Safety Risk Assessment of Urban Underground Large Space Construction Sheng-Xiang Lei,Zhong-Sheng Tan,Ming-Li Huang,Zheng-Quan Ding,Ke Lei,2025-02-25 This monograph aims to provide theoretical and technical support for construction safety risk assessment in the construction of urban underground large space since high construction risks and safety accidents frequently occurs in the current development of complex underground spaces in urban areas The author s team completes the statistical analysis on a large number of typical engineering instances and related accident cases and proposes the definition of urban underground large space and corresponding risk analysis methods This book starts with analyzing the safety risk characteristics during construction period of urban underground large spaces and establishes a coupling evolution analysis model then proposes an index system and the quantitative criterion for construction safety risk assessment in urban underground large space and lastly constructs a dynamic evaluation system on construction safety risk The book will be an valuable reference for professional engineers researchers teachers and students with an interest in the construction and management of underground spaces The basis of English translation of this book originally in Chinese was facilitated by artificial intelligence The content was later revised by the authors for accuracy

China's Eco-city Construction Jingyuan Li,Tongjin Yang,2015-11-04 This book introduces the concept of Eco civilization highlights the construction and development of eco cities in China and assesses the achievements and shortcomings of China s eco city construction projects As both China and Western countries face an impending ecological crisis responding to that crisis is a common challenge for all human beings There is an overwhelming consensus among Chinese scholars that in order to successfully address the ecological crisis successfully we must establish an eco civilization and one important step toward accomplishing that goal is to plan and construct eco cities Remembering, Forgetting and City Builders Dr Haim Yacobi,Dr Tovi Fenster,2012-11-28 Remembering Forgetting and City Builders critically explores how urban spaces are designed planned and experienced in relation to the politics of collective and personal memory construction Bringing together case studies from North America South Asia Eastern Europe and the Middle East the book analyzes how contested national ethnic and cultural sentiments clash in planning and experiencing urban spaces Going beyond the claim that such situations exist in many parts of the world because communities construct their past memories within their current daily life and future aspirations the book explores how the very acts of planning and urban design are rooted in the existing structures of hegemonic power With contributors from the fields of architecture geography planning anthropology and sociology urban studies and cultural studies the book provides a rich interdisciplinary view into the conflicts over memory and belonging which are spatially expressed and mediated through the official planning apparatus

Under Construction Freek Colombijn,2013-11-29 Freek Colombijn examines the social changes in Indonesian cities during the process of decolonization That process had major repercussions for urban society These social changes are studied from the angle of urban space in general and the provision of housing in particular This provides fresh insight into how people experienced decolonization The author challenges the idea that a shift from ethnic to class differences was the overriding social change during decolonization He argues instead that class differences had already formed the predominant dividing lines in colonial urban society Colombijn also focuses on the shifting balance of power between the main agents in the urban arena Through the use of hitherto unused historical sources the book presents a wealth of new data about the Indonesian city and the decolonization process Published in cooperation with the Netherlands Institute of War Documentation NIOD Originally published with imprint KITLV ISBN 9789067182911 Engaging Schooling

Subjectivities Across Post-apartheid Urban Spaces Aslam Fataar, 2015-09-30 Aslam Fataar one of South Africa's few educational sociologists working with ethnographic methods captures the complex interactions and dynamics between social life school processes and youth subjectivity in townships in the Western Cape His work with concepts of mobilities and space is enormously generative providing a way for teachers principals communities and policy makers to engage with the complex ecologies of young people's learning in urban schools As an astute policy analyst he also well knows the systemic barriers in the way of achieving this The last chapter on possibilities for pedagogical justice at the site of the school considers how disengaged students might re-engage through leveraging explicit pedagogic connections between their lifeworlds and school practices Acknowledging that pedagogy cannot be the only means for revitalising schooling the author nevertheless insists that marginalised young people's consent needs to be won by schools that make use of rather than ignore their strengths knowledges and aspirations The approach to the troubled question of youth and subjectivity is enlightening and vital to understanding the post-apartheid city and school The book fills a much needed gap in educational sociology in South Africa utilization of UCL are contingent upon the various developmental milieus in different places China's land institutions based on an urban rural dual land system are not conducive to the ultimate goal of saving and efficiently utilizing land Accordingly an urban rural integrated land market and management system is highly advisable The theoretical and empirical enquiry presented challenges the perceived notion of China's UCL development as the outcome of market demand and state supply Further it argues for an inclusive treatment of the informality that has characterized urbanization in many developing countries and for a reassessment of the role played by the peasantry in land based urbanization
