Do You Remember Me? Judith Levine, 2010-05-11 In her award winning book Harmful to Minors Judith Levine radically upended our fixed ideas about childhood Now she tackles the other end of life in this poignant memoir of a daughter coming to terms with a difficult father who is sinking into dementia presenting an insightful exploration of the ways we think about

disability aging and the self as it resides in the body and the world In prose that is unsentimental yet moving serious yet darkly funny complex in emotion and ideas yet spare in diction Levine reassembles her father s personal and professional history even as he is losing track of it She unpeels the layers of his complicated personality and uncovers information that surprises even her mother to whom her father has been married for more than sixty years As her father deteriorates the family consensus about who he was and is and how best to care for him constantly threatens to collapse Levine recounts the painful discussions mad outbursts and gingerly negotiations and dissects the shifting alliances among family friends and a changing guard of hired caretakers Spending more and more time with her father she confronts a relationship that has long felt bereft of love By caring for his needs she learns to care about and slowly to love him While Levine chronicles these developments she looks outside her family for the sources of their perceptions and expectations deftly weaving politics science history and philosophy into their personal story A memoir opens up to become a critique of our culture s attitudes toward the elderly A claustrophobic account of Alzheimer s is transformed into a complex lesson about love duty and community What creates a self and keeps it whole Levine insists that only the collaboration of others can safeguard her father s self against the riddling of his brain Embracing interdependence and vulnerability not autonomy and productivity as the seminal elements of our humanity Levine challenges herself and her readers to find new meaning even hope in one man s mortality and our own

VAMPIRE HUSBAND and THE AMERICAN JUSTICE Paru Shiva,2014-05 This book is about a woman who had come to America from Kashmir India She had no knowledge about American culture or American Justice System She was married in India and her husband brought her to America In America her husband started abusing her Being culturally about she kept taking abuse on daily basis and kept lying about her bruises and cuts to those who were asking her questions about her injuries Abuse got worst to the extent that one day her husband tried to kill her She gained her consciousness after couple of hours when her husband decided to dump her body in the park Somehow in the morning she managed to escape with her two children She went to a woman s shelter where she lived for six months In the shelter they insisted that she had to go to the court to get restraining order for her safety In that process her children were taken by the court and were given to that abusive man from whom they had a narrow escape She was forced to pay child support when she had not taken even a one cent from her home or from her husband after she left Her two children were given to their father because she was going to school Judge punished her and her two children for trying to establish their life Her Children suffered the most because of the Justice System I wrote this book for two reasons One reason is to tell my children especially my son that I am very sorry for taking my case to American Justice System because his father has kept him in fear Even my son is adult now but his father is still treating my son like he was treating me and my son is kept in a lot of fear stress and extreme tension His father didn't let him complete his education If he had encouraged my son to complete his education then he wouldn't be able to control my son's life That is tearing my heart every day And second reason is that I want to help a Battered Woman and their children by telling them my story I was a very private person but that didn't help me Every battered woman of this country should know that when a man hit his wife is not love It is a danger sign figure out on time about safety zones for self and for children My story will guide them to be strong enough to help their children
