Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1996-06 What Teachers Need to Know about Children At-Risk Barry B. Frieman, 2001 What do I do if I have an at risk child in my classroom As classrooms become more and more inclusive including children with special needs in mainstream classrooms today's teachers need to have a strong background in the at risk area This text supplies practical solutions for how to address the needs of at risk children effectively in the classroom And it provides in depth coverage of conditions that put children at risk Each at risk condition e g homelessness and recent immigrants is examined by how it affects children at various developmental stages and how it affects the families Hands on suggestions in each chapter show how the classroom teacher can accommodate children living in these at risk conditions The text s short length and inexpensive price make it an ideal supplement for a variety of Education courses What Teachers Need to Know about Children At Risk is a book that students will want to bring with them into their own classrooms as a reference tool when they begin teaching The text s comprehensive coverage also allows it to be used as a main text for a course specifically on at risk children

Connecting Fathers, Children, and Reading Sara Willoughby-Herb, Steven Herb, 2002 Examines the relationship between children and fathers and explores the link among families and libraries
