Reading Cy Twombly Mary Jacobus, 2016-08-16 Cover Title Copyright Contents PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS INTRODUCTION TWOMBLY S BOOKS 1 MEDITERRANEAN PASSAGES RETROSPECT 2 PSYCHOGRAM AND PARNASSUS HOW NOT TO READ A TWOMBLY 3 TWOMBLY S VAGUENESS THE POETICS OF ABSTRACTION 4 ACHILLES HORSES TWOMBLY S WAR 5 ROMANTIC TWOMBLY 6 THE PASTORAL STAIN 7 PSYCHE THE DOUBLE DOOR 8 TWOMBLY S LAPSE POSTSCRIPT WRITING IN LIGHT NOTES BIBLIOGRAPHY INDEX A Theory of the Tache in Nineteenth-Century Painting ?stein Sj?ad, 2017-07-05 Without question the tache blot patch stain is a central and recurring motif in nineteenth century modernist painting Manet s and the Impressionists rejection of academic finish produced a surface where the strokes of paint were presented directly as patches or blots then indirectly as legible signs C nne Seurat and Signac painted exclusively with patches or dots Through a series of close readings this book looks at the tache as one of the most important features in nineteenth century modernism The tache is a potential meeting point between text and image and a pure trace of the artist s body Even though each manifestation of tacheism generates its own specific cultural effects this book represents the first time a scholar has looked at tacheism as a hidden continuum within modern art With a methodological framework drawn from the semiotics of text and image the author introduces a much needed fine tuning to the classic terms index symbol and icon The concept of the tache as a crossing of sign types enables finer distinctions and observations than have been available thus far within the Peircean tradition The sign crossing theory opens onto the whole terrain of interaction between visual art art criticism literature philosophy and psychology The Orthodox Icon and Postmodern Art C.A. Tsakiridou, 2024-08-29 This study examines the theories of postmodern visuality and representation and identifies concepts that resonate with Orthodox theology and iconography C A Tsakiridou frees the Orthodox icon from iconological precepts that limit its aesthetic and expressive range The book s key argument is that poststructuralist thought is not alien to Orthodox theology and iconography Dissonance liminality and ambiguity are essential for conveying the paradoxes of Christian faith and recognizing the hagiopneumatic vitality and openness of the Orthodox tradition Perichoresis or coinherence a concept in patristic theology that defines the relationship between the three persons of the Holy Trinity and the two natures of Christ acquires a feminine dimension in the person of the Theotokos Like the ascetical concept of nepsis it has aesthetic implications Intermedial qualities present in iconography photography and cinema help explain how icons become hosts to transcendent realities and how their experience in Orthodox liturgy and devotion has anticipated and resolved the postmodern disorientation of visuality and representation The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history postmodernism philosophy theology religion and gender studies Richard Shiff: Writing After Art Richard Shiff, 2023-05-16 A broad and deep anthology of critic and art historian Richard Shiff s most influential writings which have shaped our understanding of twentieth and twenty first century art Elegantly designed as intended for broad readership

After Callimachus Stephanie Burt, 2022-05-03 This is a collection of free translations from the ancient Greek poet Callimachus whose surviving work includes the Aitia a narrative elegy the Iambi short poems on occasional themes and the Hecale a small scale epic The poet and critic Stephanie Burt has written contemporary adaptations of what she calls Callimachus's lyric epigrammatic and narrative genius for our times These are not literal translations for students of Greek but instead free translations intended to bring poetry of classical antiquity into modern verse Considered a major poet in Greek and European readings but not yet in English Callimachus is remembered for a few sayings among them mega biblion mega kakon a big or long or great book an epic for example is a great evil or a big bad thing Burt's intention is to make Callimachus miniaturist irony loving anti macho sensibility more accessible to Anglophone readers with the advantage that Callimachus speaks without centuries of great English poets who have already adapted him The Lockert Library of Poetry in Translation embraces a wide geographic and temporal range from Scandinavia to Latin America to the subcontinent of India from the Tang Dynasty to Europe of the modern day It especially emphasizes poets who are established in their native lands and who are being introduced to an English speaking audience

Contemporary Art and Classical Myth Jennie Hirsh, 2017-07-05 Contemporary art is deeply engaged with the subject of classical myth Yet within the literature on contemporary art little has been said about this provocative relationship Composed of fourteen original essays Contemporary Art and Classical Myth addresses this scholarly gap exploring and in large part establishing the multifaceted intersection of contemporary art and classical myth Moving beyond the notion of art as illustration the essays assembled here adopt a range of methodological frameworks from iconography to deconstruction and do so across an impressive range of artists and objects Francis Al's Ghada Amer Wim Delvoye Luciano Fabro Joanna Frueh Felix Gonzales Torres Duane Hanson Yayoi Kusama Roy Lichtenstein Kara Walker and an iconic photograph by Richard Drew subsequently entitled The Falling Man Arranged so as to highlight both thematic and structural affinities these essays manifest various aspects of the link between contemporary art and classical myth while offering novel insights into the artists and myths under consideration Some essays concentrate on single works as they relate to specific myths while others take a broader approach calling on myth as a means of grappling with dominant trends in contemporary art

The Phenomenology of Movement and Rest Satarupa Sinha Roy, 2025-02-10 This book is a phenomenological exploration of wandering and dwelling in the selected works of V S Naipaul W G Sebald and T G Tranströmer three of the most perceptive chroniclers of the last century Human history can be re told as the history of wandering and dwelling Accounts of migrations dispersals pilgrimages travels explorations shelters and settlements all testify to the primal human desire for movement and rest This monograph is the first comprehensive phenomenological account of wandering and dwelling in the works of Naipaul Sebald and Tranströmer Although associated with widely variant literary forms and approaches all the three litterateurs evince a profound persistent and paradigmatic engagement with the experiences of wandering and dwelling in their respective oeuvres It is this common engagement with the existential themes of movement and rest that forms the critical locus of this study

Cy Twombly's Things Kate Nesin, 2014 Cy Twombly 1928-2011 is widely acknowledged as one of the postwar period's most influential American artists yet his sculptures are little known From 1946 onward he made hundreds of rarely exhibited found object assemblages often painted or plastered over with diverse coatings of white Across decades Twombly thus developed a singular strikingly consistent body of work despite the shifting status of sculpture during his lifetime In this revelatory monograph Kate Nesin first establishes then evaluates the artist's long engagement with the historical and contemporary limits of sculpture both as medium and as word While others have described Twombly's three-dimensional works as timeless transcendent and poetic Nesin complicates our sense of their so-called poetry focusing on the prosaic conspicuously material operations of these sculptural things and emphasizing the inherent difficulties as well as possibilities of the language used to characterize them Through close readings of individual works and in-depth analyses of certain guiding concerns such as surface naming gaps and repetitions she illuminates Twombly's remarkable sculptural practice

Productive failure Alpesh Kantilal Patel, 2017-07-21 This title sets out to write new transnational South Asian art histories to make visible histories of artworks that remain marginalised within the discipline of art history However this is done through a deliberate productive failure specifically by not upholding the strictly genealogical approach that is regularly assumed for South Asian art histories For instance one chapter explores the abstract work of Cy Twombly and Natvar Bhavsar The author examines whiteness the invisible ground upon which racialized art histories often pivot as a fraught yet productive site for writing art history This book also provides original commentary on how queer theory can deconstruct and provide new approaches for writing art history Overall this title provides methods for generating art history that acknowledge the complex web of factors within which art history is produced and the different forms of knowledge production we might count as art history

Beyond Pleasure: Freud, Lacan, Barthes , An Architect's Eye Sally Yard, 1985

Constellations of a Contemporary Romanticism Jacques Khalip, Forest Pyle, 2016-07-01 Constellations of a Contemporary Romanticism takes its title and point of departure from Walter Benjamin's concept of the historical constellation which puts both contemporary and romanticism in play as period designations and critical paradigms Featuring fascinating and diverse contributions by an international roster of distinguished scholars working in and out of romanticism from deconstruction to new historicism from queer theory to postcolonial studies from visual culture to biopolitics this volume makes good on a central tenet of Benjamin's conception of history These critics grasp the constellation into which our own era has formed with a definite earlier one Each of these essays approaches romanticism as a decisive and unexpired thought experiment that makes demands on and poses questions for our own time What is the

unlived of a contemporary romanticism What has romanticism's singular untimeliness bequeathed to futurity What is romanticism's contemporary redemption value for painting and politics philosophy and film A Theory of Minimalism Marc Botha, 2019-07-25 The explosion of minimalism into the worlds of visual arts music and literature in the mid to late twentieth century presents one of the most radical and decisive revolutions in aesthetic history Detested by some embraced by others minimalism's influence was immediate pervasive and lasting significantly changing the way we hear music see art and read literature In The Theory of Minimalism Marc Botha offers the first general theory of minimalism equally applicable to literature the visual arts and music He argues that minimalism establishes an aesthetic paradigm for rethinking realism in genuinely radical terms In dialogue with thinkers from both the analytic and continental traditions including Kant Danto Agamben Badiou and Meillassoux Botha develops a constellation of concepts which together encapsulate the transhistorical and transdisciplinary reach of minimalism Illustrated by a range of historical canonical and contemporary minimalist works of different media from the caves of early Christian ascetics to Samuel Beckett's late prose Botha offers a bold and provocative argument which will equip readers with the tools to engage critically with past present and future minimalism and to recognize how in a culture caught between the poles of excess and austerity minimalism still matters Water and Art David Clarke, 2012-01-01 Restless protean fluid evanescent despite being a challenge to represent visually water has gained a striking significance in the art of the twentieth century This may be due to the fact that it allows for a range of metaphorical meanings many of which are particularly appropriate to the modern age Water is not merely a subject of contemporary art but also a material increasingly used in art making giving it a distinct dual presence Water and Art probes the ways in which water has gained an unprecedented prominence in modern Western art and seeks to draw connections to its depiction in earlier art forms David Clarke looks across cultures finding parallels within contemporary Chinese art which draws on a cultural tradition in which water has an essential presence and is used as both a subject and a medium The book features a wealth of images by artists from East and West including Fu Baoshi Shi Tao Wei Zixi Fang Rending Leonardo da Vinci Bernini Turner Gericault Klee Matisse Monet Picasso Mondrian and Kandinsky Fast paced accessible and comprehensive Water and Art will appeal to the specialist and the general reader alike offering fresh perspectives on familiar artists as well as an introduction to others who are less well known
