Matthews, 2014-11-30 My name is Archie Matthews I and my family have a long history of telling tales around the fire at family gatherings I ve grown up listening to thousands of tales handed down from generation to generation Once in a while a family member might experience a new adventure that would then result in a new tale being shaped and shared with family and friends Many of my tales are humorous adventures full of life s twists and turns Some delve into the depths of human emotion Most are factually true while others may be slightly embellished with an angle or two to add a bit of intrigue I am not a bold liar crook nor thief but as with storytellers of old it can be a bit of a challenge to separate the fact from the fiction That part I will always leave up to you the reader I promise to never cheat you with a boring tale nor steal your valuable time with vulgarity or gossip I guarantee at the very least a smile while striving for the ultimate belly laugh Father Brown:

The war stories and combat narratives of the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment during five and a half years of combat in Vietnam When the U S Army went to war in South Vietnam in 1965 the general consensus was that counterinsurgency was an infantryman's war if there were any role at all for armored forces it would be strictly to support the infantry However from the time the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment arrived in the country in September 1966 troopers of the Blackhorse Regiment demonstrated the fallacy of this assumption By the time of Tet 68 the Army's leadership began to understand that the Regiment's mobility firepower flexibility and leadership made a difference on the battlefield well beyond its numbers Over the course of the 11th Cavalry's five and a half years in combat in South Vietnam and Cambodia over 25 000 young men served in the Regiment Their stories and those of their families represent the Vietnam generation in graphic sometimes humorous often heart wrenching detail Collected by the author through hundreds of in person telephone and electronic interviews over a period of twenty five plus years these war stories provide context for the companion volume The Blackhorse in Vietnam Amongst the stories of the Blackhorse troopers and their families are the tales of the wide variety of animals they encountered during their time in combat as well as the variable landscape from jungle to rice paddies and weather Blackhorse Tales concludes with a look at how the troopers dealt with their combat experiences since returning from Vietnam Without question Donald Snedeker has paid a fitting tribute to this superb unit its soldiers and their families Military Review     The P.A.
