The Handbook of Contemporary Indigenous Architecture Elizabeth Grant, Kelly Greenop, Albert L. Refiti, Daniel J. Glenn, 2018-06-26 This Handbook provides the first comprehensive international overview of significant contemporary Indigenous architecture practice and discourse showcasing established and emerging Indigenous authors and practitioners from Australia Aotearoa New Zealand the Pacific Islands Canada USA and other countries It captures the breadth and depth of contemporary work in the field establishes the historical and present context of the work and highlights important future directions for research and practice The topics covered include Indigenous placemaking identity cultural regeneration and Indigenous knowledges The book brings together eminent and emerging scholars and practitioners to discuss and compare major projects and design approaches to reflect on the main issues and debates while enhancing theoretical understandings of contemporary Indigenous architecture The book is an indispensable resource for scholars students policy makers and other professionals seeking to understand the ways in which Indigenous people have a built tradition or aspire to translate their cultures into the built environment It is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in the field of the built environment who need up to date knowledge of current practices and discourse on Indigenous peoples and their architecture Competing for Excellence in Architecture Jean-Pierre Chupin, 2017-10-01 A travel guide for those in search of architectural quality this book can be browsed in many ways Written in a clear and concise manner by about thirty authors it features a collection of editorials from the Canadian Competitions Catalogue CCC a large online digital archive open to the public since 2006 The editorials explore more than sixty Canadian architecture competitions held in the last seventy years Especially in recent years both public and private institutions have organized competitions across Canada producing hundreds of architectural urban planning and landscape design projects Together these proposals most of which remain unbuilt constitute a fantastic treasure in our tangible and intangible common heritage Given that competition organizers designers juries and critics never operate alone there is no doubt whatsoever that this book results from the collaboration of a myriad of people contributing to and competing for excellence in architecture Includes 497 illustrations and analytical tables

The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students

Public Art in Canada Annie G rin, James S. McLean, 2011-03-18 Arguably public art is experienced daily by more people than most offerings in galleries yet our notion of what constitutes public art is surprisingly limited Public Art in Canada broadens the critical discussion by exploring public art's varied means of engaging with public space and the public sphere Annie G rin and James S McLean have assembled contributions from new and established Canadian scholars curators and artists Each contributor enlivens our understanding of public art as a practice and its place in the social and aesthetic formation of which it is a part As a result the book provides an overview of the current debates in the field of public art that are informed by the theories and critical literature of art history communication studies cultural studies sociology and urban studies The rigorous essays and original works of art collected in this volume present a compelling demonstration of the strategies aesthetic and otherwise used by artists to elicit intellectual sensual or emotional responses that can only be obtained through artistic practices in public places Public Art in Canada is a major contribution to the study of Canadian art and culture

Art Information and the Internet Lois Swan Jones, 2013-12-16 In the first book of its kind art information expert Lois Swan Jones discusses how to locate visual and textual information on the Internet and how to evaluate and supplement that information with material from other formats print sources CD ROMS documentary videos and microfiche sets to produce excellent research results The book is divided into three sections Basic Information Formats Types of Websites and How to Find Them and How to Use Web Information Jones discusses the strengths and limitations of Websites scholarly and basic information resources are noted and search strategies for finding pertinent Websites are included Art Information and the Internet also discusses research methodology for studying art historical styles artists working in various media individual works of art and non Western cultures as well as art education

Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996. This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history. It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities. These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory. Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available. The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject. And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced. Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages. Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation. The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works. Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers.

Concourir à l'excellence Jean-Pierre Chupin, 2016-12-12. Fruit d'efforts collectifs ce livre se parcourt de multiples façons tel un guide de voyage dans la recherche de la qualité architecturale. Les textes rédigés par une trentaine d'auteurs renvoient aux ressources du Catalogue des Concours Canadiens CCC grande archive numérique ouverte en ligne au public depuis 2006. Ces dictionnaires proposent une sélection d'une soixantaine de concours couvrant les 70 dernières années de l'histoire canadienne avec un accent particulier sur la période contemporaine. L'ouvrage est collectif puisque ces concours organisés par de nombreuses institutions publiques et privées ont donné lieu la conception de plusieurs centaines de projets d'architecture d'urbanisme et de paysage d'un océan à l'autre. Realisés ou réalisés tous ces projets contribuent potentiellement la constitution d'un patrimoine matériel et immatériel commun. Sachant que les organisateurs concepteurs jurés ou critiques de nos environnements n'opèrent jamais dans la solitude on peut dire sans exagération que cet ouvrage est le fruit de la collaboration d'une myriade de personnes.
