Abdill, 2018-06-12 Despite a decade of sociological research documenting black fathers significant level of engagement with their children stereotypes of black men as deadbeat dads still shape popular perceptions and scholarly discourse In Fathering from the Margins sociologist Aasha M Abdill draws on four years of fieldwork in low income predominantly black Bedford Stuyvesant Brooklyn to dispel these destructive assumptions She considers the obstacles faced and the strategies used by black men with children Abdill presents qualitative and quantitative evidence that confirms the increasing presence of black fathers in their communities arguing that changing social norms about gender roles in black families have shifted fathering behaviors Black men in communities such as Bed Stuy still face social and structural disadvantages including disproportionate unemployment and incarceration with significant implications for family life Against this backdrop black fathers attempt to reconcile contradictory beliefs about what makes one a good father and what makes one a respected man by developing different strategies for expressing affection and providing parental support Black men's involvement with their children is affected by the attitudes of their peers the media and especially the women of their families and communities from the grandmothers who often become gatekeepers to involvement in a child's life to the female dominated sectors of childcare primary school and family service provision Abdill shows how supporting black men in their quest to be and be seen as family men is the key to securing not only their children's well being but also their own Urban Discipline 2002 Mirko Reisser, Gerrit Peters, Heiko Zahlmann, Niels Jockel, 2002 Exhibition catalogue The elaborate hardcover catalogue to accompany the third Urban Discipline exhibition in 2002 contains 144 color pages It features detailed portraits of all 34 artists among them Os Gemeos Banksy Toast or Zedz including with extensive image material and personal texts written by the participants The Urban Discipline 2002 catalogue has become a rare collector's item for graffiti fans and art lovers all over the world Participating Artists Os Gemeos Vitcher Herbert Nina Sao Paulo Brazil Puzzle Melbourne Australia Mear Los Angeles USA Joker Portland USA Banksy London UK Zedz Amsterdam Netherlands CMP Copenhagen Denmark Stak HNT Andr Alexone Paris France Nami La Mano Barcelona Spain Dare Basel Switzerland Toast Bern Switzerland Loomit Sat One Munich ECB about the country's socio-political and cultural environment from the book Reflections of the Self Sandeep Trichal, 2018-11-16 It needs immense focus and determination to write a memoir not to mention the discipline and a routine. However, the most difficult part of writing a memoir is coming to terms with the self. And discovering the self is such a complex process. There are layers and layers of the self that have to be exposed and the end product is the nakedness that is described in the form of words in this memoir. Sometimes it is easy to peel off these layers of prejudices and memories, some biases and some emotions, but the final outcome is not something that is the gospel truth. It is so because there is nobody to question you on the sort of line of thinking and words that you choose to represent the body of a memoir in the sense that everything is preordained by the way one's neural networks are wired. That's why I titled this memoir as reflections of the self as the true nature of the self cannot possibly be determined merely by words and just by living one life. It takes several iterations when one truly understands the real self and perhaps that is what liberation or Moksha is all about. 1975 Mark Juddery, 2011-09-13 1975 in Australia was a year marked by political upheaval and cultural revival, a time when it was exciting to be an Australian. In this fascinating book, journalist Mark Juddery examines the year that marked a complete turning point in Australian history, politically, socially, and most of all, on the international stage. Comprising of interviews with prominent Australians who remember the year well, as well as issues of the time, 1975 explores The Whitlam Dismissal, the introduction of Medibank, PNG's independence from Australia, the return of native land to Aborigines in the Northern Territory, the first time unemployment soared, passed 5%, the first Australian political sex scandal to make headlines, Malcolm Fraser's egging in Darwin soon after the Dismissal, Peter Weir's Picnic at Hanging Rock being shown to an international audience, release of Australia's highest selling album by AC/DC, the launch of Radio 2JJ which became Triple J, and the year Australia admitted that the Vietnam War was a mistake. Tomorrow is Today Iain McIntyre, 2006 Extensively illustrated and featuring year-by-year accounts of developments in music, fashion, and society at large, TOMORROW IS TODAY is the definitive guide on the evolution of Australian youth culture during the heady period of the mid to late 1960s. This is an Aussie psychedelic music trip of a lifetime dig in and enjoy the good vibes. Ian McFarlane, author of THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF AUSTRALIAN ROCK AND POP. The Blacker the Ink Frances Gateward, John Jennings, 2015-07-16 When many think of comic books, the first thing that comes to mind are caped crusaders and spandex-wearing superheroes. Perhaps inevitably, these images are of white men and more rarely, women. It was not until the 1970s that African American superheroes such as Luke Cage, Blade, and others emerged. But as this exciting new collection reveals, these superhero comics are only one small component in a wealth of representations of black characters within comic strips, comic books, and graphic novels over the past century. The Blacker the Ink is the first book to explore not only the diverse range of black characters in comics but also the multitude of ways that black artists, writers, and publishers have made a mark on the industry. Organized thematically into panels in tribute to sequential art published in the funny pages of newspapers, the fifteen original essays take us on a journey that reaches from the African American newspaper comics of the 1930s to the Francophone graphic novels of the 2000s Even as it demonstrates the wide spectrum of images of African Americans in comics and sequential art the collection also identifies common character types and themes running through everything from the strip The Boondocks to the graphic novel Nat Turner Though it does not shy away from examining the legacy of racial stereotypes in comics and racial biases in the industry The Blacker the Ink also offers inspiring stories of trailblazing African American artists and writers Whether you are a diehard comic book fan or a casual reader of the funny pages these essays will give you a new appreciation for how black characters and creators have brought a vibrant splash of color to the world of comics Kaseng Lukun,2012-10
