Chicano Timespace Miguel R. López, 2001 The premature death of Ricardo Sánchez in 1995 marked the passing of an almost legendary figure in Chicano literature and in the Chicano political movement A troubadour of Chicano Movement poetry he established an anti aesthetic that became the norm Sánchez's autobiographical poetry forges a link between genres of the past and present and establishes him as the first great tragic figure of contemporary Chicano literature In a body of work that spanned spatial temporal and cultural boundaries Sánchez dealt with issues of power and of linguistic and cultural barriers between Anglo Native American and Mexican American peoples in the United States While he lived critics showed reluctance to engage Sánchez's work fully perhaps in part because of his reputation as a confrontational even outrageous individual Focusing on Canto y grito mi liberación and Hechizospells Miguel R. López examines Sánchez's work and places him in the context of the past present and future of Chicano literature López explains clearly the relation of time and space in Sánchez's prolific work and shows him as a writer committed to his craft as well as to his political stance In the end the portrait that emerges is of a poet whose work was linguistically and thematically complex and one who was more passionate controversial and forthright in his expression than any other contemporary Chicano writer Chicana Feminisms Patricia Zavella, Gabriela F. Arredondo, Aida Hurtado, Norma Klahn, Olga Najera-Ramirez, 2003-07-09 Chicana Feminisms presents new essays on Chicana feminist thought by scholars creative writers and artists This volume moves the field of Chicana feminist theory forward by examining feminist creative expression the politics of representation and the realities of Chicana life Drawing on anthropology folklore history literature and psychology the distinguished contributors combine scholarly analysis personal observations interviews letters visual art and poetry The collection is structured as a series of dynamic dialogues each of the main pieces is followed by an essay responding to or elaborating on its claims The broad range of perspectives included here highlights the diversity of Chicana experience particularly the ways it is made more complex by differences in class age sexual orientation language and region Together the essayists enact the contentious passionate conversations that define Chicana feminisms The contributors contemplate a number of facets of Chicana experience life on the Mexico U S border bilingualism the problems posed by a culture of repressive sexuality the ranchera song and domesticana artistic

Notable Hispanic American Women Diane Telgen,1993 Contains short biographies of three hundred Hispanic American women who have achieved national or international prominence in a variety of fields Historia Louis Gerard Mendoza,2001 The nature of ethnic identity has been a major issue in the Mexican American community for decades now Historia The Literary Making of Chicana and Chicano History makes a superb contribution to the multidisciplinary exploration of ways Mexican Americans have chosen to present their past through both factual and fictional narratives Whereas history has offered frameworks for interpreting generational changes in the understanding of identity literature has been particularly rich in exploring themes of power and domination and of intragroup complexities Louis Gerard Mendoza argues in this innovative look at historical and imaginative literatures and their role in the formation of ethnic identity Focusing on late twentieth century literature and history by American writers of Mexican descent Mendoza examines how style purpose and context function to facilitate or constrain the understanding of the past By juxtaposing the literary and the historical he provides new insight on culture agency and experience Mendoza accepts as his starting point the generational model posited by historian Mario Garc a then contrasts for each generation the nuances and contradictions offered by one or more Chicana o creative writers Other historians whose works are centrally considered include Juan Gomez Qui ones Rodolfo Alvarez Ricardo Romo David Montejano and Carlos Mu oz while the literary writers featured include Jovita Gonz lez Alejandro Morales Sara Estela Ram rez Teresa Paloma Acosta Oscar Zeta Acosta and Am rico Paredes Mendoza argues that history is the narrative battleground upon which literature is based the writing and rewriting of Chicano history thus becomes an important subtext of Chicana o literature However he contends that most Chicana o historical narratives are integrated uncritically into literary analysis to establish background resulting in the invocation of the histories as representations of the real Libraries Borderlands scholars and those interested in the broad issues of cultural studies will want to own Mendoza's innovative book which instead of insisting on the strict separation of the two genres of history and literature seeks ways to integrate them through the new critical analysis
