Life and Thought of Bernard Eugene Meland, American Constructive Theologian, 1899-1993 W. Creighton Peden, 2010-08-11 This book deals with Bernard Eugene Meland's life as presented in his unpublished intellectual autobiography and thought as a constructive theologian who taught in the Divinity School of The University of Chicago 1945-64 When Meland was in the process of completing his doctoral studies at the University of Chicago he came into close association with Henry Nelson Wieman who was joining the faculty Meland took the first course Wieman offered in which they read William Ernest Hocking's The Meaning of God in Human Experience Part IV and Whitehead's Religion in the Making He audited Wieman's other courses The philosophy of A N Whitehead played a large role in their relationship and theology With the sudden death of G B Smith Wieman became Meland's doctoral advisor After completing the doctoral program Meland spent the next year at Marburg University in Germany studying with Rudolf Otto He came away from this experience having discovered that the stimulus and lure in the language of the arts had become for him an alternative to the moral way of expressing value sensibility and fulfillment of human experience He returned from Europe to begin teaching at Central College in Missouri and in 1936 joined the faculty at Pomona College in Claremont California His association with Wieman continued in the 1930s as they co-authored American Philosophies of Religion 1936 While teaching at Central College Meland authored Modern Man's Worship 1934 and at Pomona College published Write Your Own Ten Commandments 1938 and The Church and Adult Education 1939 In 1945 Meland joined Wieman at the Divinity School as

Professor of Constructive Theology Although Wieman soon retired their connection continued throughout Wieman's life The Second World War had concluded and Meland was in a state of anguish and despair over the war and especially by the atomic bomb In this troubled state of mind he published Seeds of Redemption 1947 America's Spiritual Culture 1948 and The Reawakening of Christian Faith 1949 His next two publications were Higher Education and the Human Spirit 1953 and Faith and Culture 1955 with the latter considered by many as his most important work While teaching at Chicago Meland twice served twice as The Barrows Lectures in India His lectures in 1957-58 were published as The Realities of Faith 1962 In 1963-64 he continued his theme of the relationship between faith and culture by focusing on the impact of secularization on modern cultures These lectures were published as The Secularization of Modern Cultures 1966 His last book was Fallible Forms and Symbols 1977 In the first section of this book Meland's thought is considered under four headings Metaphysical View Method Doctrine of God and View of Religion followed by an evaluation Section two is devoted to his Later Writings followed by a conclusion

God in Postliberal Perspective Robert Andrew Cathey, 2016-04-22 Who is God The variety of images of God tends to overwhelm us in the present age Is God a fiction of human construction or a reality that makes claims upon how we practice faith in God How does this quest for an understanding of God illumine who we are God in Postliberal Perspective presents an introduction to the doctrine and concept of God in contemporary philosophy and theology exploring how some theologians and philosophers dare to speak of God as real in our sceptical pluralistic and interfaith age Robert Cathey tours the house of realism as constructed by postliberal Christians David Burrell William Placher Bruce Marshall in conversation with living communities of faith and critical work in philosophy and theology and develops a distinctive argument about the relation of realism and non realism in constructing the doctrine of God in postliberal theology Offering a reading of postliberal theology which is open to critical discussion with other types of theology philosophy and faith traditions this book proposes a model of theological reflection that may be extended to the reality claims of a wide range of doctrines and concepts

Bernard Eugene Meland's Unpublished Papers John N. Gaston, 2012-12-18 Bernard Eugene Meland 1899-1993 was a leader in the pragmatic tradition of constructive theology associated with the University of Chicago This volume contains more than forty six previously unpublished lectures reports and other personal documents that Meland wrote at various times between 1937 and 1979 It is a companion volume to W Creighton Peden's book Life and Thought of Bernard Eugene Meland American Constructive Theologian 1899-1993 and is intended to give the reader a deeper understanding of Meland's methods and thought

The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom

Constructing Constructive Theology Jason A. Wyman Jr. ,2017-07-15 To date constructive theology hasn't been viewed or conceptualized as a movement or trend in theology on its own as a whole Questions arise as to what constructive theology is where it came from why it considers itself constructive and why constructive is something different from the ways in which theology has been done in the past This book traces the overall historical arc of constructive theology from proto movement through the present Inklings of constructive theology emerged well before it began to take any formalized shape At the same time an important shift occurred when a group of theologians decided to create the Workgroup on Constructive Theology Further even as the workgroup continues to work collectively producing textbooks statements and methodologies concerning theology many theologians who are not part of the workgroup or may not even know it exists have adopted the moniker of constructive theologian The book also considers the term constructive itself offering possible reasons and historical contexts that led to this distinction being made in contrast to systematic theology and its subcategories Constructive theology speaks to a very specific historically situated emergence in the academy generally and in theology's attempts to engage those shifts specifically

The Order of Things Alister E. McGrath,2008-04-15 Provocative and immensely well informed The Order of Things represents a substantial and original contribution to the fields of systematic theology historical theology and the science and religion dialogue Leading theologian Alister E McGrath explores how the working methods and assumptions of the natural sciences can be used to inform and stimulate systematic theology Written by one of today's best known Christian writers Explores how the working methods and assumptions of the natural sciences can be used to inform and stimulate systematic theology Continues McGrath's acclaimed exploration of scientific theology begun with his groundbreaking three volume work A Scientific Theology Includes a landmark extended analysis of whether doctrinal development can be explained using Darwinian evolutionary models and exploration of how the transition from a scientific theology to a future scientific dogmatics might be made Supported by a published review of McGrath's scientific theology project which is currently the best brief introduction to his thought

Rethinking Faith James Newton Poling,2011-08 What can practical theology contribute to other theological disciplines and the church about the nature of God and the church's witness to Jesus Christ in the world What can we learn about the love and power of God in Jesus Christ from the community of survivors of violence Rethinking Faith urges all Christians to consider themselves practical theologians by drawing on their own experiences in making theological assertions Poling couples his understanding of the tradition with his work with survivors of violence to demonstrate the resilience of Christianity

Transforming

Process Theism Lewis S. Ford, 2000-05-18 Process theism in a variety of manifestations and modifications stemming from Whitehead's original suggestions dominates discussions of philosophical and natural theology in Europe and America. In Transforming Process Theism Ford argues that subsequent modifications of Whitehead's original line of thought mask a fundamental and unresolved aporia in that original proposal since only past or objectified determinate events can influence present experiences and since God as conceived by Whitehead is never fully determinate or objectifiable as a past event it is difficult to see how this divine persuasive power can have any influence on the present as a source of creativity and genuinely new possibilities for enactment. Ford meticulously reconstructs and evaluates Whitehead's own versions of theism and he critically appraises the most influential subsequent modifications of these unrecognized variants by other process thinkers. He recovers the original trajectory of Whitehead's continuous revision of his conception of God and forges an appropriate solution to this central aporia. He concludes that consistent with Whitehead's overarching metaphysical principles there is another kind of causal influence that does not require objectification and is the opposite of past determinateness. The future conceived as active offers an account of subjectivity which is both universal and transcendent. God according to Ford's revisions must be understood as this particular but indefinite creativity or universal activity of the future bestowing subjectivity on each present occasion of experience without ever becoming determinate. Religious Naturalism Today

Jerome A. Stone, 2008-12-18 Looks at the history and revival of religious naturalism a spiritual path without a supreme being

American Journal of Theology & Philosophy, 1996 Christian Tradition Today Jeffrey C. K. Goh, 2000 This study critically examines the postliberal project with special reference to George Lindbeck the founding father of postliberalism. In an age of profound cultural change is it feasible to locate the future of the Church and of the world on a consensus building hermeneutic that dwells in the particularity of the Christian Scripture as its exclusive home? Seeing the theological task as a hermeneutical task founded upon the premise that truth is revealed in a dialectical way the author provides an intelligible framework for dialogue with the postliberal school of thought. This dialogue he argues is ultimately determined by the overarching question of what it means to be Church. Towards a critical synthesis of the ecclesiological impact of this dialogue the author offers a tightly argued and informative discussion on five pairs of key concepts: tradition and authority, Bible and de Christianization, hermeneutics and revelation, religion and experience, doctrine and truth. The Human Image of God

Hans-Georg Ziebertz, Friedrich Schweitzer, Hermann Häring, Don Browning, 2021-10-01 A new wave of religious energy is sweeping through the western nations. Although God is disappearing from religious discourse in western culture both as a word and as a concept there is a definite undercurrent of religious ardour which is growing in strength. It focuses all the more attention on the issue: what or who is God in the modern era? This is the question examined through systematic studies, practical theology and empirical research that are presented here through anthropologically relevant theology. Renowned international authors make it plain in this book: the question of God is exciting again. This book is published in honour of

Johannes A van der Ven on the occasion of his 60th birthday      The Transforming God Tyron Inbody,1997-01-01 This book offers a bold new approach to the theological interpretation of human suffering Beginning with a description of suffering and evil as religious problems Inbody moves to a critique of the all loving and omnipotent deity in classical theism concluding with a radical interpretation of the Christian God as a vulnerable transforming God      Queer Christianities Kathleen T. Talvacchia,2015 Queerness and Christianity often depicted as mutually exclusive both challenge received notions of the good and the natural Nowhere is this challenge more visible than in the identities faiths and communities that queer Christians have long been creating As Christians they have staked a claim for a Christianity that is true to their self understandings How do queer identified persons understand their religious lives And in what ways do the lived experiences of queer Christians respond to traditions and reshape them in contemporary practice Queer Christianities integrates the perspectives of queer theory religious studies and Christian theology into a lively conversation both transgressive and traditional about the fundamental questions surrounding the lives of queer Christians The volume contributes to the emerging scholarly discussion on queer religious experiences as lived both within communities of Christian confession as well as outside of these established communities Organized around traditional Christian states of life celibacy matrimony and what is here provocatively conceptualized as promiscuity this work reflects the ways in which queer Christians continually reconstruct and multiply the forms these states of life take Queer Christianities challenges received ideas about sexuality and religion yet remains true to Christian self understandings that are open to further enquiry and to further queerness      The Chicago School of Theology: The early Chicago school, 1906-1959 Creighton Peden,Jerome Arthur Stone,1996 In these volumes lengthy selections are presented by each contributor in the Chicago School The material is presented so that an individual or class may explore the development of this School as well as the changing issues facing philosophy and religious thought in the 20th century      Dictionary Of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook,2005-05-15 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought      The Chicago School of Theology: The later Chicago school, 1919-1988 Creighton Peden,Jerome Arthur Stone,1996 In these volumes lengthy selections are presented by each contributor in the Chicago School The material is presented so that an individual or class may explore the development of this School as well as the changing issues facing philosophy and religious thought in the 20th century
