Everage,2010-05-18 Traci Edmonds is a 53 year old single mother of three living a modest an certainly uneventful life She is a relatively shy stay at home mom operating a small travel business She has determined that at her age her time for finding a life mate is over and she resigns herself to living the rest of her life without love Then she makes a bid to provide travel arrangements for an electronics firm s annual retreat She is given the contract to make arrangements for the retreat aboard a cruise ship with the stipulation that she personally give the firm's top executive staff a pre-retreat trial run. Little does she know that this particular cruise would bring the unexpected and her life would be changed forever. During the cruise Traci meets the company owner Gary Crosse. He is what most women fantasize as their dream man: tall, dark, handsome, sometimes brooding. He is also rich and successful and a playboy, but like Traci, he is in his 50s. 57 to be exact. Gary has an infamous reputation in business and his personal life. He is a stickler for detail in business and a barracuda in his romances. Prior to meeting Mr. Crosse, Traci is warned: have all of your T's crossed, your I's dotted before presenting anything to Mr. Crosse. And do not fall prey to his very lethal charm. Traci heeds the warnings on her interactions with Gary Crosse and makes sure that her dealings with him are conscientious and professional. Until one fatal night just prior to the end of the cruise, Gary Crosse visits her cabin in the middle of the night and makes his intentions known, and they are not professional. This single act catapults them on a 30-year relationship filled with passion, romance, spirituality, physical and emotional trials, as well as danger, intrigue, and family unity. They endure tragedy, jealousy, betrayal, and forced separation. Then a racially motivated physical attack nearly destroys their relationship. It's that incident which leads Traci into the development of a family ministry. But in spite of the trials they endure, they do endure with the love they share and the grace, mercy, and protection of God almighty. And they bequeath a legacy of wisdom and faith to their family, friends, and all that knew them.

Unreasonable! Michael Kies, 2015-05-26. Michael Kies is proof that when life presents us with challenges, it's the unreasonable person who makes progress and thrives. This book will show you how to take control and be in charge of your life. History is filled with people who had the courage to have unreasonable expectations, to do the unusual, and the unexpected. The power of unreasonable is the single most important galvanizing force on the planet. If you feel you are not living to your full potential, get a little unreasonable and invest in this book; it may be the trigger you are looking for to step outside your comfort zone and create a better life.

At Home in the Land of Oz Anne Clinard Barnhill, 2007. Anne's sister, Becky, was born in 1958, before most people had even heard of autism. Diagnosed with emotional disturbance, Becky was subjected to well-meaning but futile efforts at rehabilitation or cure, as well as prolonged spells in institutions. This bittersweet memoir will resonate with everyone interested in autism spectrum conditions.
