Peripheral Memories Elisabeth Boesen, Fabienne Lentz, Michel Margue, Denis Scuto, Renée Wagener, 2014-03-15 After a period of intense work on national memory cultures we are observing a growing interest in memory both as a social and an individual practice Memory studies tend to focus on a particular field of memory processes namely those connected with war persecution and expulsion In this sense the memory or rather the trauma of the Holocaust is paradigmatic for the entire research field The Holocaust is furthermore increasingly understood as constitutive of a global memory community which transcends national memories and mediates universal values The present volume diverges from this perspective by dealing also with everyday subjects of memory This allows for a more complete view of the interdependencies between public and private memory and more specifically public and family memory

Being a Godly Man in a Godless World Craig Starley, 2023-08-21 There is an epidemic wiping out many of our men The cancer spreading throughout the country affects us all The devastation causes broken marriages leaves heartbroken children who have been caught in the crossfire and offers lousy examples for the next generations to follow The churches are filled with men who have no idea what constitutes a real man We are so far from where God wants us to be In Being a Godly Man in a Godless World author Craig Starley maintains there is only one cure to remove this cancer and cure the problem It s the Gospel Through the lives of a host of men in the Bible following the lead of the original godly man Jesus Starley examines what it means to be a real man Through scripture and Bible story examples he shows that the definition of a real man can t be found on television or in the movies It can only be found by looking at Jesus Christ as the quintessential role model

In Her Own Voice Katherine Martens, Heidi Harms, 1997-05-06 Winnipeg writer Katherine Martens interviewed 26 women from the Mennonite community in southern Manitoba ranging in age from 22 to 88 years old They had many different backgrounds but they all had one important characteristic all were mothers In the course of these interviews Martens was searching for answers to questions that affected her both as a Mennonite and as a woman How did they feel when they learned of the pregnancy How did they choose home or hospital birth How did the traditions of the Mennonite culture affect them as wives and mothers As they talked many spoke about the joys and trials of giving birth and they also told Martens stories about other parts of their lives Some had escaped the Russian Revolution to emigrate to Canada others spent their entire lives in rural Manitoba part of the close knit Mennonite community running farms and bearing as many as 15 children Younger women who had formally left the Mennonite church were still conscious of the impact of the beliefs and customs on their lives Many women were surprised to be approached for an interview insisting that they had no stories to tell One was visited in a dream by her dead husband who told her to leave that alone Yet in the privacy of their kitchens and parlours over sociable cups of tea many did share with Martens their private fears and joys about what was often seen as a rite of passage into responsible adulthood and they recalled that childbirth could be a difficult and at times traumatic event but it could also be a radiant and spiritual experience

Children of Hollywood Michelle Vogel,2005-04-13 Living in the shadow of a famous parent can have powerful effects from professional opportunities to pressure so great it leads to suicide Some children of stars are proud of their roots while others live in secrecy This is a rare look into the private lives of the children and in a few cases grandchildren of these classic Hollywood icons revealing the stresses and inspirations of living with great performers who may or may not have been great parents Some movie stars protected their offspring but others used them as publicity props or even made them into rivals Despite their unusual upbringing some of the children succeeded in the movies or elsewhere but many never lived up to the public expectations Many lost their parents whether to the extremes of the celebrity lifestyle to divorce or to their careers From the beautiful bedtime stories Harpo Marx and his wife told their four adopted children to explain where they d come from to the studded belt Bing Crosby used to punish his sons for not obeying the strict family rules this work tells the best and worst of growing up in a celebrity home Families covered include those of
