love and writes a best selling book , The Complete Henry bech John Updike,1992 Becoming John Updike Laurence W. Mazzeno,2013 When John Updike died in 2009 tributes from the literary establishment were immediate and fulsome However no one reading reviews of Updike s work in the late 1960s would have predicted that kind of praise for a man who was known then as a brilliant stylist who had nothing to say What changed Why And what is likely to be his legacy These are the questions that Becoming John Updike pursues by examining the journalistic and academic response to his writings Several things about Updike s career make a reception study appropriate First he was prolific he began publishing fiction and essays in 1956 published his first book in 1958 and from then on brought out at least one new book each year Second his books were reviewed widely usually in major American newspapers and magazines and often in foreign ones as well Third Updike quickly became a darling of academics the first book about his work was published in 1967 less than a decade after his own first book More than three dozen books and hundreds of articles of academic criticism have been devoted to Updike The present volume will appeal to the continuing interest in Updike s writing among academics and general readers alike Laurence W Mazzeno is President Emeritus of Alvernia University Among other books he has written volumes on Austen Dickens Tennyson and Matthew Arnold for Camden House s Literary Criticism in Perspective series authors actively negotiate their own celebrity rather than simply having it imposed upon them from reclusive authors such as Salinger and Pynchon famed for their very lack of public engagement to media friendly authors such as Updike and McInerney

Star Authors analyses literary celebrity in the context of the historical links between literature advertising and publicity in America the economics of literary production and the cultural capital involved in the marketing and consumption of books and authors

A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24

The Rise and Fall of Jewish American Literature Benjamin Schreier, 2020-10-16

Benjamin Schreier argues that Jewish American literature's dominant cliché of breakthrough that is the irruption into the heart of the American cultural scene during the 1950s of Jewish American writers like Bernard Malamud Philip Roth Saul Bellow and Grace Paley must also be seen as the critically originary moment of Jewish American literary study According to Schreier this is the primal scene of the Jewish American literary field the point that the field cannot avoid repeating and replaying in instantiating itself as the more or less formalized academic study of Jewish American literature More than sixty years later the field's legibility the very condition of its possibility remains overwhelmingly grounded in a reliance on this single ethnological narrative In a polemic against what he sees as the unexamined foundations and stagnant state of the field Schreier interrogates a series of professionally powerful assumptions about Jewish American literary history how they came into being and how they hardened into cliché He offers a critical genealogy of breakthrough and other narratives through which Jewish Studies has asserted its compelling self-evidence not simply under the banner of the historical realities Jewish Studies claims to represent but more fundamentally for the intellectual and institutional structures through which it produces these representations He shows how a historicist scholarly narrative quickly consolidated and became hegemonic in part because of its double articulation of a particular American subject and of a transnational historiography that categorically identified that subject as Jewish The ethnological grounding of the Jewish American literary field is no longer tenable Schreier asserts in an argument with broad implications for the reconceptualization of Jewish and other identity based ethnic studies NTA/UGC-NET/JRF English YCT Expert Team , NTA UGC NET JRF English Chapter wise Solved Papers with Notes
