Czech and Polish Sound Memories of the Second World War Radmila Švaříčková Slabáková, Marcin Filipowicz, Dobrawa Lisak-Gębala, Sławomir Wieczorek, Andrea Hanáčková, 2025-11-03 This book investigates the crucial yet often overlooked role of sound in shaping the memory of the Second World War Through an interdisciplinary and transnational approach this volume addresses a notable gap in memory studies and argues that auditory experiences are central to how war is remembered commemorated and narrated By placing sound at the heart of collective remembrance this book reveals how sonic elements influence public discourse shape collective identities and contribute to the evolving transformation of war memory Bringing together scholars from the Czech Republic and Poland this volume examines how the Second World War has been remembered through sound since the 1990s across three distinct media museum exhibitions prose fiction and sound art including soundwalks and field recordings This innovative framework underscores the importance of exploring how different media evoke and reproduce sound to grasp the complexity and diversity of wartime memory in Central Europe Focusing on Czech and Polish memory cultures the book demonstrates that sound may function in multiple and sometimes contradictory ways as a means of reinforcing national narratives as a tool for critical engagement or as a medium for experimental and marginal perspectives This volume is essential reading for scholars in memory studies sound studies cultural and public history museology literary theory and musicology as well as for museum professionals and anyone interested in how the past resonates literally and metaphorically through sound

The Czech Language in the Digital Age Georg Rehm, Hans Uszkoreit, 2012-07-18 This white paper is part of a series that promotes knowledge about language technology and its potential It addresses educators journalists politicians language communities and others The availability and use of language technology in Europe varies between languages Consequently the actions that are required to further support research and development of language technologies also differ for each language The required actions depend on many factors such as the complexity of a given language and the size of its community META NET a Network of Excellence funded by the European Commission has conducted an analysis of current language resources and technologies This analysis focused on the 23 official European languages as well as other important national and regional languages in Europe The results of this analysis suggest that there are many significant research gaps for each language A more detailed expert analysis and assessment of the current situation will help maximise the impact of additional research and minimize any risks META NET consists of 54 research centres from 33 countries that are working with stakeholders from commercial businesses government agencies industry research organisations software companies technology providers and European universities Together they are creating a common technology vision while developing a strategic research agenda that shows how language technology applications can address any research gaps by 2020

Czech Opera John Tyrrell,1988 Opera is the grandest and most potent cultural expression of the nationalist movement which led to the establishment of the Czechoslovak Republic in 1918 During this period Czech opera developed into a genre of major artistic importance cultivated by composers of the stature of Smetana Dvor k and Jan cek Czech Opera examines opera in its national contexts and is a study not only of operas written in Czech but also of the specific circumstances which shaped them These include the historical and political background to the period the theatres in which Czech plays and operas were first performed and the composers and performers who worked in them The role of the librettists is given particular prominence and is complemented by a detailed chapter on the subject matter of the librettos shedding light on the subject matter of the historical and mythic background of the genre

Between Lipany and White Mountain, 2014-07-17 This book presents a collection of twelve seminal essays by Czech historians on the history of the Czech lands from the fifteenth through seventeenth centuries which originally appeared in Czech publications as articles and book chapters and are translated here for the first time in English The essays address a broad range of topics including politics religion demography everyday life crime and rural and urban society By bringing to English speaking readers the rich history and historical writing of the Czech lands through the lens of Czech historians the book seeks to expand knowledge about the place of these lands in late medieval and early modern Europe and the rich mosaic and shared history of the peoples and cultures of Europe

The History of Texas Music Gary Hartman, 2008 The richly diverse ethnic heritage of the Lone Star State has brought to the Southwest a remarkable array of rhythms instruments and musical styles that have blended here in unique ways and in turn have helped shape the music of the nation and the world Historian Gary Hartman writes knowingly and lovingly of the Lone Star State's musical traditions In the first thorough survey of the vast and complex cultural mosaic that has produced what we know today as Texas music he paints a broad panoramic view offers analysis of the origins of and influences on specific genres profiles key musicians and provides guidance to additional sources for further information A musician himself Hartman draws on both academic and non academic sources to give a more complete understanding of the state's remarkable musical heritage He combines scholarly training in music history and ethnic community studies with his first hand knowledge of how important music is as a cultural medium through which human beings communicate information ideas emotions values and beliefs and bond together as friends families and communities The History of Texas Music incorporates a selection of well chosen photographs of both prominent and less well known artists and describes not only the ethnic origins of much of Texas music but also the cross pollination among various genres Today the music of Texas which includes Native American music gospel blues ragtime swing jazz rhythm and blues conjunto Tejano cajun zydeco western swing honky tonk polkas schottisches rock roll rap hip hop and more reflects the unique cultural dynamics of the Southwest Jacket

Mobilizing for Democracy Donatella della Porta, 2014-03 Mobilizing for Democracy compares two waves of protests for democracy in Central Eastern Europe in 1989 and in the Middle East and North Africa in 2011

The Mystifications of a Nation Vladimír Macura, 2010-11-18 A keen observer of culture Czech writer Vladimír Macura 1945-99 devoted a lifetime to illuminating the myths that defined his nation The Mystifications of a Nation the first book length translation of Macura's work in English offers essays deftly analyzing a variety of cultural phenomena that originate Macura argues in the big bang of the nineteenth century Czech National Revival with its celebration of a uniquely Czech identity In reflections on two centuries of Czech history he ponders the symbolism in daily life Bridges for example once a force of civilization connecting diverse peoples became a sign of destruction in World War I Turning to the Soviet and post Soviet eras Macura probes a range of richly symbolic practices from the naming of the Prague metro system to the mass gymnastic displays of the Communist period to post Velvet Revolution preoccupations with the national anthem In The Potato Bug he muses on one of the stranger moments in the Cold War the claim that the United States was deliberately dropping insects from airplanes to wreak havoc on the crops of Czechoslovakia While attending to the distinctively Czech elements of such phenomena Macura reveals the larger patterns of Soviet brand socialism We were its cocreators he declares and its analysis touches us as a scalpel turned on its own body Writing with erudition irony and wit Macura turns the scalpel on the authoritarian state around him demythologizing its mythology

Vienna and the Fall of the Habsburg Empire Maureen Healy, 2004-05-27 Publisher Description Freedom of Conscience in (Post)Soviet

Space Julie K. deGraffenried, Michael Long, Xenia Dennen, 2025-08-15 Freedom of Conscience in Post Soviet Space a collection of original essays edited by Julie K deGraffenried Michael Long and Xenia Dennen is inspired by the work of Michael Bourdeaux the holdings of the Keston Archive and continuing questions of freedom of conscience Ranging from England to Siberia and moving chronologically from 1917 to the twenty first century this book reveals the unique organization and methodology behind the Keston s collection of materials and the ways those in the West thought about religion and communism during the Cold War including the connection between religious liberty and human rights The essays demonstrate the depth and breadth of current research on religion in communist and postcommunist contexts a much needed corrective to contemporary political uses of religious freedom Bourdeaux s activism and preservation of materials influenced many fields of study as reflected by contributing authors varied disciplines history theology sociology languages and literature A preface by the theologian and former Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams comments on Michael Bourdeaux s life and significance On the Road to Freedom Janko Jesenský, 2023-11-30 Brother you have another pair of boots Jaroslav Ha ek said to me grabbing me by the sleeve How do you know Yesterday you were in army boots and today you ve got civilian ones on I d buy those army boots off you And in this way my high laced boots which I was given by the Austrian Red Cross way back in Beryozovka za Baikalom came into Ha ek s possession It was a silly thing to do Not because I should have known that I wouldn t get a kopeck out of Ha ek in exchange for them at bottom I did know that but as a former soldier I should have thought about reserves Life is a war and in this war sometimes boots become casualties Thus ruefully muses Janko Jesensk Slovak poet and politician in the pages of his On the Road to Freedom This book newly translated into English by Charles S Kraszewski is unique among the memoirs that came out of the First World War as it chronicles not desperate charges or trench warfare but the daily life of Austrian prisoners of war taken into Russian captivity at the very outset of the conflict Of course the reader will find more than one exciting passage in On the Road to Freedom from eyewitness accounts of the Soviet Revolution in Kiev and Saint Petersburg to the heroic and bloody route cut by the Czechoslovak Legions through Red Army forces as the former POWs make their way across Siberia to Vladivostok and the long steamboat journey home where they will aid in establishing the newly independent Republic of Czechoslovakia But the most engaging aspect of On the Road to Freedom and the poems that Jesensk composed during his Russian captivity a generous selection of which are appended to these memoirs is the palpable experience of the daily life of the POW far from home cold and hungry one of the ants who Roil the yard with mess plates in their hands Like hungry beasts for fish soup from the kitchen Besides their value as literary texts Janko Jesensk s wartime writings in verse and prose are a welcome addition to the English library of early twentieth century history They provide a fresh Slovak perspective on the Great War the Russian Revolution the establishment of the Czechoslovak state and the situation of the smaller Central European nations on the chessboard of politics dominated by great powers This book was published with a financial support from SLOLIA Centre for Information on Literature in Bratislava

The Coasts of Bohemia Derek Sayer, 2000-03-19 A cultural history of the Czech people examining the significance of the small central European nation's artistic literary and political developments from its origins through approximately 1960

Why Polly Rhys Ryan Evans, 2023-04-11 Another chilly morning dampness in the air mosquito's buzzing around cold air blowing through a broken window bright sunlight shining into the room aching limbs bruises on top of bruises a wet bed she laid on stained ceiling old wallpaper falling off the walls broken wardrobe broken cupboards dirty smelling pillow old bed sheets that were covered in stains and other nasty stuff cockroaches on the floor Bad drugs smell hung around in the air people shouting outside and inside as always a knock on the door that woke her up again Polly opened her painful eyes with effort She turned over in pain Tried to reach for the water bottle that was on the side cupboard next to the bed she laid on her hand was shaking The water bottle fell over She laid there feeling not too sure what she was feeling A knock on her door she heard The door opened with a creaking noise 4 A large man stood there smiling and nodding his head He wore a pair of dirty shorts and that was that Standing there with his hands on his hips the dirty smile he had on his face It wasn't the first time he had come into Polly's room But it was to be the last time The large man laughed out loud he stood there smoking a cigar he sniffed something that was on his hand and shook his head His eyes were glazed over and he was sweating The smell from him drifted towards Polly she led there on the bed quiet and stared at him He put his finger to his lips and nodded to her Polly stayed quiet as she was supposed to do expected to ordered to and some more try be a good girl this time and I might not be too tough on you pretty Polly eh the large man growled He came into the room and shut the door behind him Polly laid there just staring at him 5 Her hand was under the pillow that was next to her The big man came closer his hand was down the front of the shorts he was wearing he smiled and chuckled to himself we try something different tonight yes you and me all night long little lady he slurred He dropped his shorts down and stood there the big man pointed to his groin area and winked to Polly Polly winked back to him when I say no I mean no Mr she told him The big man came forward aggressively A loud noise from a gun rattled the room Polly watched the big man hold his chest and fall backwards he slumped to the floor for ever She looked at the handgun she was holding in her hand the gun smoked from the end of it Polly put the gun back under the pillow and started to whistle some nursery rhyme Polly carried on whistling her favourite rhyme Nursery rhyme Polly put the kettle on Polly put the kettle on Polly put the kettle on they all fall down
