D.H. Lawrence and the Paradoxes of Psychic Life Barbara Ann Schapiro, 1999-07-29 Contributing to the debate about D H Lawrence s relationship with and fictional portrayal of women this book discusses how the dynamic tensions of his art dramatically reenact the competing forces of psychic and relational life In her examination of Sons and Lovers The Rainbow Women in Love and various short stories Schapiro discusses how Lawrence s best works reveal a continual struggle to recognize and be recognized by the other as an independent subject Drawing on Jessica Benjamin s psychoanalytic theory of intersubjectivity she also demonstrates how a breakdown of balanced subject subject relations in his texts gives rise to defensive polarities of gender and of domination and submission

Lawrence's Italian Travel Literature and Translations of Giovanni Verga Antonio Traficante, 2007 While travel literature particularly the Italian travel literature of D H Lawrence Twilight in Italy 1916 Sea and Sardinia 1921 and Etruscan Places 1927 1932 has received a great deal of attention in recent years nobody has examined this work from a Bakhtinian viewpoint This approach allows us a unique perspective as well as a new appreciation of both Lawrence and Mikhail Bakhtin This is also true with respect to translation studies where the reader will find Lawrence's work on Giovanni Verga presented in a new and suggestive fashion In short this book provides new insights into D H Lawrence's relationship to the Italian Other as well as charts the permutations within himself This book makes a valuable contribution to our understanding of two of the greatest literary figures of the twentieth century D H Lawrence and Mikhail Bakhtin A Bibliography of D. H. Lawrence

Warren Roberts, Paul Poplawski, 2001-04-19 This pre eminent bibliography for D H Lawrence was extensively revised updated and expanded by Paul Poplawski for publication in 2001 D.H. Lawrence and Survival Ronald Granofsky, 2003-05-21 Granofsky shows that Lawrence's deliberate use of Darwinian elements in his narrative strategy occurred at a time when he was increasingly concerned about survival both personally due to illness and as an artist The result in his fiction is a subtext in which his anxieties are projected onto female characters and the evolution of his writing is frustrated by unresolved emotional conflicts Through new readings of the major fiction of Lawrence's transitional period Granofsky demonstrates that

Lawrence's deterioration as a writer and the misogyny of his later work was primarily the result of a deliberate effort on his part to move the ideological yardsticks of his fiction. Stalking the Subject Carrie Rohman, 2009 Human and animal subjectivity converge in a historically unprecedented way within modernism as evolutionary theory imperialism antirationalism and psychoanalysis all grapple with the place of the human in relation to the animal. Drawing on the thought of Jacques Derrida and Georges Bataille Carrie Rohman outlines the complex philosophical and ethical stakes involved in theorizing the animal in humanism including the difficulty in determining an ontological place for the animal the question of animal consciousness and language and the paradoxical status of the human as both a primate body and a human mind abstracting itself from the physical and material world. Rohman then turns to the work of Joseph Conrad D H Lawrence H G Wells and Djuna Barnes authors who were deeply invested in the relationship between animality and identity. The Island of Dr Moreau embodies a Darwinian nightmare of the evolutionary continuum. The Croquet Player thematizes the dialectic between evolutionary theory and psychoanalysis and Women in Love St Mawr and Nightwood all refuse to project animality onto others inverting the traditional humanist position by valuing animal consciousness. A novel treatment of the animal in literature. Stalking the Subject provides vital perspective on modernism's most compelling intellectual and philosophical issues. Desire for Love Marina Ragachewskaya, 2012-11-15 Desire for Love The Secret Longings of the Human Heart in D H Lawrence's Works is a collection of essays dedicated to several novels novellas short stories and non fiction by D H Lawrence one of the great 20th century English writers. With the help of the psychoanalytic textual approach Marina Ragachewskaya analyses subtle expressions of the emotional sphere in Lawrence's characters and their desire for love which is realised linguistically stylistically and symbolically. The discussion of the writer's textual subtleties suggests emotional education and intellectual delight. The book offers an outline of Lawrence's own psychoanalytic theory and how it is implemented in his fiction. Specific issues such as love discourse the unnamed eros a Jungian quest in search of love Doppelgangers love of power and the power of love sublimation and the language of dance as well as love in the time of war pertain to the discovery of unconscious desires and a culture of feeling in Lawrence. Comparisons with other authors are surprisingly rare in Lawrence studies. To fill this gap the volume also contains an essay on Lawrence's war stories analysed alongside Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway and Pat Barker's Regeneration. This inquiry into genuine human feeling will be equally attractive to literature scholars students and general readers. Lake Garda Nick Ceramella, 2013-11-13 Comes over one an absolute necessity to move. This opening sentence of Sea and Sardinia 1921 is strikingly telling about D H Lawrence's life which can be considered both literally and metaphorically as a journey to the sun. In this respect as the title of our symposium Lake Garda Gateway to D H Lawrence's Voyage to the Sun suggests he began his life long quest in Gargnano in 1912. This eponymous book draws together the papers presented at the Gargnano Symposium in 2012 to commemorate the centenary of the writer's stay in that paradise 3 September 1912 11 April 1913. The focus of our event was on Lawrence's sun search.

Challenge and Continuity ,2021-09-06 Challenge and Continuity is the first full length attempt to map an important feature of nineteenth and twentieth century literature the thematic novel It analyses it first in D H Lawrence revealing how in The Rainbow and Women in Love the psychology of the characters is brought into a wider social and ideological context that generates their controlling themes Having defined an alternative tradition exemplified by George Eliot and Tolstoy focused primarily on individual development it examines how that kind of interest was aligned in the nineteenth century with the thematic in a loose fashion by Charlotte Bront Turgenev Hardy and Wells and more precisely by Stendhal Flaubert and Emily Bront Challenge and Continuity goes on to identify the core of the thematic tradition in the work of Dickens Hawthorne Melville Dostoevsky and Conrad It is then revealed as a distinguishing feature of modernism in Ford Forster Joyce and Woolf with continuations into Huxley Orwell and Beckett With its complex of well researched links over a very wide area this book should appeal to scholars and students alike and also to the general reader with some knowledge of the field

Shapes of Openness Matthew Leone,2010-01-08 Bakhtin and Lawrence share remarkable affinities Bakhtinian dialogism is effectively a philosophy of potentiality and Lawrence or at least the Lawrence who authored Women in Love may well be its High Priest Both thinkers address questions of unity newness and the creative process In this study they enter into complementary genuinely Bakhtinian dialogue one in which The word in language is half someone else s One surprising result of this comparative examination is that some prevalent deeply damaging biases about Lawrence are undermined Is he a misogynist or is he essentially as he seems evidently to fear in Women in Love and rather consistently elsewhere an over compensating momma s boy Here Bakhtinian theory is used as a means of testing pertinent criticism of Lawrence and it provides a detailed conceptual basis for the readings of his fiction that follow Is Women in Love a Bakhtinian open totality How is dialogic openness as opposed to modernist indeterminacy a form shaping ideology of comic interrogation Is Women in Love not only open ended and unresolved but also about its open endedness or unfinalizability In methods and meanings in forming depths and explicit surfaces this study explores the sum and substance of the novel s dialogicality and finds that the shape of its dialogic openness is interrogative Indeed in Women in Love characters are identified by the self shaping questions they ask How much do you love me asks Gudrun of Gerald whose What do women want at the bottom like Ursula s Do you really love me have surprisingly revelatory depths Birkin s ludicrously encompassing and apocalyptic Is our day of creative life finished not only expresses a fundamental authorial narrative intention it simultaneously and self correctively mocks itself for so doing and does so in ways that may well suggest intuitive insights into the nature of Bakhtinian carnival laughter In large measure character in the Bakhtinian framework appropriated by this study is essentially a question personified one that is made to walk and talk so to speak within the intersecting chronotopes or time space zones of the novel Such ambulatory interrogations then either connect or fail to do so with other characters as questions in living conversation Women in Love achieves a polyphonic or dialogic openness one that Lawrence in his later fictions cannot always sustain Subsequent to it univocal simplifying organizations in his work supervene In his later fictions dialogic process collapses into a stenographic report upon completed dialogue over which the travel writer the poet or the messianic martyr preside There are nevertheless even in his later works happy exceptions to this diminution of dialogic vitality Lawrence s consummate dialogic openness of thought and expression can be discerned in the ambivalent laughter of The Captain s Doll of St Mawr and of The Man Who Loved Islands In these retrospective variations on earlier themes laughing openness of vision takes new unfinalizable or open shapes

The Death-ego and the Vital Self Gavriel Reisner,2003 This volume presents original views of the relationship between desire and romance It begins by looking anew at the nature of desire citing its central theoretical text as Freud s Beyond the Pleasure Principle It traces the struggle between myth and romance between the ego on its way to death and the self in search of life through close readings of poems and letters of John Keats and in detailed considerations of a series of novels including Frankenstein Wuthering Heights Jane Eyre and Sons and Lovers

Modernists at Odds Matthew J. Kochis,Heather L. Lusty,2020-05-12 A long overdue extended comparison of two of the most compelling writers of the twentieth century

Modernism, Metaphysics, and Sexuality Debrah Raschke,2006-08 Without question modernist texts have been haunted by what can be known or more aptly what cannot be known This position is foundational to one of the pivotal readings of modernism Simultaneously economic legal and political shifts that occurred during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries produced real material changes pertaining to the status of women Thus as many others have adeptly argued modernism is also a crisis in gender Modernism Metaphysics and Sexuality keenly suggests that these narratives the thinking of what constitutes truth and the rethinking of gender are intertwined Interpreting Conrad s Heart of Darkness and Victory Forster s A Passage to India and Maurice Lawrence s Women in Love and Woolf s A Room of One s Own and To the Lighthouse through Luce Irigaray s rereading of western metaphysics Raschke suggests that where there is a crisis in knowing there is also a crisis in gender

Risking Difference Jean Wyatt,2012-02-01 Risking Difference revisions the dynamics of multicultural feminist community by exploring the ways that identification creates misrecognitions and misunderstandings between individuals and within communities Drawing on Lacanian psychoanalysis Jean Wyatt argues not only that individual psychic processes of identification influence social dynamics but also that social discourses of race class and culture shape individual identifications In addition to examining fictional narratives by Margaret Atwood Angela Carter Sandra Cisneros Toni Morrison and others Wyatt also looks at nonfictional accounts of cross race relations by white feminists and feminists of color

Psychoanalyses / Feminisms Peter L. Rudnytsky,Andrew Gordon,2000-01-01 Bringing together twelve provocative and iconoclastic contributions by leading scholars and new voices this book probes the complementary yet contested relations between various forms of contemporary psychoanalysis and feminism The intention is not simply to juxtapose these two preeminent intellectual movements of the twentieth century but to highlight the manifold nature of each The contributors use and interrogate Freud Lacan Klein Irigaray Riviere and Jessica Benjamin as well as object relations theory self psychology and Horneyan theory as they discuss the work of such writers as D H Lawrence Emily Bronte Virginia Woolf and Kathy Acker If feminism has insisted that the personal is political psychoanalysis argues that no realm of human life is impervious to unconscious motives which may subvert a subject s avowed intentions Although Freud remains a point of reference he is now important as a symptom of the crises of Western patriarchal culture as well as for his epoch making theoretical ideas Because feminism and psychoanalysis unsettle each other s complacencies they rekindle their own radical potential and what may be perhaps termed their
