Caveat Emptor, Let the Buyer Beware Joseph Bono Ph. D. P. C.,. Joseph Bono,2006-08 settling of British America was a unique event in modern history For the first time an entire continent was available to those from many cultures and religions who wished for new opportunities free from the feudal remnants and rigid class distinctions of Europe that still existed in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Enlightenment ideas and new challenges combined to create documents of government that allowed a degree of freedom and social mobility that led to a proto democratic society despite the differences between the thirteen colonies A group of radical politicians and writers Samuel Adams Patrick Henry Thomas Paine Richard Henry Lee George Mason and young Thomas Jefferson by the mid 1700 s increasingly spoke out against the actions of the London Government and the king The British attempted to reassert control of the semi independent and proud colonial governments and then send troops to enforce a series of arbitrary taxes decided by Parliament without input from the colonists This book weaves into the story the events of the pre revolutionary period the lives of six radicals and after the war the conflicts in writing new state and federal constitutions Our radicals persuaded most ordinary citizens that despite their long held loyalty and pride of being part of the British Empire independence whether peacefully or requiring force was necessary to maintain their prosperity and freedom However after the Revolution a new generation of leaders was required Our radicals remained supporters of their states and the Articles of Confederation and were hostile to giving many powers including taxation to a strong central government under the 1787 Constitution Only Jefferson born a generation later would contribute to the new nation despite early reservations while in France The reputations of the others have been diminished by their resistance to forming the government we live under

Evidence-Based Counseling and Psychotherapy for an Aging Population Morley D. Glick, 2009-08-01 At a time when the mental health difficulties disorders of the elderly are coming to the fore of many practitioners patient rosters naming and treating those problems is still too often handled as an art as much as a science Inconsistent practices based on clinical experience and intuition rather than hard scientific evidence of efficacy have for too long been the basis of much treatment Evidence based practices help to alleviate some of the confusion allowing the practitioner to develop quality practice guidelines that can be applied to the client identify appropriate literature that can be shared with the client communicate with other professionals from a knowledge guided frame of reference and continue a process of self learning that results in the best possible treatment for clients The proposed volume will provide practitioners with a state of the art compilation of evidence based practices in the assessment and treatment of elderly clients As such it will be more clinically useful than anything currently on the market and will better enable practitioners to meet the demands faced in private and institutional practice Focusing on the most current research and best evidence regarding assessment diagnosis and treatment the volume covers difficulties including but not limited to social isolation loneliness elder abuse neglect depression and suicidal inclinations anxiety disorders substance abuse dementias prolonged bereavement patients with terminal illnesses Because concrete research evidence is so often not used as the basis for practice this book provides a timely guide for clinicians social workers and advanced students to a research oriented approach to serving the mental health needs of elderly adults Fully covers assessment diagnosis treatment of the elderly focusing on evidence based practices Consolidates broadly distributed literature into single source and specifically relates evidence based tools to practical treatment saving clinicians time in obtaining and translating information and improving the level of care they can provide Detailed how to explanation of practical evidence based treatment techniques Gives reader firm grasp of how to more effectively treat patients Chapters directly address the range of conditions and disorders most common for this patient population i e social isolation elder abuse neglect depression anxiety disorders terminal illnesses disabilities bereavement substance abuse and dementias Prepares readers for the conditions they will encounter in real world treatment of an elderly patient population Cites numerous case studies and provides integrative questions at the end of each chapter Exposes reader to real world application of each treatment discussed Offers reader easy base for further study of subject saving clinicians time
