Art in Africa A. Omokaro Izevbigie, 1986 Reading the Contemporary Olu Oguibe, Okwui Enwezor, 1999 In the past decade contemporary African art has been featured in major exhibitions in museums galleries international biennials and other forums African cinema has established itself on the stage of world cinema culminating in the Ouagadougou Film Festival While African art and visual culture have become an integral part of the art history and cultural studies curricula in universities worldwide critical readings and interpretations have remained difficult to obtain This pioneering anthology collects twenty key essays in which major critical thinkers scholars and artists explore contemporary African visual culture locating it within current cultural debates and within the context of the continent's history The sections of the book are Theory and Cultural Transaction History Location and Practice and Negotiated Identities Copublished with the Institute of International Visual Arts inIVA London Africa Art Market Report 2014 Africa Art Market Today, 2016-01-23 The report aims at identifying and analyzing 100 modern and contemporary African artists who can be considered as top investments both from a historical point of view and from a pure market perspective For each artist covered our research describes qualitative and quantitative factors that help to understand how and why to collect modern contemporary art from Africa With the insights of key art players alike Jean Hubert Martin curator Sindika Dokolo collector Prince Yemisi Shyllon collector Bisi Silva curator Robert Devereux collector Giles Peppiatt director Bonhams Alistair Hicks Deutsche Bank senior art advisor Christopher Spring curator British Museum Africa in Contemporary Perspective Manuh, Takiyiaa, Sutherland-Addy, Esi, 2014-05-08 An important feature of Ghanaian tertiary education is the foundational African Studies Programme which was initiated in the early 1960s Unfortunately hardly any readers exist which bring together a body of knowledge on the themes issues and debates which inform and animate research and teaching in African Studies particularly on the African continent This becomes even more important when we consider the need for knowledge on Africa that is not Eurocentric or sensationalised but driven from internal understandings of life and prospects in Africa Dominant representations and perceptions of Africa usually depict a continent in crisis Rather than buying into external representations of Africa with its lacks and aspirations for Western modernities we insist that African scholars in particular should be in the forefront of promoting understanding of the pluri lingual overlapping and dense reality of life and developments on the continent to produce relevant and usable knowledge Continuing and renewed interest in Africa's resources including the land mass economy minerals visual arts and performance cultures as well as bio medical knowledge and products by old and new geopolitical players obliges African scholars to transcend disciplinary boundaries and to work with each other to advance knowledge and uses of those resources in the interests of Africa's people A Fiction of Authenticity Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis, 2003 An exhibition and catalog that presents new work by a selection of the most prominent African and African diaspora artists working in Europe and the United States p 1 Art in East Africa Judith von D. Miller, 1975
Contemporary Art from Nigeria in the Global Markets Jonathan Adeyemi, 2022-12-07 This book brings together from four years of study on Nigerian contemporary art's internationalization. The monograph integrates voices of African Nigerian artists and art market players into the growing discourse on the emerging art markets in the global South. It explores the logic of competition and dynamics of power relations in the global markets focusing on the internationalization of contemporary art forms from peripheral regions. The book confirms that the internationalization of contemporary art form from Nigeria is limited due to systematic marginalization in the artistic field which in this case is based on postcolonialism and debilitating socio-economic factors such as outmoded art education, unstructured support system and weak mechanism for local validation and an inefficient political framework for art governance. It will therefore be useful to students and researchers in the sociology of art, art market studies, art history and cultural policy.

African Art Now Osei Bonsu, 2022-10-18. This deluxe hardcover survey featuring profiles of 50 artists on the rise is the definitive guide to contemporary African art. With African artists attracting sizable audience numbers to museums, setting sky-high auction records and appearing in mainstream press, it has become impossible to overlook the cultural significance of contemporary African art today. Author and curator Osei Bonsu's engaging profiles of leading African artists along with gorgeous full-color reproductions of their work introduce readers to a generation of movers and shakers whose innovative artwork reflects on Africa as both an idea and an experience. Using diverse forms, languages and expressions to articulate what it means to be a part of the world, these artists generate alternate histories and imaginative futures, work that is both personal and political, universal and incredibly specific. Their work helps define contemporary African art as a vast artistic and cultural movement.

STELLAR ROSTER OF ARTISTS Amoako Boafo, Njideka Akunyili Crosby, Tunji Adeniyi Jones, Bronwyn Katz, from household names to up-and-coming artists. African Art Now features some of the most exciting artists working today. IMPORTANT AND TIMELY Over the past two decades, contemporary African art has become part of the global mainstream, inspiring countless exhibitions, fairs and auctions around the world. And yet African art remains overlooked as an area of dedicated study due to continued academic and cultural bias. This book shines a spotlight on the artists whose wide-ranging accomplishments represent the shifting dynamics and boundless possibilities of African art today. Perfect for artists, art collectors, art lovers and museumgoers, educators and students. Anyone interested in learning about contemporary African art.
