Daily Life In Art:

Affective Landscapes in Literature, Art and Everyday Life Christine Berberich, Neil Campbell, 2016-03-09 Bringing together a diverse group of scholars representing the fields of cultural and literary studies cultural politics and history creative writing and photography this collection examines the different ways in which human beings respond to debate and interact with landscape How do we feel sense know cherish memorise imagine dream desire or even fear landscape What are the specific qualities of experience that we can locate in the spaces in and through which we live While the essays most often begin with the broadly literary the memoir the travelogue the novel poetry the contributors approach the topic in diverse and innovative ways The collection is divided into five sections Peripheral Cultures dealing with dislocation and imagined landscapes Memory and Mobility concerning the road as the scene of trauma and movement Suburbs and Estates contrasting American and English spaces Literature and Place foregrounding the fluidity of the fictional and the real and the human and nonhuman and finally Sensescape tracing the sensory response to landscape Taken together the essays interrogate important issues about how we live now and might live in the future

Life as Art Zachary Simpson, 2012-01-01 Life as Art synthesizes a number of aesthetic theories in philosophy after 1850 and shows the ways in which they contribute to a unified field of analysis and potential implementation The book is framed both as a secondary text analyzing 19th and 20th Century aesthetics and a primary argument for the viability of life as art as a unified philosophical position

Contemporary Art and the Digitization of Everyday Life Janet Kraynak, 2020-11-10 Digitization is the animating force of everyday life Rather than defining it as a technology or a medium Contemporary Art and the Digitization of Everyday Life argues that digitization is a socio historical process that is contributing to the erosion of democracy and an increase in political inequality specifically along racial ethnic and gender lines Taking a historical approach Janet Kraynak finds that the seeds of these developments are paradoxically related to the ideology of digital utopianism that emerged in the late 1960s with the rise of a social model of computing a set of beliefs furthered by the neo liberal tech ideology in the 1990s and the popularization of networked computing The result of this ongoing cultural worldview which dovetails with the principles of progressive artistic strategies of the past is a critical blindness in art historical discourse that ultimately compromises art s historically important role in furthering radical democratic aims

Aesthetics of Everyday Life Curtis L. Carter, Liu Yuedi, 2014-10-02 As a new trend in aesthetics appearing concurrently in the West and the East in the last ten years the aesthetics of everyday life points to a growing diversification among existing methodologies for pursuing aesthetics alongside the shift from art based aesthetics The cultural diversity manifest in global aesthetics offers common ground for the collaborative efforts of aesthetics in both the West and the East Given the rapidly growing interest and its potential for attracting new audiences extending beyond the more narrowly focused traditions of twentieth century analytic and environmental aesthetics it stands to command its own share of attention in the future of aesthetic studies The aesthetics of everyday life has become a stream of thought with a global ambition This interest has led to numerous systematic and in depth works on this topic some of which were conducted by the authors represented in this volume A salient feature of this book is that it not only represents the recent developments of the aesthetics of everyday life in the West but also highlights the interaction between scholars in the West and the East on this topic Thus the project is a contribution toward mutual progress in the collaboration between Western and Eastern aesthetics What distinguishes this book from other anthologies and monographs on this topic is that it reconstructs the aesthetics of everyday life through cultural dialogue between the West and the East with a view to building a new form of aesthetics of everyday life as seen from a global perspective At present the aesthetics of everyday life as a newly emergent approach to aesthetics may encounter skepticism among aestheticians accustomed to the rigors of analytic philosophers who prefer to discuss aesthetics at the level of abstract concepts and argument and who tolerate the particulars of experience mainly as illustrations But there is no reason to abandon the pursuit of the aesthetics of everyday life in the face of such objections On the contrary there are many benefits to gain in bringing aesthetics to bear on a wider sphere of human life made possible through efforts to show the relevance of aesthetics to a broader range of human actions
