history social and cultural developments and through a precise analysis of selected images and their context By focusing on areas such as architecture and housing consumer culture traffic and transportation including the iconic role of the Trabant and the design of childhood as seen in pioneer uniforms and institutions the study identifies the unique blend of information about reality and socialist ideology typical of children s visual culture during this period This specific combination was aimed at shaping children to become socialist personalities The study thus demonstrates that pictorial representation and its textual integration are crucial for understanding childhood in the immediate post war period and the German Democratic Republic Architectural Record of Design and Construction ,1962 The Art of Science Barbara Hume, Christine Galton, 1989 The Art of Science presents an invaluable collection of effective and simple activities together with associated creative ideas to introduce and reinforce the teaching of science to infants and lower juniors Book jacket
