Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997      Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09      Jizi and His Art in Contemporary China David Adam Brubaker, Chunchen Wang, 2015-02-12 This interdisciplinary study promotes the thesis that some contemporary Chinese ink artists succeed in using principles of traditional Chinese aesthetics to convey the union of self with nature others and the universe The investigation is a case study of the writings and paintings of Jizi an ink wash artist in Beijing who combines images of icy mountains Tibetan landscapes cosmic vistas and enclosures of personal existence Jizi's success in expressing the unification of these dimensions is confirmed by developing and applying an interpretation of Jing Hao's classic description of the authentic image which resonates with the vitality of nature To find words for resonance with visible nature the inquiry extends to such writers as Li Zehou Arthur Danto and Maurice Merleau Ponty In short an account of authenticity in Chinese ink painting is offered experimentally as a means for assessing whether contemporary Chinese artworks are expressive of Chinese philosophy and culture The text includes stylistic comparisons with artists such as E C Escher Guo Xi Jia Youfu Liu Guosong Rene Magritte Piet Mondrian and Xu Bing The result is an appreciation of the healing influence of Chinese ink art in a global culture that is vibrant complex diverse and affirming of the present In this rigorous far reaching and original analysis of contemporary ink art painting Brubaker and Wang focus our attention on the work of one independent painter Jizi whose work exemplifies an uncanny marriage between ink art and contemporary concerns In the central chapters Brubaker persuasively argues that in this work Jizi captures principles essential to traditional Chinese aesthetics articulated in terms of wholeness emptiness and visibility that enable the works to express the unification of the self with nature and the universe as a whole It does this through forms that are innovative and part of artistic practices and discourses that are becoming increasingly global Mary Wiseman The City University of New York This important publication focuses on the evocative ink wash paintings of an artist who has over the course of decades demonstrated an unwavering commitment to exploring the technical formal philosophical and experiential dimensions of his chosen medium The essays commentaries and critical reflections collected in this volume present unique perspectives on Jizi's practice significantly contributing to the growing body of scholarship on the continuing vitality of the ink wash tradition in the global contemporary Dr Wenny Teo The Courtauld Institute of Art Through an in depth study of the ink painting practice of contemporary Chinese artist Jizi the authors discover Chinese ink painting's philosophical perspectives cosmic foundations and contemporary possibilities They also uncovered a way to enter into the artist's rich and profound spiritual world through Jizi's expansive visual patterning and refined spiritual imagery he activates a long and great cultural tradition Yu Yang Central Academy of Fine Arts      Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1999-04      Liddell Hart Brian Bond, 1991      An Indian Tantric Tradition and Its Modern Global Revival D.E. Osto, 2020-03-06 This book analyzes the contemporary global revival of Nondual aivism a thousand year old medieval Hindu religious philosophy Providing a historical overview of the seminal people and groups responsible for the revival the book compares the tradition s medieval Indian origins to modern forms which are situated within distinctively contemporary religious economic and technological contexts The author bridges the current gap in the literature between insider emic and outsider etic perspectives by examining modern Nondual aivism from multiple standpoints as both a critical scholar of religion and an empathetic participant observer The book explores modern Nondual aivism in relation to recent scholarly debates concerning the legitimacy of New Age consumptive spirituality the global spiritual marketplace and the contemporary culture of narcissism It also analyzes the dark side of the revived tradition and investigates contemporary teachers accused of sexual abuse and illegal financial activities in relation to unique features of Nondual aivism s theosophy and modern scholarship on new religious movements NRMs and cults This book shows that although Kashmir aivism has been adopted by certain teachers and groups to market their own brand of High Tantra some contemporary practitioners have remained true to the system s fundamental tenets and teach authentic albeit modern forms of Nondual aivism This book will be of interest to academics in the fields of religion and Asian philosophies especially South Asian tantric neo tantric and yoga philosophies alternative and New Age spiritualities religion and consumerism and NRMs and cults Winner of the inaugural 2021 New Zealand Asia Society Book Award second prize      Revival: Contemporary Indian Philosophy (1936) S. Radhakrishnan, J. H. Muirhead, 2018-12-20 The book includes essay which are all written by philosophers of or about forty five years of age They fall into two main groups those in which the writer devotes himself chiefly to the exposition of the great Vedic tradition as he has apprehended it and made it the basis of his own life s work and those in which the writer while on the whole remining true to the spirit of that tradition has sought to give new interpretations of it either by instituting comparisons of it with the Western doctrines most closely allied to it or by treating of modern problems in a way which though suggested by what he has learned from the West is yet stamped with the mark of his own racial sympathy Western readers will naturally find the latter group more attractive but this volume will have failed of its purpose if it does not give them some sense of the truth that underlies even the essays with which owing to the presuppositions ion which these are founded they find themselves least in sympathy      Puritanism and the English Revolution William Montgomerie Lamont, 1991      Marxism and Ideology Jorge Larraín, 1991      Whitaker's Books in Print , 1998      Marxist Aesthetics (Routledge Revivals) Pauline Johnson, 2013-05-13 Originally published in 1984 this study deals with a number of influential figures in the European tradition of Marxist theories of aesthetics ranging from Lukacs to Benjamin through the Frankfurt School to Brecht and the Althusserians Pauline Johnson shows that despite the great diversity in these theories about art they all formulate a common problem and she argues that an adequate response to this problem must be based on account of the practical foundations within the recipient s own experience for a changed consciousness      Essays on Logic and Language: Second series Antony Flew, 1993      The Collaborative Bibliography of Women in Philosophy Noël

Hutchings,1997     Economic Analysis in Historical Perspective John Creedy,Denis Patrick O'Brien,1992 This book concentrates on major ideas in economics rather than taking the great men approach to the history of economic thought It approaches the subject from the viewpoint of the modern literature rather than working forwards from the historical material The student should thus be able to more easily relate previous economic writings to the subject matter of an undergraduate course     The Brain of an Army ; The Command of the Sea ; The Brain of the Navy Spenser Wilkinson,1992 In this single volume reissue are three of Spenser Wilkinson s works Wilkinson was concerned with the practical requirements of modern warfare and believed that organizational changes and strategic guidance had to be implemented from above

Li Zehou and Confucian Philosophy Roger T. Ames,Jinhua Jia,2018-07-31 For more than a century scholars both inside and outside of China have undertaken the project of modernizing Confucianism but few have been as successful or influential as Li Zehou b 1930 Since the 1950s Li s extensive efforts in this regard have in turn exerted a profound influence on Chinese modernization and resulted in his becoming one of China s most prominent social critics To transform Confucianism into a contemporary resource for positive change in China and elsewhere Li has reinterpreted major ideas and concepts of classical Confucianism including a rereading of the entire Analects replete with his own philosophical speculations derived from other Chinese and Western traditions most notably the ideas of Kant and Marx and developed an aesthetical theory that has proved especially far reaching Although the authors of this volume hail from East Asia North America and Europe and a wide variety of academic backgrounds and fields of study they are unanimous in their appreciation of Li s contributions to not only an evolving Confucian philosophy but also world philosophy They view Li first and foremost as a sui generis thinker with broad global interests and not one who fits neatly into any one philosophical category Chinese or Western This is clearly reflected in the chapters included here which are organized into three parts Li Zehou and the Modernization of Confucianism Li Zehou s Reconceptation of Confucian Philosophy and Li Zehou s Aesthetical Theory and Confucianism Together they form a coherent narrative that reveals how Li has for more than half a century creatively studied absorbed and reconceptualized the Confucian ideational tradition to integrate it with Western philosophical elements and develop his own philosophical insights and original theories At the same time he has transformed and modernized Confucianism for the purpose of both coalescing with and reconstructing a new world cultural order
