Contemporary Approaches to English Studies Hilda Schiff, 1977      The English Studies Book Rob

Pope, 2005-10-05 The English Studies Book is uniquely designed to support students and teachers working across the full range of language literature and culture. Combining the functions of study guide, critical dictionary and text anthology, it has rapidly established itself as a core text on a wide variety of degree programmes nationally and internationally. Revised and updated throughout, features of the second edition include a new prologue addressing changes and challenges in English Studies, substantial entries on over 100 key critical and theoretical terms from absence and author to text and versification, with new entries on creative writing, travel writing and translation, practical introductions to all the major theoretical approaches, with new sections on aesthetics, ethics, ecology and sexuality, a rich anthology of literary and related texts from Anglo-Saxon to Afro-Caribbean, with fresh selections representing the sonnet, haiku, slave narratives and science fiction, and with additional texts by Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Charles Darwin, Ian McEwan, Margaret Atwood, Amy Tan and others, handy frameworks and checklists for close reading, research, essay writing and other textual activities, including use of the Internet.

Language, Literature and the Learner Ronald Carter, John Mcrae, 2014-09-25 Language Literature and the Learner is an edited volume evolving from three international seminars devoted to the teaching of literature in a second or foreign language. The seminars explicitly addressed the interface between language and literature teaching to investigate the ways in which literature can be used as a resource for language growth at secondary, intermediate and upper intermediate level. This book presents the reader with a practical classroom-based guide to how the teaching of language and literature, until recently seen as two distinct subjects within the English curriculum, can be used as mutually supportive resources within the classroom. Through essays and case studies, it reports on the most recent developments in classroom practice and methodology and suggests ways in which the curriculum could be reshaped to take advantage of this integrated approach. The text will be essential reading for students undertaking PGCE, TESOL, MA, UCLES, CTEFLA, RSA and Teachers Diploma courses worldwide. Students of applied linguistics, those on stylistics courses and undergraduates studying English language will welcome it as accessible supplementary reading.
