Consuming Passions Eating And Drinking Traditions In Ontario:

Oxford Symposium on Food and Cookery 1991 Harlan Walker,1992 Feasting and Fasting Dorothy

Duncan,2010-10-25 Feasting and Fasting is an introduction to the foods and beverages that were a central part of how our ancestors celebrated important events Long before the arrival of newcomers the First Nations were celebrating the passages of life the changing seasons and the gifts of the Great Spirit with feasting As settlers from around the world arrived on Canadas shores they brought with them the memories and traditions from home Diverse and unique culinary histories began to develop as the newcomers were unable to find some of their traditional ingredients and were forced to compromise Wild game fruit plants grains vegetables and maple sugar were often transformed from survival foods to the foods of celebration Food brought families and communities together to pay tribute to honour to celebrate to mourn and to be comforted This is a sampling of their events and what was on their tables at births weddings funerals religious holidays garden parties and more

"The Works of Our Hands" Sharon Anne Jaeger,Heritage Mount Pleasant (Association),2004 Early Canadian

Gardening Eileen Woodhead,1998-08-31 Reproducing a rare 1827 plant and seed catalogue possibly the earliest extant catalogue of its kind in Canada Early Canadian Gardening presents an extensive range of garden plants trees shrubs fruits and flowers that were grown for food medicines and dyestuffs as well as ornamental purposes Eileen Woodhead provides a detailed description and brief history of the cultivation and use of each plant up to the present day Most of the descriptions are accompanied by detailed drawings by the author who found and grew many of the original varieties in the catalogue The book provides a valuable account of the business of horticulture in the first decades of the nineteenth century the practices of importers merchants farms and households placing it within the broader context of social history It includes an appendix of historic sites and botanical gardens in Ontario as well as sources for heritage seeds Early Canadian Gardening is a ground breaking account of the practice and significance of horticulture during the period of settlement in Upper Canada and stands as a remarkable work of historical botany It will be an invaluable source document for horticulturists and botanists historians and garden enthusiasts with an interest in heritage plants Drink in Canada Cheryl Lynn Krasnick Warsh,1993 The Elixir of Life or the Demon Rum Liquor has been an integral aspect of Canadian culture since European contact The contributing authors of this collection describe drinking habits temperance movements and the prohibition experience in Canada from the 1830s to the 1980s Make the Night Hideous Pauline Greenhill,2010-11-06 The charivari is a loud late night surprise house visiting custom from members of a community usually to a newlywed couple accompanied by a request for a treat or money in exchange for the noisy performance and or pranks Up to the first decades of the twentieth century charivaris were for the most part enacted to express disapproval of the relationship that was their focus such as those between individuals of different ages races or religions While later charivaris maintained the same rituals their meaning changed to a welcoming of the marriage Make the Night Hideous explores this mysterious transformation using four detailed case studies from different time periods and locations across English Canada as well as first person accounts of more recent charivari participants Pauline Greenhill's unique and fascinating work explores the malleability of a tradition its continuing value and its contestation in a variety of discourses

Canadians at Table Dorothy Duncan, 2011-09-15 Here is one of the most unique and fascinating food histories in the world exploring the diverse culinary history of Canada Winner of the 2007 Canadian Culinary Book Award for Canadian Food Culture In Canadians at Table we learn about lessons of survival from the First Nations the foods that fuelled fur traders and the adaptability of early settlers to their new environment As communities developed and transportation improved waves of newcomers arrived bringing memories of foods beverages and traditions they had known which were almost impossible to implement in their new homeland They discovered instead how to use native plants for many of their needs Community events and institutions developed to serve religious social and economic needs from agricultural and temperance societies to Womens Institutes from markets and fairs to community meals and celebrations

In Mixed Company Julia Roberts, 2009-07-01 In Mixed Company explores taverns as colonial public space and how men and women of diverse backgrounds Native and newcomer privileged and labouring white and non white negotiated a place for themselves within them The stories that emerge unsettle comfortable certainties about who belonged where in colonial society Colonial taverns were places where labourers enjoyed libations with wealthy Aboriginal traders like Captain Thomas who also treated a Scotsman to a small bowl of punch where white soldiers rubbed shoulders with black colonists out to celebrate Emancipation Day where English ladies and their small children sought refuge for a night The records of the past tell stories of time spent in mixed company but also of the myriad unequal ways that colonists found room in taverns and a place in Upper Canadian culture and society Reconstructed from tavern keepers accounts court records diaries travelogues and letters In Mixed Company is essential reading for tavern aficionados and anyone interested in the history of gender race and culture in Canadian or colonial society

Hearth and Home Fiona Lucas, 2006-06-26 Explore the rich history of women's work and the art of cooking over an open hearth in historic Canadian kitchens Today the fireplace with its crackling logs is a romantic icon representing the heart of the home but not so long ago its role was much more than symbolic A hearth or fireplace was an essential first fixture in Canadian homes and its warmth sustained the family in many ways Whether in a longhouse a fishing shack a log cabin a manor home or on a thriving farm the kitchen was the main workplace of Canadian women within family centred households for generations Its central feature is the focal point of Hearth and Home a social history that evokes the sights smells and tastes of historic kitchens This book tells the story of the women who worked back breaking hours tending the fire and using its energy with skill and resourceful creativity to nourish their families or feed a hungry fort Fiona Lucas culinary historian and practiced hearth cook synthesizes the shared experience of the family cook across decades and cultures along the way introducing readers to fascinating dishes such as the hedgehog pudding and tools such as the salamander and the spider The text is illustrated with photographs from historic sites including Black Creek Pioneer Village Louisbourg Kings Landing Upper Canada Village and many others This is a book that will appeal to readers of Canadian history and to anyone who has puzzled over the now unusual kitchen tools once common in 19th century homes Ontario History ,1996 Vols 29 include the society s Report 1931 32 except 1938 39 1939 40 which were issued separately Brew North Ian,2012-03-23 Brew North tells the delightful story of Canada s national beverage Lively and informative Brew North puts beer lovers front and centre From cowboys quaffing India pale ale in a western saloon to modern day beer snobs sipping pints of cask brewed bitter and commenting on its chocolate and cigar box bass notes this is the story of the men and women who brewed served and drank the intoxicating malted beverage Charming illustrations reveal rustic taverns Victorian photographs give us that era s opulent saloons and modern colour shots help us understand the brewing process The book also illustrates how brewers have long been conscious of marketing and advertising creating unique bottles and ads giveaway trays and signs Encyclopedia of Food and Culture: Acceptance to Food politics Solomon H. Katz,2003 This volume arranged alphabetically from Acceptance to Food politics contains articles on food and its place in human culture and society Directory of Associations in Canada ,1997 Canadiana ,1991 The Rituals of Dinner Margaret Visser,2017-02-02 This is the book on the way we eat Solidifying her standing as a preeminent observer and scholar of everyday life Margaret Visser takes on the sweeping history of table manners from the civilizations of ancient Greece and medieval Europe to the way that technology has altered and continues to alter our behaviour over dinner She writes of everything from cultural idiosyncrasies around preparation and consumption to the surprising origins of tableware forks took eight centuries to become common utensils the plate began as a four day old slice of bread Blending folklore history and humour this is a feast of fact and observation on one of our most primal rituals the meal Being Neighbours Catharine Anne Wilson,2022-10-28 Throughout history farm families have shared work and equipment with their neighbours to complete labour intensive time sensitive and time consuming tasks They benefitted materially and socially from these voluntary flexible loosely structured networks of reciprocal assistance making neighbourliness a vital but overlooked aspect of agricultural change Being Neighbours takes us into the heart of neighbourhood the set of people near and surrounding the family through an examination of work bees in southern Ontario from 1830 to 1960 The bee was a special event where people gathered to work on a neighbour s farm like bees in a hive for a wide variety of purposes including barn raising logging threshing quilting turkey plucking and apple paring Drawing on the diaries of over one hundred men and women Catharine Wilson takes readers into families daily lives the intricacies of their labour exchange and their workways feasts and hospitality Through the prism of the bee and a close reading of the diaries she uncovers the subtle social politics of mutual dependency the expectations neighbours had of each other and their ways of managing conflict and crisis This book adds to the literature on cooperative work that focuses on evaluating its economic efficiency and complicates histories of capitalism that place communal values at odds with market orientation Beautifully written engaging and richly detailed and illustrated Being Neighbours reveals the visceral textures of rural life Mrs. King Charlotte Gray,1997 Mrs King is the superbly told story of a woman lost in the shadows of Canadian history Daughter of William Lyon Mackenzie and mother of Canada s longest serving prime minister Isabel Mackenzie King was intimately involved in the changing political and social landscape of Canada Yet we have known very little about her In this meticulously researched and beautifully crafted biography award winning writer Charlotte Gray pulls Isabel Grace Mackenzie King into the light while painting a highly absorbing portrait of our Canadian past Publisher Edible Histories, Cultural Politics Franca Iacovetta,Valerie J. Korinek,Marlene Epp,2012-11-07 Just as the Canada s rich past resists any singular narrative there is no such thing as a singular Canadian food tradition This new book explores Canada s diverse food cultures and the varied relationships that Canadians have had historically with food practices in the context of community region nation and beyond Based on findings from menus cookbooks government documents advertisements media sources oral histories memoirs and archival collections Edible Histories offers a veritable feast of original research on Canada s food history and its relationship to culture and politics This exciting collection explores a wide variety of topics including urban restaurant culture ethnic cuisines and the controversial history of margarine in Canada It also covers a broad time span from early contact between European settlers and First Nations through the end of the twentieth century Edible Histories intertwines information of Canada s foodways the practices and traditions associated with food and food preparation and stories of immigration politics gender economics science medicine and religion Sophisticated culturally sensitive and accessible Edible Histories will appeal to students historians and foodies alike A Selected Bibliography for Garden History in Canada Edwinna Von Baeyer,Parks Canada,Parks Canada.
