Optimization and Security Challenges in Smart Power Grids Vijay Pappu,Marco Carvalho,Panos Pardalos,2013-11-01 This book provides an overview of state of the art research on Systems and Optimization Aspects of Smart Grid Challenges The authors have compiled and integrated different aspects of applied systems optimization research to smart grids and also describe some of its critical challenges and requirements The promise of a smarter electricity grid could significantly change how consumers use and pay for their electrical power and could fundamentally reshape the current Industry Gaining increasing interest and acceptance Smart Grid technologies combine power generation and delivery systems with advanced communication systems to help save energy reduce energy costs and improve reliability Taken together these technologies support new approaches for load balancing and power distribution allowing optimal runtime power routing and cost management Such unprecedented capabilities however also present a set of new problems and challenges at the technical and regulatory levels that must be addressed by Industry and the Research Community

Can Democracy be Designed? Sunil Bastian, Robin Luckham, 2003-06 Constitution making for democracy has always been a highly political and contested process It has never been more ambitious or more difficult than today as politicians and experts attempt to build democratic institutions that will foster peace and stability in countries torn by violent conflict The extended investigation out of which this book has grown has ranged across three continents It has examined such apparently intractable cases as Bosnia Herzegovina Sri Lanka and Fiji as well as apparent success stories like South Africa Ghana and Uganda Three groups of questions are explored How and by whom were democratic institutions re designed How have they functioned in practice what has been the relationship between democratic institutions and democratic politics How have they measured up to the pressures placed on them by ongoing violence poverty globalization and democratization itself The authors while regarding democracy as a general entitlement refuse to subscribe to a triumphalist view which sees it as a universal panacea Instead they seek to understand how democratic institutions actually facilitate or sometimes fail to facilitate improved governance and the management of conflict in a variety of national settings This thoughtful and empirical set of explorations is highly relevant to other societies wrestling with similar problems of institutional design in situations of democratic transition and or deep seated social conflict

Energy Efficiency: Challenges and Opportunities for Electric Utilities, Online Journalism in Africa Hayes Mawindi Mabweazara, Okoth Fred Mudhai, Jason Whittaker, 2014-01-21 Very little is known about how African journalists are forging new ways to practise their profession on the web Against this backdrop this volume provides contextually rooted discussions of trends practices and emerging cultures of web based journalism s across the continent offering a comprehensive research tool that can both stand the test of time as well as offer researchers particularly those in the economically developed Global North models for cross cultural comparative research The essays here deploy either a wide range of evidence or adopt a case study approach to engage with contemporary developments in African online journalism This book thus makes up for the gap in cross cultural studies that seek to understand online journalism in all its complexities

Challenges on the Emmaus Road T. Felder Dorn, 2021-11-25 While slavery and secession divided the Union during the American Civil War they also severed the Northern and Southern dioceses of the Protestant Episcopal Church In Challenges on the Emmaus Road T. Felder Dorn focuses on the way Northern and Southern Episcopal bishops confronted and responded to the issues and events of their turbulent times Prior to the Civil War Southern bishops were industrious in evangelizing among enslaved African Americans but at the same time they supported the legal and social aspects of the peculiar institution Southern and Northern bishops parted company over the institution of slavery not over the place of blacks in the Episcopal Church As Southern states left the Union Southern dioceses separated from the Episcopal Church in the United States The book s title was inspired by the Gospel of Luke 24 13 35 in which the resurrected Jesus Christ walked unrecognized with his disciples and discussed the events of his own crucifixion and disappearance from his tomb Dorn perceives that scriptural episode as a metaphor for the responses of Episcopal bishops to the events of the Civil War era Dorn carefully summarizes the debates within the church and in secular society surrounding the important topics of the era In doing so he lays the groundwork for his own interpretations of church history and also provides authentic data for other church scholars to investigate such topics as faith and doctrine evangelism and the administrative history of one of the most important institutions in America Dorn devotes the final chapters to the postwar reunification of the Episcopal Church and Southern bishops involvement in establishing the Commission on Freedmen to offer help with the educational and spiritual needs of the recently emancipated slaves

Virginia at War, 1865 William C. Davis, James I. Robertson, 2012-01-06 The final volume in this comprehensive history of Confederate Virginia examines the end of the Civil War in the Old Dominion By January 1865 most of Virginia's schools were closed many newspapers had ceased publication businesses suffered and food was scarce Having endured major defeats on their home soil and the loss of much of the state's territory to the Union army Virginia's Confederate soldiers began to desert at higher rates than at any other time in the war returning home to provide their families with whatever assistance they could muster It was a dark year for Virginia Virginia at War 1865 presents a striking depiction of a state ravaged by violence and destruction In the final volume of the Virginia at War series editors William C Davis and James I Robertson Jr have once again assembled an impressive collection of essays covering topics that include land operations women and families wartime economy music and entertainment the demobilization of Lee's army and the war's aftermath The volume ends with the final installment of Judith Brockenbrough McGuire's popular and important Diary of a Southern Refugee during the War

George Gordienko Steven Verrier, 2022-04-15 George Gordienko 1928 2002 may be the greatest wrestler you've never heard of From humble Ukrainian Cossack immigrant roots in the Canadian Prairies he endured a tough childhood during the Great Depression to emerge as a leading shooter and one of a kind artist on the mat Excluded from wrestling in the United States during the McCarthy era because of his association with the Communist Party as a young man he was deprived of a run with the NWA World Heavyweight Championship for which he was hand picked by the great Lou Thesz After retirement Gordienko transitioned to a different sort of canvas and became a successful painter This first full length biography traces his remarkable career

Constructing Hegemony Mandla J. Radebe, 2023-12-01 Post apartheid South Africa continues to face challenges in its attempts at economic transformation from decades of apartheid and colonisation This need for revolution has resulted in various policy initiatives including the ongoing demands for the nationalisation of the economy The commercial media has a central role in shaping policy debates But this media is an ideological tool and an economic resource since it is owned and controlled by people with political and economic interests and therefore tends to support and promote their interests This book provides a Marxist critique of the representation of the nationalisation of the mines debate by the South African commercial media Radebe examines corporate control of the media to articulate the interrelations between the State Capital and the Media and how commercial media represents shapes and influences public policy He concludes that beyond factors such as ownership commercialisation and the influence of advertising on news content the global capitalist hegemony has a more powerful effect on the commercial media in South Africa than previously thought Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Catalog of Copyright
