D.H. Lawrence at Thirroul Joseph Davis,1989 D. H. Lawrence's Australia Dr David Game,2015-08-28 In this first full length account of D H Lawrence s rich engagement with a country he found both fascinating and frustrating Game examines how Australia informed the utopian and regenerative visions that characterize so much of Lawrence s work He sheds new light on Lawrence s attitudes towards Australian Aborigines women and colonialism and revisits key aspects of Lawrence s development as a novelist and thinker D.H. Lawrence's Australia David Game,2016-03-09 The first full length account of D H Lawrence s rich engagement with a country he found both fascinating and frustrating D H Lawrence s Australia focuses on the philosophical anthropological and literary influences that informed the utopian and regenerative visions that characterise so much of Lawrence s work David Game gives particular attention to the four novels and one novella published between 1920 and 1925 what Game calls Lawrence s Australian period shedding new light on Lawrence s attitudes towards Australia in general and more specifically towards Australian Aborigines women and colonialism He revisits key aspects of Lawrence s development as a novelist and thinker including the influence of Darwin and Lawrence s rejection of eugenics Christianity psychoanalysis and science While Game concentrates on the Australian novels such as Kangaroo and The Boy in the Bush he also uncovers the Australian elements in a range of other works including Lawrence s last novel Lady Chatterley s Lover Lawrence lived in Australia for just three months but as Game shows it played a significant role in his quest for a way of life that would enable regeneration of the individual in the face of what Lawrence saw as the moral collapse of modern industrial civilisation after the outbreak of World War I Kangaroo Courts and the Rule of Law Desmond Manderson,2012-07-26 Kangaroo Courts and the Rule of Law The Legacy of Modernism addresses the legacy of contemporary critiques of language for the concept of the rule of law Between those who care about the rule of law and those who are interested in contemporary legal theory there has been a dialogue of the deaf which cannot continue Starting from the position that contemporary critiques of linguistic meaning and legal certainty are too important to be dismissed Desmond Manderson takes up the political and intellectual challenge they pose Can the rule of law be re configured in light of the critical turn of the past several years in legal theory rather than being steadfastly opposed to it Pursuing a reflection upon the relationship between law and the humanities the book stages an encounter between the influential theoretical work of Jacques Derrida and Mikhail Bakhtin and D H Lawrence s strange and misunderstood novel Kangaroo 1923 At a critical juncture in our intellectual history the modernist movement at the end of the first world war and struggling with the same problems we are puzzling over today Lawrence articulated complex ideas about the nature of justice and the nature of literature Using Lawrence to clarify Derrida s writings on law as well as using Derrida and Bakhtin to clarify Lawrence s experience of literature Manderson makes a robust case for law and literature With this framework in mind he outlines a post positivist conception of the rule of law in which justice is imperfectly possible rather than perfectly impossible David

The Road Jack London, 2024-02-02 There is a woman in the state of Nevada to whom I once lied continuously consistently and shamelessly for the matter of a couple of hours I don't want to apologize to her Far be it from me But I do want to explain Unfortunately I do not know her name much less her present address If her eyes should chance upon these lines I hope she will write to me It was in Reno Nevada in the summer of 1892 Also it was fair time and the town was filled with petty crooks and tin horns to say nothing of a vast and hungry horde of hoboes It was the hungry hoboes that made the town a hungry town They battered the back doors of the homes of the citizens until the back doors became unresponsive A hard town for scoffings was what the hoboes called it at that time I know that I missed many a meal in spite of the fact that I could throw my feet with the next one when it came to slamming a gate for a poke out or a set down or hitting for a light piece on the street Why I was so hard put in that town one day that I gave the porter the slip and invaded the private car of some itinerant millionaire The train started as I made the platform and I headed for the aforesaid millionaire with the porter one jump behind and reaching for me It was a dead heat for I reached the millionaire at the same instant that the porter reached me I had no time for formalities Gimme a quarter to eat on I blurted out And as I live that millionaire dipped into his pocket and gave me just precisely a quarter It is my conviction that he was so flabbergasted that he obeyed automatically and it has been a matter of keen regret ever since on my part that I didn't ask him for a dollar I know that I'd have got it I swung off the platform of that private car with the porter manoeuvring to kick me in the face He missed me One is at a terrible disadvantage when trying to swing off the lowest step of a car and not break his neck on the right of way with at the same time an irate Ethiopian on the platform above trying to land him in the face with a number eleven But I got the quarter I got it But to return to the woman to whom I so shamelessly lied It was in the evening of my last day in Reno I had been out to the race track watching the ponies run and had missed my dinner i.e. the midday meal I was hungry and furthermore a committee of public safety had just been organized to rid the town of just such hungry mortals as I Already a lot of my brother hoboes had been gathered in by John Law and I could hear the sunny valleys of California calling to me over the cold crests of the Sierras Two acts remained for me to perform before I shook the dust of Reno from my feet One was to catch the blind baggage on the westbound overland that night The other was first to get something to eat Even youth will hesitate at an all night ride on an empty stomach outside a train that is tearing the atmosphere through the snow sheds tunnels and eternal snows of heaven aspiring mountains But that something to eat was a hard proposition I was turned down at a dozen houses Sometimes I received insulting remarks and was informed of the barred domicile that should be mine if I had my just deserts The worst of it was that such assertions were only too true That was why I was pulling west that night John Law was abroad in the town seeking eagerly for the hungry and homeless for by such was his barred domicile tenanted At other houses the doors were slammed in my face cutting short my politely and humbly couched request for something to eat At one house they did not open the door I stood on the porch and knocked and they looked out at me through the window They even held one sturdy little boy aloft so that he could see over the shoulders of his elders the tramp who wasn't going to get anything to eat at their house Prodigal Village Irving Bacheller, 2024-11-23 The day that Henry Smix met and embraced Gasoline Power and went up Main Street hand in hand with it is not yet forgotten It was a hasty marriage so to speak and the results of it were truly deplorable Their little journey produced an effect on the nerves and the remote future history of Bingville They rushed at a group of citizens who were watching them scattered it hither and thither broke down a section of Mrs Risley's picket fence and ran over a small boy At the end of their brief misalliance Gasoline Power seemed to express its opinion of Mr Smix by hurling him against a telegraph pole and running wild in the park until it cooled its passion in the fountain pool In the language of Hiram Blenkinsop the place was badly smixed up Yet Mr Smix was the object of unmerited criticism He was like many other men in that quiet village slow deliberate harmless and good natured The action of his intellect was not at all like that of a gasoline engine Between the swiftness of the one and the slowness of the other there was a wide zone full of possibilities The engine had accomplished many things while Mr Smix's intellect was getting ready to begin to act In speaking of this adventure Hiram Blenkinsop made a wise remark My married life learnt me one thing said he If you are thinkin of hitchin up a wild horse with a tame one be careful that the tame one is the stoutest or it will do him no good The event had its tragic side and whatever Hiram Blenkinsop and other citizens of questionable taste may have said of it the historian has no intention of treating it lightly Mr Smix and his neighbor's fence could be repaired but not the small boy Robert Emmet Moran six years old the son of the Widow Moran who took in washing He was in the nature of a sacrifice to the new god He became a beloved cripple known as the Shepherd of the Birds and altogether the most cheerful person in the village His world was a little room on the second floor of his mother's cottage overlooking the big flower garden of Judge Crooker his father having been the gardener and coachman of the Judge There were in this room an old pine bureau a four post bedstead an armchair by the window a small round nickel clock that sat on the bureau a rubber tree and a very talkative little old tin soldier of the name of Bloggs who stood erect on a shelf with a gun in his hand and was always looking out of the window The day of the tin soldier's arrival the boy had named him Mr Bloggs and discovered his unusual qualities of mind and heart He was a wise old soldier it would seem for he had some sort of answer for each of the many questions of Bob Moran Indeed as Bob knew he had seen and suffered much having traveled to Europe and back with the Judge's family and been sunk for a year in a frog pond and been dropped in a jug of molasses but through it all had kept his look of inextinguishable courage The Life of D. H.

Death Comes for the Archbishop Willa Cather, 2024-10-24 Death Comes for the Archbishop is the story not of death but of life for Miss Cather's Archbishop Latour died of having lived She is concerned not with any climactic moment in a career but with the whole broad view of the career There is no climax short of the gentle end One summer evening in the year 1848 three Cardinals and a missionary Bishop from America were dining together in the gardens of a villa in the Sabine hills overlooking Rome The villa was famous for the fine view from its terrace The hidden garden in which the four men sat at table lay some twenty feet below the south end of this terrace and was a mere shelf of rock overhanging a steep declivity planted with vineyards A flight of stone steps connected it with the promenade above The table stood in a sanded square among potted orange and oleander trees shaded by spreading ilex oaks that grew out of the rocks overhead Beyond the balustrade was the drop into the air and far below the landscape stretched soft and undulating there was nothing to arrest the eye until it reached Rome itself It was early when the Spanish Cardinal and his guests sat down to dinner The sun was still good for an hour of supreme splendour and across the shining folds of country the low profile of the city barely fretted the skyline indistinct except for the dome of St Peter's bluish grey like the flattened top of a great balloon just a flash of copper light on its soft metallic surface The Cardinal had an eccentric preference for beginning his dinner at this time in the late afternoon when the vehemence of the sun suggested motion The light was full of action and had a peculiar quality of climax of splendid finish It was both intense and soft with a ruddiness as of much multiplied candlelight an aura of red in its flames It bored into the ilex trees illuminating their mahogany trunks and blurring their dark foliage it warmed the bright green of the orange trees and the rose of the oleander blooms to gold sent congested spiral patterns quivering over the damask and plate and crystal The churchmen kept their rectangular clerical caps on their heads to protect them from the sun The three Cardinals wore black cassocks with crimson pipings and crimson buttons the Bishop a long black coat over his violet vest

Overland, 1995 Heart of Darkness Joseph Conrad, 2024-01-25 Heart of Darkness 1899 is a short novel by Joseph Conrad written as a frame narrative about

Charles Marlow's life as an ivory transporter down the Congo River in Central Africa. The river is a mighty big river that you could see on the map resembling an immense snake uncoiled with its head in the sea, its body at rest curving afar over a vast country and its tail lost in the depths of the land. In the course of his travel in central Africa, Marlow becomes obsessed with Mr. Kurtz. The story is a complex exploration of the attitudes people hold on what constitutes a barbarian versus a civilized society and the attitudes on colonialism and racism that were part and parcel of European imperialism. Originally published as a three-part serial story in Blackwood's Magazine, the novella Heart of Darkness has been variously published and translated into many languages. In 1998, the Modern Library ranked Heart of Darkness as the sixty-seventh of the hundred best novels in English of the twentieth century.

Short Summary Aboard the Nellie anchored in the River Thames near Gravesend, England, Charles Marlow tells his fellow sailors about the events that led to his appointment as captain of a river steamboat for an ivory trading company. He describes his passage on ships to the wilderness to the Company's station, which strikes Marlow as a scene of devastation: disorganized machinery parts here and there, periodic demolition explosions, weakened native black men who have been demoralized, in chains, literally being worked to death, and strolling behind them a white Company man in a uniform carrying a rifle. At this station, Marlow meets the Company's chief accountant, who tells him of Mr. Kurtz and explains that Kurtz is a first-class agent.

Inimitable Jeeves P. G. Wodehouse, 2024-11-24 Inimitable Jeeves is a semi-novel collecting Jeeves stories by P. G. Wodehouse. The novel combined 11 previously published stories of which the first six and the last were split in two to make a book of 18 chapters. It is now often printed in 11 chapters, mirroring the original stories. All the stories had previously appeared in The Strand Magazine in the UK between December 1921 and November 1922, except for one Jeeves and the Chump Cyril, which had appeared in the Strand in August 1918. That story had appeared in the Saturday Evening Post US in June 1918. All the other stories appeared in Cosmopolitan in the US between December 1921 and December 1922. This was the second collection of Jeeves stories after My Man Jeeves 1919; the next collection would be Carry On Jeeves in 1925. All of the short stories are connected, and most of them involve Bertie's friend Bingo Little, who is always falling in love.

Wessex Tales Thomas Hardy, 2024-11-24 Wessex Tales is a collection of tales written by English novelist and poet Thomas Hardy, many of which are set before Hardy's birth in 1840. In 1888, Wessex Tales contained only five stories: The Three Strangers, The Withered Arm, Fellow Townsmen, Interlopers at the Knap, and The Distracted Preacher, all published first in periodicals. For the 1896 reprinting, Hardy added An Imaginative Woman, but in 1912 moved this to another collection, Life's Little Ironies, while at the same time transferring two stories, A Tradition of Eighteen Hundred and Four and The Melancholy Hussar of the German Legion, from Life's Little Ironies to Wessex Tales.
