Burden Or Boon Study Of Eritrean Refugees In The Sudan:

Burden Or Boon? Tom Kuhlman, 1990 Rights in Exile Guglielmo Verdirame, Barbara E. Harrell-Bond, 2005 Of the estimated 12 million refugees in the world more than 7 million have been confined to camps effectively warehoused in some cases for 10 years or more Holding refugees in camps was anathema to the founders of the refugee protection regime Today with most refugees encamped in the less developed parts of the world the humanitarian apparatus has been transformed into a custodial regime for innocent people Based on rich ethnographic data Rights in Exile exposes the gap between human rights norms and the mandates of international organisations on the one hand and the reality on the ground on the other It will be of wide interest to social scientists and to human rights and international law scholars Policy makers donor governments and humanitarian organizations especially those adopting a rights based approach will also find it an invaluable resource But it is the refugees themselves who could benefit the most if these actors absorb its lessons and apply them Guglielmo Verdirame is a Lecturer in Law at the University of Cambridge and a Fellow of Corpus Christi College He is also the author of a forthcoming book on the accountability of the United Nations Barbara Harrell Bond Founding director of the Refugee Studies Centre University of Oxford has after retirement been Visiting Professor at Makerere University and at the American University in Cairo In 1996 she received the Distinguished Service Award of the American Anthropological Association She is the author of Imposing Aid Oxford 1986 Anti-Refugee Violence and African Politics Ato Kwamena Onoma, 2013-10-07 Using comparative cases from Guinea Uganda and the Democratic Republic of Congo this study explains why some refugee hosting communities launch large scale attacks on civilian refugees whereas others refrain from such attacks even when encouraged to do so by state officials Ato Kwamena Onoma argues that such outbreaks only happen when states instigate them because of links between a few refugees and opposition groups Locals embrace these attacks when refugees are settled in areas that privilege residence over indigeneity in the distribution of rights ensuring that they live autonomously of local elites The resulting opacity of their lives leads locals to buy into their demonization by the state Locals do not buy into state denunciation of refugees in areas that privilege indigeneity over residence in the distribution of rights because refugees in such areas are subjugated to locals who come to know them very well Onoma reorients the study of refugees back to a focus on the disempowered civilian refugees that constitute the majority of refugees even in cases of severe refugee militarization Refugees and the Transformation of Societies Philomena Essed, Georg Frerks, Joke Schrijvers, 2004-06-01 The refusal or reception of refugees has had serious implications for the social policies and social realities of numerous countries in east and west Exploring experiences interpretations and practices of refugees the internally displaced and returnees in or emerging from societies in violent conflict this volume challenges prevailing orthodoxies and encourages new developments in refugee studies It also addresses the ethics and politics of interventions by professionals and policy makers using case studies of refugees from or in South Asia the Middle East North Africa Europe and the Americas These illustrate the dynamic nature of situations where refugees policy makers and practitioners interact in trying to construct new livelihoods in transforming societies Without a proper understanding of this dynamic nature so the volume argues overall it is not possible to develop successful strategies for the accommodation and integration of refugees

Internally Displaced, Refugees and Returnees from and in the Sudan Desirée Nilsson, 2000 Liguria is another country They do things differently there particularly when it comes to food Lucio Galletto grew up in Liguria at the eastern end of the Riviera di Levante coast of the rising sun He didn't realize how special his region was until he fell in love with an Australian girl and traveled 12 000 kilometers to be with her In 2008 Lucio and writer David Dale along with photographer Paul Green returned to the birthplace of ravioli and pesto and wild greens pie to investigate how the cooking of Lucio's region had evolved during his 25 year absence They found a new breed of chefs farmers and fishermen adapting traditions to the environmental concerns of the 21st century Still using the wonderful array of local herbs vegetables and seafood they apply a lighter touch and a more adventurous spirit In this stunningly photographed book Lucio brings us the fruits of his travels 180 delicious recipes that respect the experience of the past and anticipate the demands of the future dishes that are fun to cook beautiful to look at a pleasure to share and kind to the body And importantly that pay homage to the sunny Riviera di Levante from which Lucio's culinary journey began This book was the winner of the 2008 Gourmand Award for Best Italian Cuisine Book Australian Category and the 2009 Cordon d'Or Cuisine Award for Best Illustrated Culinary Book The Economic Life of Refugees Karen Jacobsen, 2005 What happens to refugees the victims of forced migration once the first rush of media attention and aid has passed and they must rebuild their lives essentially on their own Karen Jacobsen explores the economic survival strategies of refugees and the obstacles that they face as they live in a protracted state of displacement She also proposes alternative approaches for humanitarian agencies seeking to offer meaningful support Refugee Economies Alexander Betts, Louise Bloom, Josiah David Kaplan, Naohiko Omata, 2017 This book explores the economic lives of refugees It looks at what shapes the production consumption finance and exchange activities of refugees to explain variation in economic outcomes for refugees themselves Diasporas in Cairo, 2005 Eritrean Studies Review, 2004

Engendering Forced Migration Doreen Marie Indra, 1999 As the millennium approaches war political oppression desperate poverty environmental degradation and disasters are increasing the world's millions of forced immigrants This text provides gendered case studies from around the world African Studies Review, 1996 Immigrant Lives Edward Shizha, Edward Makwarimba, 2023 Voluntary and involuntary human mobility in the form of migration is a natural human phenomenon which has been a central feature from the ancient times into the modern times While the boundaries between voluntary and involuntary migrants are blurred voluntary migrants in the context of this book refer to those who migrate out of their own free choice based on socioeconomic considerations while involuntary migrants are forced to leave their country out of fear of persecution or insecurity caused by political violence or civil and military strife In this book the terms newcomer foreign born and migrant and immigrant are used interchangeably and refer to those who were born in another country and later emigrated to another country as permanent residents later becoming citizens asylum seekers and refugees Migration is an increasing challenge faced by countries institutions and individuals in both sending and receiving countries In countries where there is a large inflow of immigrants migration has created a multiple origin transnationally connected socio economically differentiated and legally stratified demographic landscape which lends itself to a description of superdiverse societies Jensen Vertovec 2007 Most industrialized countries mostly in the Global North are experiencing low birth rates and are dependent on immigrants to satisfy their job market and population growth while less developed nations mostly in the Global South are experiencing low economic growth inadequate socioeconomic opportunities These social and economic challenges are presently the cornerstone of migration transnationalism and transnationality

Risks and Reconstruction Michael M. Cernea, Chris McDowell, 2000-01-01 This book offers a multidimensional comparative analysis of two large groups of the world's displaced populations resettlers uprooted by development and refugees fleeing military conflicts or natural calamities The authors explore common central issues the condition of being displaced the risks of impoverishment and destitution the rights and entitlements of those uprooted and most important the means of reconstruction of their livelihoods Adapt de l Introduction

Forced Migrants and Host Societies in Egypt and Sudan Fabienne Le Houérou, 2006 Examines the complex interactions between these refugees and their hosts as well as the struggles that shape their daily lives

Census of Population, 1950, 1953 Resilience in South Sudanese Women Godriver Wanga-Odhiambo, 2013-12-18 Resilience in South Sudanese Women describes the historical injustices in Southern Sudan that led to the outbreak of civil wars These injustices included socio economic and political marginalization that denied the women basic needs It gives firsthand life experiences of the Sudanese women during the protracted civil wars in their country It narrates the horrors of the gruesome journeys that they took as they fled war zone burying their kids on unmarked graves and moving on It shows how they dealt with homelessness in host countries through various coping strategies and their eventual resettlement in USA where again they experienced cultural collisions However their determination innovation and resilience always helped them to overcome the struggles

African Refugees Howard Adelman, 2020-02-24 Of the world's refugees more than a third live in Africa displaced from their homelands by war poverty famine and political persecution In this book contributors explore key issues related to these refugee populations The first section looks at the legal framework for defining and assisting refugees and the second deals with the issue of relief by considering specific cases the general problems faced and particular relief efforts Subsequent chapters examine forced migration resettlement and repatriation conflict with local populations integration of refugees and sustainable development

Regeneration of War-Torn Societies NA NA, 2016-04-30 Regeneration and peacebuilding in war torn societies is a fast growing area of interest in world politics The book is an original and timely contribution to the study of post conflict transition through an examination of various aspects of regeneration and detailed analysis of examples of intent Four issues are highlighted in particular the legacies of modern conflict in the transitions to relative peace the question of ownership and accountability in the interactions between internal and external actors the need for coherent responses to regeneration the importance of case specific approaches The book s purpose is to encourage students policy makers and practitioners in governments intergovernmental organisations international and local non governmental organisations to understand and reflect on processes designed to promote social stability and relative peace and to re examine the nature of the tasks they confront and their responses The authors represent perspectives from law political economy social work development studies anthropology and international relations Refugees, Gender and Human Security Ellen Lammers,1999 The concept of gender Historical Dictionary of the Sudan Richard Andrew Lobban,Richard Lobban,Robert S. Kramer,Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban,2002 The third edition focuses on the period following the rise of Islam in the Sudan in the 14th century the earlier period will appear in a forthcoming volume on Ancient Nubia with extensive coverage of political events since the civil war and establishment of Islamic Shari a law in 1983 and the radical Islamic movements of the 1990s In addition to the dictionary itself a chronology maps and lengthy 44 page introduction to the history of the Sudan are provided Two of the authors teach anthropology at Rhode Island College the third teaches African and Middle Eastern History at St Norbert College Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
