A New Cultural Economy Gerfried Stocker, Christine Schöpf, 2008 The age of copyright and intellectual property has reached its expiration date a development that already manifested itself in the technical fundamentals of the Internet has reared its head in the actual practices of a young generation of users and is bringing forth a new economy of sharing that clever business people are now taking to the next conceptual lever a new cultural economy With this provocative formulation Ars Electronica 2008 is placing one of the core issues of modern knowledge based society at the focal point of this year s festival program Artists theorists and experienced network nomads elaborate on these phenomena that now characterize our culture of everyday life from angst inducing scenarios of the annulment of intellectual property rights all the way to kicking back and going with the global information flow So then what status can intellectual property still have in an open knowledge based society And who s responsible for protecting intellectual property and establishing practicable rules

Expanding Practices in Audiovisual Narrative Chris Hales, Raivo Kelomees, 2014-10-16 The last twenty or so years have seen a phenomenal expansion in the variety of forms of creative and narrative audiovisual expression The increasing role of relatively recent developments such as the internet mobile telephony and computer gaming which complement the narrative representation of more traditional media seems to have acted as a catalyst to unfreeze the standard types of story form that had been appearing on screens for over a hundred years Storytelling has taken on new forms in the physical format s of the narrative material the place or device where it is experienced and the way it is accessed by the viewer in particular a viewer who might now also be a creator modifier or active participant in the represented audiovisual experience Including texts by leading media scholars Erkki Huhtamo and Ryszard W Kluszczyński this book offers both historical and contemporary analyses of a variety of these expanding practices in audiovisual narrative Chapters discuss mobile and locative and hybrid narrative media the connection between computer gaming and more traditional forms of storytelling and game playing the use of computational algorithms to organise and access narrative content and explain how the traditional documentary film form is being transformed by the potential of the audience to participate in or change the form of a non fictional narrative Historically the work of Luc Courchesne and Rad z in era is analysed as is the media archaeological context of interactivity pushing buttons and group experiences Narrative forms will undoubtedly continue their process of expansion and evolution such that one can never truly represent the state of the art of current practice in audiovisual digital media Nevertheless the articles presented here offer useful source material to inform scholars and practitioners from a variety of related fields about certain historical cultural and theoretical aspects of the evolution of the narrative form in the digital age Prix ars electronica : ... cyberarts ; international compendium
